

ADVICES FROM CUBA.

Don Antonio Aiko for the Privileges of Fighting the Rebels.

DEATHS FROM YELLOW FEVER.

Santiago's Lee & Fisher — Cuban
Baptist — Captain Edward W.
Smith — Mrs. Smith.

New York, July 2.—A. despatch to the Herald from Havana says: "The movement that the Spanish Legion Don Antonio, is sending a touring company to Cuba. In a political trial in the war department he admits he was part of the Webster-Tracy, where he will probably have an opportunity to fight Moscú's other interest regions."

A rebel band, commanded by General Mariano Torrijos, the leader of Chavarría, invaded the town, under the laws of Don Antonio. On the 1st of July, he sent his forces to the 100 rebels situated in the Mandurio cemetery and surrounded the town. They next went to the home of the leader, threatening to hang him if he did not destroy his troops. He fled.

Moscoso advises report that they offered some yesterday or today were in Cuba. The civil hospital and the military hospital are to be used to accommodate the sick soldiers. The small steamer Almanzor will carry a supply of medicine. "Despatched between Cozumel and Julian Fugard.

In response to General Estevan's formal inquiries as to the status of the city's case against General Wagner, the military said that the trials had been adjourned to consider wholly to the heads of the civil courts.

When Mariano was tried in December last, he was condemned to 15 years, but was soon set free by a new trial.

General Estevan, however, is especially anxious to get him for trial again. He will not let the trials of the Cuban rebels be allowed to stand unless they decide his fate. He wants to get him for trial again.

General Estevan remains in Cuban lands until hearing the final verdict. He occupies the most important position in the army and the highest office in the country, but is not yet excommunicate. His wife and the third Cuban friend are allowed to visit him whenever they desire and he has no objection to their doing so.

The new Cuban budget has been presented to the Cuban Congress. It gives the proposed expenditure of the fiscal year as $26,500,000, not exceeding extraordinary war and navy items, which are expected to exceed $7,000,000. The amount of money available at the end of the year is estimated to be less than $1,000,000, so as to offset the extraordinary unusual losses receipts.

The land tax is to be increased per acre to $100,000,000, or 15 percent. The income tax is to be increased 15 percent, the tobacco tax approximately 10 percent, and the stamp taxes are increased 50 percent. Miscellaneous taxes for some consumption are to be increased 10 percent or 15 percent.

The budget subject to modification in the end, but the general bill of the budget is to be voted on July 15. The plantations have been taxed by the Cuban general, especially and tends to reduce it still further.

The trans-Atlantic steamer Adriatic XIX, recently arrived at New York, has been chartered by the Cuban government to facilitate the road to Cuba.
