

The Emigrant Company.—The following Utah Elders accompany the Saints who left New York for this city yesterday—

N. C. Flygare, George L. Farrell, J. U. Stucki, Henry Eyring, W. H. Maughan, E. Snellgrove, V. L. Halliday, W. J. Lewis, Joseph H. Parry, Thomas C. Martell, Peterson, A. Anderson, Gustavson, J. Anderson, Hanson, R. N. Jeppson, F. Thurer, J. J. Walser, Henry C. Fowler, T. D. Evans, William Spicer, Thomas C. Griggs.

The Colorado Settlers.—We have perused a letter, written at Allen's Camp, on the Little Colorado, June 23rd, from Bro. Joseph McMurrin.

The grain of this settlement has all been watered and is coming up nicely, a cheering sight to the settlers. Previous to watering some of it had been lying in the ground as dry as when put in, for months. Some thought it would never come up, but it all looks well now.

The brethren are now engaged in building a fort, twelve rods square. It will be built of cottonwood timbers, set firmly in the ground, the walls nine feet high, and of double thickness of logs, surrounded on the inside with houses 12 feet by 26 feet. This fort building is merely a precautionary measure, in case of possible future contingencies, the Indians in the surrounding country being all peaceable. On the site of the proposed fort a well has been dug, good water having been found at a depth of fifty feet. At each of the four corners of the fort, a short distance outward from the walls, a guard house will be erected.

On the same night the letter was written a company of Bostonians were camped at the settlement. They purposed settling on the Little Colorado, but had arrived in time to be too late. That was the second company from the same city that had passed along, one hundred in all, none of them having families.

Allen's camp settlers here had their water ditch recorded, in accordance with the laws of Arizona Territory, the first on the river. The water of the Little Colorado has neither decreased nor increased for a considerable time, and there was sufficient for the settlement for this year. The entire letter breathes a cheerful spirit that is very gratifying, more especially when exhibited by the younger brethren of the mission.

Returned Missionary.—We were pleased to meet this morning, and welcome home, Elder Henry C. Boyle, who arrived last evening from a mission to the Southern States. His mission has been a remarkably successful one. He left here April 27th, 1875, and proceeded to Tennessee, where, by assiduous labor and the blessing of God, he succeeded in raising and organizing a branch of the Church numbering seventeen members.

On January 1st, of the present year, himself and Elder John D. H. McAllister left Tennessee for Arkansas. In the latter State the opposition met with was of the most bitter description, but before the labors of those Elders, by the blessing of the Lord, it gradually gave way, and numbers of people, becoming convinced of the truth of the great latter-day work, were baptized into the Church, and soon a branch was organized, which now numbers eighty members. Besides the people baptized in Tennessee and Arkansas, thirty-three children were blessed.

The labors of Elder Boyle and companion in Arkansas were of the most unceasing character, from four to five meetings being held each week, and wherever they went crowds assembled, necessitating the answering of inquiries frequently, till after midnight, until Elder Boyle, becoming worn out, had occasionally to betake himself to the woods to obtain a respite and rest.

Elder Boyle left the branch which is located near Des Arc, Prairie County, in a very healthy condition, he never having seen a more lively and interested body of Saints, and those who have means are ready to help those who have not, to emigrate.

Elder Boyle will proceed to his home, in Payson, Utah County, to-morrow morning, and anticipates returning to Arkansas in November, and he will probably take a company from that State to Arizona, next season.

Prairie County, Ark., is bounded, on its southern edge, by the Little Rock and Memphis railroad, and by the Fulton and Cairo railroad on the north, and White river runs through the eastern part of it. The Branch of the Church is about four miles west of Des Arc, the county seat.

Elder Boyle speaks in the highest terms of the labors and faithfulness of Elder John D. H. McAllister, who has been a great support to him. He is at present in northern Pennsylvania, visiting among his relatives.

Brother Boyle has been on four separate missions to the Southern States, having spent about twenty years in that kind of labor. His health, while on his late or rather present mission, was not very good. At the present time a couple of the brethren that he baptized on a previous mission, one in North Carolina and the other in Virginia, Elders John C. Harper and Franklin Haymore, both young men, are now themselves in the Southern States, on missions from Utah, and bearing a faithful, unwavering testimony to the truth of the great latter-day work.

Items from Kanab.—Our Kanab correspondent, Brother W. D. Johnson, writes as follows, under date of July 1st—

"On the 7th ult. we had a pleasant visit from Brothers Hardy and Young, who are travelling in the interest of the Y. M. M. I. A. They held meeting in the evening, which was well attended by old and young. They expressed themselves well pleased with the start we had made, and gave words of encouragement and advice, much of which I think has been remembered by our young men."

"Our beloved President gave us a short visit on the 19th ult., and left on the morning of the 21st. It made times quite lively for two days in our quiet little town, as visits of this kind are of rare occurrence. While here the President called upon all the Arizona missionaries of 1873, to move on over the river and join the brethren already there. All those who located in this country are preparing to go over in the Fall."

"On the 22d ult. we paid our last respects to an aged and respected sister, named Olive Myers. She was 75 years of age, and died a natural death, as a ripe apple would fall off the tree. She was a Saint in every sense of the word and was respected and beloved by all."

"Brother Wells and the brethren with him held meeting on the 20th ult., which she attended, evidently in her usual health, and next morning at 10 o'clock she died without a struggle, with a smile on her face."

"The weather has been uncommonly warm during the last month, the thermometer showing 104 and 105 in the shade, and as yet no rain this season, which makes it quite dry and unwholesome; still we have plenty of water, gardens and fields looking well."

"It being Centennial year, our little town, feeling patriotic, will celebrate the 4th of this month in a becoming manner. The committee of arrangements, Allen Frost, James L. Bunting and W. D. Johnson, Jr., tell us there will be a salute of guns, etc., at sunrise, with hoisting of the stars and stripes and music by the martial band. There will be a procession of authorities of county and precinct, citizens, Sunday and day school children, and others at 9 o'clock, exercises in the bowery at 10 o'clock, under the direction of the Marshal of the Day, Thomas Robertson, which consist of reading of the Declaration of Independence, speeches by the Orator of the day, Hon. James Lewis, and L. John Nuttall, songs, toasts, martial music and singing by Ward and juvenile choirs. In the afternoon there will be singing, games, etc., and the evening will be spent in dancing. All anticipate a good time."

—The Washington Star of June 28th says—"Mr. Mulligan, of Boston, who is now in this city, stated today that he never, under any circumstances, or to anybody, at any place, asserted that ex-Speaker Blaine did not correctly read the Warren-Fiske letters. On the contrary, he admits that he read every syllable in them."

—"Bustles are slipping out of fashion." They do every night, but they come into fashion again every morning.

Brown came home late the other night, and Mrs. B., reaching out of the bedroom window, said: "So you've been tipping the glass again have you?" "Glass," said Brown, "is a funny word; take off the 'g' and it's you, my dear." "Yes," answered the wife, "and then take off the 'l' and it's you, you wretch," and she slammed down the window with a bounce.
