P. L. WILLIAMS, recently appointed Territorial School Commissioner under the Edmunds-Tucker law, and C. S. Varian, ex-U. S. District Attorney, have refused to take part in the celebration of the Fourth in this city.

THERE was a good attendance at the Fourteenth Ward assembly rooms last evening, at Robt. W. Sloan's lecture. The speaker handled his subject thoroughly and vigorously, and received a hearty vote of thanks for his able effort.

A WOMAN who has appeared in the police court on numerous occasions, and gives a new name every time, was arrested last night to answer to the charge of vagrancy and profanity. She wished to be known as "Dutch Molly" this time.

THE following are among the names of those who will take part this evening at the raspberry and ice cream festival in the Thirteenth Ward Assembly Rooms: Mr. Alfred Nilsson, Mr. Moron Thomas, Mr. Heber Goddard, Mr. Jas. Trustees' Meeting.

The school trustees will bear in mind the meeting called for Thursday evening, June 29, at 8 o'clock, in the Fourth Ward Assembly Rooms. It is necessary that each school district in the county be represented, as the Territorial School Commissioner, P. L. Williams, has business of great importance to present.

Wm. M. STEWART, County Superintendent.

Elders in Ohio.

TWO Elders now laboring in Ohio have recently baptized a number of persons and organized a branch of the Church at East Liverpool, in that State. Brother George Davidson, whom they ordained a priest, has been chosen to preside over the branch. A few are inquiring after the Gospel, but some persons in that city have confessed that they do not want to hear it in order that they may not be condemned for disobeying it.

Operation at Deseret Hospital.

A young lady who has been suffering for the last six or eight months from a most distressing malady, resulting from stone in the bladder, called vesica calculata, was operated upon at the Deseret Hospital last Monday. Until within the last 25 years such a malady was considered incurable, but American genius and skill, developed by Dr. Marion Sims, of New York, invented mechanical means of permanent cure. The operation was performed by Dr. R. M. Pratt, assisted by Dr. J. S. Richards, Dr. Ellis B. Shippey and Dr. Magie Shippey. The patient is making a most satisfactory recovery.

Lumber Company.

The Sierra Nevada Lumber Company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000 divided into 500 shares. The incorporators are Edward J. Brickell, Thos. R. Jones, Sylvester J. Lynn, Wm. P. Lynn and W. J. Webb, who are also the officers. The principal place of business is at Salt Lake City, and the object of the incorporation is to carry on a general business in lumber and its manufactured products, feed, grain, farm and agricultural produce, farm implements, wagons, tools and mechanical implements of all kinds, live stock and general merchandise of every kind and description, machinery and its appurtenances; to construct a mill and manufacturing business in all the above branches of trade; to loan money and take security therefor, by way of mortgage or otherwise; to conduct and carry on a general forwarding business and a general contracting business.

Parry's Magazine.

The July number of this magazine is out, enlarged and improved. It now contains forty-eight pages of reading matter, and is profusely illustrated. Its contents are: "The Mormon Metropolis," "Somebody's Somewhere," "A Glance of Russia," "How Morality may be Taught in Our Public Schools," "How they Cured Him," "Longhair," "Social Position of the Diverse Animals," "He Chose This Path for Thee," "The Lesson of the Corn," "The District School," "John Rosch, the American Ship-Builder," "The Tyrode Blade on Marriage," "Trifling Cliquenances and Great Consequences," "We all have a Cross to Bear," "The Thoroughbred," "Books," "Popular Miscellany," "Monthly Summary of Current Events" and "Salmagundi."

The illustrations are views in Salt Lake City. That representing the city and valley from Ensign Peak is used as a frontispiece. It is unfortunate that the engraving is far below the standard of those generally used by the magazine. The other pictures give an excellent idea of their subjects. J. G. Parry & Co., publishers.

INSTITUTE LECTURES.

Several Educational Subjects Treated Upon.

Prof. J. H. Paul, this morning, continued his lecture on "Vocal Culture." He had taken numerous extracts from the highest authorities on this subject, which should give his remarks additional force. He said there is only one true method of developing the speaking voice, and that is the method used in cultivating the singing tones.

Singing quietly and naturally up to "ff" will cultivate a pleasant voice, while above that tone will cause the voice to become shrill and unnatural. Children should not be permitted to sing long sustained melodies, but bright, lively rhymes and tunes, and these in a low, sweet voice, with as pure pronunciation as may be. Children should not sing too long. Five minutes at a time with an equal interval of rest, is long enough.

Parents should be extremely careful to teach children to breathe through the nose. Often the habit of breathing through the mouth produces many diseases of the throat and lungs; when the air first passes through the nose it is filtered of many impurities before reaching the lungs.

Gymnastics are excellent for the cultivation of the vocal organs if judiciously used.

The advantages of a

was discussed upon by Mr. T. D. Lewis. He claimed that it will save vast expense to the teachers by bringing many volumes within their reach at a trifling cost. They will come in contact with some of the most important educational writers which perhaps they would scarcely hear of but for the library.

Mr. D. R. Allen, on the subject of "The Teacher," claimed that as character has such a strong influence on character the teacher needs to be as nearly perfect as it is possible for him to be. He must understand the subject he teaches; he must understand what relation his profession holds to other professions. The teacher must himself be a student continually progressing in intelligence. Cheerfulness and sympathy he must cultivate. No man can successfully teach who does not love children and his work in the schoolroom. Teachers should remember they are not working for their honor alone, but for the honor of the profession.

CONTINUANCE CONTINUED.

The Prosecution's Chronicle State of Not Ready in Ogden.

The case of the United States vs. Jas. H. Nelson on a charge of unlawful cohabitation, in Ogden, was called up before Commissioner Rogers for the second time on Saturday last, at 10 a. m. At that time, as we learn from the Ogden Herald, defendant and his counsel appeared. There had been witnesses present for the prosecution and the commissioner announced that the subpoena had been issued in blank, a witness. The subpoena had not been returned and the witness was a necessary one to the prosecution before the examination could be proceeded with. The court was asked the name of the witness. Defendant's counsel insisted that Mr. Nelson was entitled to an immediate examination, and that it should be completed at once, unless a good cause was shown by affidavit for a continuance. No affidavit had been shown, nor any reason or fact brought forward for a continuance. The commissioner said that he would make the showing on behalf of the prosecution that there was a subpoena issued, and the prosecution desired the evidence. The defense also objected to the Commissioner's sitting on the bench and acting as public prosecutor at the same time. The court explained that the practice in the District Court had been to grant a continuance to the prosecution without affidavit, while the defense must always produce a good showing for a continuance. That practice would be followed in this court, and the case was postponed until Tuesday, at 1 p. m., when defendant was on hand with his legal adviser prepared for examination. The same proceedings transpired, the subpoena not having been returned. Another postponement for a week was taken. Mr. Hiles was present, and said he would make the showing for the defense. He did not know the name of the witness who was wanted.

The Commissioner said he was anxious to try the case, as he was making up his accounts and would like to include this case with them; but a continuance was necessary to the prosecution and therefore must be had for the time being.

Territorial Supreme Court.

A session of the Supreme Court was held this afternoon, the three justices being present.

In the case of the People vs. A. J. Peacock and W. A. Thompson, assessed by Joseph Sowden, sustaining the action of the Third District Court was affirmed. Judge Boreman rendered the opinion, in which the other judges concurred, and gave H. R. Watrous, attorney for the defense, a scolding for "the hodge-podge manner in which he had thrown the record before the court."

In the case of the People vs. A. J. Peacock, also for assault, and appealed from the Third District Court, the action of the lower court was affirmed.

Judge Boreman also rendered the opinion of the court in the suit of Eliza Darnell vs. Joseph Sowden, sustaining the action of the Third District Court. In the unlawful cohabitation case of the United States vs. George T. Peay, appealed from the First District, Judge Boreman rendered the opinion, affirming the decision of the court below.

People vs. Andrew Pettit, convicted of grand larceny; appealed from Third District Court; opinion by Judge Henderson; decision of lower court affirmed.

United States vs. Joseph Clark; unlawful cohabitation; opinion by Judge Zane; decision of lower court affirmed.

Captured.

BLACKFOOT, Idaho, June 28.—Williams, the Cariboo murderer, who was under sentence to be hanged July 23d, and who, with Harrington and Nickerson, the two horse thieves, who broke out along with Woods, the Pocatello wife murderer, and who was captured shortly after leaving the jail June 26th, were surrounded last evening and captured in a cabin twenty-five miles from Eagle Rock and taken there this morning. It is evident the prisoners showed fight, as they were heavily armed, and as near as can be learned, Harrington, the horse thief, was wounded, being shot through the foot by one of the pursuers. None of the pursuers were hurt. The prisoners will be taken from Blackfoot this afternoon and placed in jail here. Great excitement prevails.—Ogden Herald.

Rich County Convention.

We are in receipt of a well written report of the convention held at Lake Town, Rich County, on the 25th. It was well attended, and was an enthusiastic assembly. Stirring, patriotic and eloquent speeches were made, and the audience sang "The Star-Spangled Banner." Jonathan G. Kimball, of Meadowville, was selected as the delegate to the Territorial convention. Lack of space and the length of time that has elapsed since the convention was held cause the condensation of the report.

KU-KLUX DOINGS.

Missionaries in the Southern States Mistreated.

By means of private letters received in this city, we learn of the persecution to which some of the Elders in Georgia have recently been subjected. A letter from one of them, Elder S. G. Spencer, to a companion in the field, dated Belair, Ga., June 13th, which has been forwarded to us, says:

Two meetings were held at the chapel, last week, controlled by K. K. Klux. A large number of party was organized, every man signing his name to a villainous manifesto. We were told that he should be exterminated or put to death. A large number than you would suppose have attached their names to the "law" invented by K. K. Klux.

After our meeting was dismissed last night (at James Newman's) four or five young rascals came boiling in and sat down. We could see by their eyes that they meant mischief, but we felt in no wise alarmed. We continued to sing the blessed songs of Zion to the edifying of our appreciative listeners. The hymn on page 227 was rendered with the spirit and meaning, and "Good Night" was sung. Elder B. accompanied Wm. Newman, while I heard kindly invited to witness at James Newman's, felt the Spirit prompt me to stay.

WE FELT NO ALARM, and retired to rest, and I never knew anything more of myself until I was awakened this morning by the sound of breakfast. I had just begun to dress myself when I heard Elder B. say that Elder B. had been "knocked over" by one of the crowd that put its appearance after our meeting was closed.—Robert Maddox's son; but when I saw that he was not seriously hurt, I begged for further particulars.

It appears that they all walked along together from where they were left until they came to the trail that leads towards Wm. Newman's where he and Elder B. were staying. It was a good night. (Mr. Farmer among the rest) and before they could reach the house they heard the sound of music between Farmer and the four rascals. Knowing full well what would be the fate of Farmer among many demagogue fellows, they rushed to his assistance. Wm. and Elder B. talked very calmly and decided to leave the place not to have any frays on the Sabbath day, etc.

THE SOUNDS

then commenced throwing their villainous abuse at Elder B.—and I do not know his name. In fact, the most of the abuse was against me, because I do not make public speaking. They used the words of being "thieves and robbers," "railed on our books, and spoke all manner of blasphemy against the work of God."

Elder B. in his quiet and easy way told them that there was no law in that way; for he did not come out to have a row, but to preach the Gospel. He told them that he must leave them, and young Maddox determined to try another plan. He walked forward, and Elder B. saw him. He was in the stomach, overcame him for an instant, when he stepped forward to where William Newman had stopped the assailant, demanding why he had struck an innocent and unoffending man. William and Maddox seemed to clinch, when my colleague begged for peace, assuring them that they should not take any notice of that. Alderman Pyper moved that the city marshal be directed to enforce the ordinance in relation to dogs, and that he employ some one to kill all the unregistered canines.

THE BUTCHERS.

A meeting was held by the butchers on Tuesday evening in the meat market, for the purpose of discussing and arranging their part of the programme in the Fourth of July celebration.

Mr. Paul called the meeting to order and nominated John White to act as president of the meeting. Mr. White took the chair and J. B. Cook was elected secretary, when the following proceedings were had:

It was moved and seconded that the butchers of Salt Lake City take part in the procession on the Fourth of July, which was carried.

A number of the butchers addressed the meeting and suggested the propriety of using strenuous efforts in making it a success as far as the butchers were concerned. The necessary committees were appointed to make all needed arrangements, after which the meeting was adjourned subject to the call of the secretary.

On the Fourth all the markets will close promptly at 8 a. m., so the people will make their arrangements accordingly.

Outstripped by the Wire.

We are in receipt of the minutes of several of the county conventions held for the purpose of choosing delegates to the Territorial Constitutional Convention. The results of these conventions from one to three days before the minutes reached us, the latter are not printed. The kindness of correspondents in sending the minutes is none the less appreciated, even though their efforts are not used. It is a case of rail vs. wire.
