

Emperor's Yacht Is Launched

Christened The Meteor by Alice Roosevelt, Who Wore a Dress of Sapphire Blue Velvet—Everything Passed Off Smoothly—Prince Henry Calls for Cheers for President, Who in Turn Calls for Them for the Prince.

New York, Feb. 25.—In a drizzling rain and in the presence of a brilliant assemblage, amidst cheering and the roar of cannon, the German emperor's new schooner-yacht Meteor was launched from Shooter's Island today. The launch, which was a magnificent affair, was perfect and no untoward incident marred the occasion. The president, Mrs. Roosevelt, Prince Henry, and the distinguished party accompanying them, were enthusiastically cheered on arriving at the platform built just back of the bow of the Meteor. Without delay, after greetings had been exchanged, Miss Roosevelt stepped forward and taking hold of a silver cord, she immediately seized a silver axe and severed the rope which released the vessel. The Meteor, a magnificent schooner, gracefully into the water. The launch was a magnificent affair, and the vessel was hailed with the American flag breaking out at the top of the mast. The launch was a magnificent affair, and the vessel was hailed with the American flag breaking out at the top of the mast. The launch was a magnificent affair, and the vessel was hailed with the American flag breaking out at the top of the mast.

ARRIVAL IN JERSEY CITY.

The special train bearing President Roosevelt and his party arrived in Jersey City at 6:40 a. m. The president remained on board until the arrival of the prince's train, a few minutes afterward. A crowd gathered on the engine of the prince's train, and the train was more than an hour late in reaching Jersey City. The president remained on board until the arrival of the prince's train, a few minutes afterward. A crowd gathered on the engine of the prince's train, and the train was more than an hour late in reaching Jersey City.

THE PRESIDENT AND PRINCE.

The president and the prince and their suites embarked soon after 8 o'clock on the ferryboat Philadelphia which lay in the northern slip of the Battery. From her tall midship flagstaff fluttered the stars and stripes. Forward was hoisted a flag with a white maltese cross on a yellow background, and a round of the center was the Prussian eagle in black while the royal emblem of Prussia and the imperial crown of Germany were scattered all over the field of the flag. The boat was hoisted the blue flag of the president of the United States. The presidential party breakfasted on a train while waiting for the prince. When President Roosevelt and his party arrived in Jersey City, they were met by a large crowd of people. The president and his party were met by a large crowd of people. The president and his party were met by a large crowd of people.

ON THE FERRYBOAT.

On board the ferryboat the president and his party were met by a large crowd of people. The president and his party were met by a large crowd of people. The president and his party were met by a large crowd of people.

ARRIVAL AT SHOOTER'S ISLAND.

The president and Prince Henry arrived at Shooter's Island at 9:30. They were received with cheers by those present and the president and prince saluted 21 guns each, were fired. Shooter's Island presented the appearance of a military camp. The launch of the Meteor was a magnificent affair, and the vessel was hailed with the American flag breaking out at the top of the mast.

PHILIPPINE CONSUL MEETING.

New York, Feb. 25.—At a meeting of the chambers of shipping of the United Kingdom to be held next month a motion will be made, says a London dispatch to the Herald, to approach the British government with the object of asking their aid against the proposed exclusion by the United States of the Philippines of other countries from the Philippine Islands. The proposal to exclude is by a coastwise delegation. It will be contended that such a regulation would inflict a serious injury on British shipping.

Leamington Cut-off Work

Developments Show it Will Commence Immediately—Short Line Will Run Over Saltair Road Temporarily—Location Maps Put Toole City on Main Line.

BELMONT, O., BANK FAILS.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The comptroller of the currency today appointed National Bank Examiner J. W. Delay receiver of the First National bank of Belmont, Ohio, upon telegraphic advice from the directors of the bank that they had closed the doors. The following is a statement of the resources and liabilities of the bank as shown by the report of the national bank examiner made Feb. 12, 1902: Liabilities—Capital stock, $50,000; surplus funds, $10,000; individual deposits, $251,595; circulation, $50,000; notes and bills discounted, $2,000; total, $681,595. Assets—Real estate, $10,000; United States bonds and premiums, $57,000; stock securities, claims, etc., $29,942; banking house, $1,000; due from banks, $17,000; cash on hand, $29,900. Total, $385,546.

An Indian Missionary Dead.

St. Louis, Feb. 25.—Rev. Joseph Cook, pioneer of Indian missionary work in Wyoming and the Dakotas, died at 10 o'clock this morning at his home in St. Louis. He was 72 years of age. He was a member of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. He was a member of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions.

Natl' Educational Association.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—The annual meeting of the National Educational Association of the United States opened today in the University hall with approximately 500 delegates present from all parts of the country. Representatives of 13 American universities, colleges and normal schools were present. The association will begin their annual meeting at the University of Chicago this afternoon. Several college presidents will be present.

Congress of Mothers.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The sixth national Congress of Mothers began its session here today. A large number of delegates are in the city and were received by the committee on credentials this morning. The program for this afternoon includes the address of the president, Mrs. Theodore V. Birney, committees and delegates.

Albert T. Patrick's Trial.

New York, Feb. 25.—The sixth week of the trial of Albert T. Patrick for the murder of Wm. M. Rice was begun today. Charles J. Jones, the valet of Mr. Rice, continuing his testimony. When court adjourned today, Jones said he had shown all the papers to Patrick prior to the death of Mr. Rice.

West Virginia Rivers Rising.

Huntington, W. Va., Feb. 25.—Heavy rains have fallen over West Virginia. All the rivers are rising rapidly. The ice gorges moved in the Guyandotte and Big Sandy this morning. In the former all the timber craft and small boats are being driven down the river. The water has been swept away, entailing heavy loss.

Internal Revenue Receipts.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The monthly statement of receipts of the internal revenue shows that for the month of January, 1902, the collections amounted to $20,555,772, a decrease as compared with January 1901, of $3,091,006.

Names Restored To Senate Roll

Tillman's and McLaurin's Ordered There by Frye—Did So to Shift Responsibility—Republican Leaders Confer—Decide Action Was Beyond Precedent and Not Wholly Justifiable—May Yet be Suspended as a Punishment.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The most important development today to the Tillman-McLaurin episode of last Saturday was the act of Senator Frye, president pro tem, of the senate, in ordering the clerk of the senate to restore the names of the two South Carolina senators to the roll. If this plan is carried out this act will be followed by the adoption by the senate of a resolution before a vote on any other subject is taken, practically endorsing the action of the president pro tem. In ordering the clerk to restore the names of the two senators for some definite time, Senator Frye implied that it would be the duty of the senate to decide whether or not to suspend the two senators for some definite time. The order of Senator Frye was issued immediately after the adjournment of the senate. The explanation of this order Senator Frye said: "In my rulings yesterday I believed I was strictly within parliamentary law; that senators in contempt are not entitled to recognition either to speak or to vote and that logically their names should not be called. I still adhere to that opinion, but, desiring to shift the responsibility from the chair to the senate, I have directed the clerk to restore to the roll the names of the two senators from South Carolina."

French Comment on Henry's Visit.

Paris, Feb. 24.—The visit of Prince Henry to the United States is attracting attention here and there is a tinge of irony in the newspaper comments which relate some feeling of uneasiness at the enthusiasm of his reception. "The temps says: 'This time it is not the iron glove, but the velvet glove that is being used. Prince Henry stretches out, it is somewhat significant that the Washington Herald yesterday passed almost unperceived and the brilliance of the reception of the prince, who represents one of the monarchies of Europe. Europe. The great republic is launched in the very midst of the international movement to longer has time to devote itself to the pious and almost exclusive worship of the glorious memories of its history.'"

Woodward Sentenced to Hang.

Casper, Wyo., Feb. 24.—Charles Woodward, who was found guilty last week of murdering Sheriff Ricker of Natrona county, was sentenced to be hanged on March 25, 1902. He was allowed only two more days respite that the law provides. He listened to the reading of the sentence without exhibiting the least nervousness or emotion.

Clinton Dotson Must Hang.

Helena, Feb. 24.—The supreme court today decided that Clinton Dotson, who is a convict in the penitentiary, must hang for complicity in the murder of his father, Capt. Oliver Dotson. Dotson was up for life and, with a convict named Arthur, was charged with the murder of his father. The court decided that the evidence was sufficient to sustain the verdict of the jury and that the sentence of life imprisonment was too lenient.

Can Assess Bank Shareholders.

Washington, Feb. 24.—In passing upon the case of Clement Studebaker vs. John Perry, receiver of the National bank of Kansas City, the supreme court today affirmed the opinion of the court below. The question involved in the case was whether the controller of the currency acting upon the national banking laws could validly make more than one assessment upon the shareholders of an insolvent national banking association. Two assessments having been made by the controller in this case, the court decided that several assessments could be legitimately made if necessary.

Georgia Society Banquet.

New York, Feb. 25.—A scene of confusion and confusion of the Georgia society was concluded at the Marlborough hotel. James H. Gray, second vice president of the society, was the last speaker. He launched into an attack on the popular demonstration accorded Prince Henry and declared that the society was in a state of confusion and that the conclusion of his remarks most of them hurriedly left the room.

Statue of Gen. Sherman Arrives.

New York, Feb. 25.—The long-delayed statue of Gen. William T. Sherman has at last reached this country. It is an equestrian figure, ordered 11 years ago by a committee of the chamber of commerce. The statue was raised and shipped by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States to the coronation of a British monarch.

Views Case Too Seriously.

Says International Difficulties May Arise Over Efforts of Italians To Liberate King, Now in the Utah State Prison, Awaiting Death Penalty.

Denver, Colo., Feb. 25.—The Post today says: Serious international difficulties between this nation and Italy may arise through the efforts of the Italians of two states to free John King, sentenced to death in Utah for the murder of Colonel Prowse. Dr. Joseph Canino, the Italian consul for Utah and Colorado, indignantly resents the slur thrown out by officers of the law, to the effect that his office is mixed up in a conspiracy to free King by the lavish use of money. He considers that the Italian nation has been insulted by these insinuations. King's case was first referred to Canino last September and he has since a great deal of time on it. He is not guilty of the crime of which he has been convicted. To the charges that money is being raised among the Italians for the purpose of securing the release of King, Dr. Canino pleads guilty, saying that it is just the thing that Americans in a foreign land would do to save a countryman in whom they have confidence. In answer to a question whether he had communicated with his government regarding the insinuations of bribery, Dr. Canino replied that he had not. He said that he had informed his government of the situation and that he had informed his government of the situation and that he had informed his government of the situation.

Young Criminal of Deep Dye.

Operations that Have Extended Over America and Europe.

London, Feb. 25.—The London police have found a young man who has been in the city for some time. He is a young man who has been in the city for some time. He is a young man who has been in the city for some time.

Says He Has Committed Highway Robbery, Burglary, Forgery and Other Crimes—Not Yet 20 Years Old.

In a cell in the county jail there is a young man who claims that but 20 years have passed over his head; and yet, according to his own admissions, he has left a trail of crime behind him that more than equals that of many hardened criminals of twice his age. Highway robbery, burglary, grand larceny and forgery are offenses that he has committed. He has been in the city for some time. He is a young man who has been in the city for some time.

Victim of Poison.

Mrs. Myra Chamberlain Eats Meat That is Fatally Tainted.

A most lamentable death was that of Mrs. Myra Chamberlain, wife of Joseph Chamberlain, of south State street, which occurred about 1 o'clock this morning. The sad fatality was the result of poisoning caused by eating pork sausage that had been kept too long. The first intimation she had that she had eaten something poisonous was Thursday night about midnight when she was seized with most excruciating pains. The next morning Dr. Bower was called in but his efforts to relieve the poor woman were in vain. She continued to grow worse steadily, all the time subjected to terrible suffering and at last she was relieved from her agony. At the time she ate the fatal meat she was visiting with Mrs. Foley, of Murray, and that lady also got a dose of the poison, and while she was not so badly poisoned, she is still in her bed. The meat was purchased from one of the Murray market.

Names Restored To Senate Roll

Tillman's and McLaurin's Ordered There by Frye—Did So to Shift Responsibility—Republican Leaders Confer—Decide Action Was Beyond Precedent and Not Wholly Justifiable—May Yet be Suspended as a Punishment.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The most important development today to the Tillman-McLaurin episode of last Saturday was the act of Senator Frye, president pro tem, of the senate, in ordering the clerk of the senate to restore the names of the two South Carolina senators to the roll. If this plan is carried out this act will be followed by the adoption by the senate of a resolution before a vote on any other subject is taken, practically endorsing the action of the president pro tem. In ordering the clerk to restore the names of the two senators for some definite time, Senator Frye implied that it would be the duty of the senate to decide whether or not to suspend the two senators for some definite time. The order of Senator Frye was issued immediately after the adjournment of the senate. The explanation of this order Senator Frye said: "In my rulings yesterday I believed I was strictly within parliamentary law; that senators in contempt are not entitled to recognition either to speak or to vote and that logically their names should not be called. I still adhere to that opinion, but, desiring to shift the responsibility from the chair to the senate, I have directed the clerk to restore to the roll the names of the two senators from South Carolina."

French Comment on Henry's Visit.

Paris, Feb. 24.—The visit of Prince Henry to the United States is attracting attention here and there is a tinge of irony in the newspaper comments which relate some feeling of uneasiness at the enthusiasm of his reception. "The temps says: 'This time it is not the iron glove, but the velvet glove that is being used. Prince Henry stretches out, it is somewhat significant that the Washington Herald yesterday passed almost unperceived and the brilliance of the reception of the prince, who represents one of the monarchies of Europe. Europe. The great republic is launched in the very midst of the international movement to longer has time to devote itself to the pious and almost exclusive worship of the glorious memories of its history.'"

Woodward Sentenced to Hang.

Casper, Wyo., Feb. 24.—Charles Woodward, who was found guilty last week of murdering Sheriff Ricker of Natrona county, was sentenced to be hanged on March 25, 1902. He was allowed only two more days respite that the law provides. He listened to the reading of the sentence without exhibiting the least nervousness or emotion.

Clinton Dotson Must Hang.

Helena, Feb. 24.—The supreme court today decided that Clinton Dotson, who is a convict in the penitentiary, must hang for complicity in the murder of his father, Capt. Oliver Dotson. Dotson was up for life and, with a convict named Arthur, was charged with the murder of his father. The court decided that the evidence was sufficient to sustain the verdict of the jury and that the sentence of life imprisonment was too lenient.

Can Assess Bank Shareholders.

Washington, Feb. 24.—In passing upon the case of Clement Studebaker vs. John Perry, receiver of the National bank of Kansas City, the supreme court today affirmed the opinion of the court below. The question involved in the case was whether the controller of the currency acting upon the national banking laws could validly make more than one assessment upon the shareholders of an insolvent national banking association. Two assessments having been made by the controller in this case, the court decided that several assessments could be legitimately made if necessary.

Georgia Society Banquet.

New York, Feb. 25.—A scene of confusion and confusion of the Georgia society was concluded at the Marlborough hotel. James H. Gray, second vice president of the society, was the last speaker. He launched into an attack on the popular demonstration accorded Prince Henry and declared that the society was in a state of confusion and that the conclusion of his remarks most of them hurriedly left the room.

Statue of Gen. Sherman Arrives.

New York, Feb. 25.—The long-delayed statue of Gen. William T. Sherman has at last reached this country. It is an equestrian figure, ordered 11 years ago by a committee of the chamber of commerce. The statue was raised and shipped by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States to the coronation of a British monarch.

Names Restored To Senate Roll

Tillman's and McLaurin's Ordered There by Frye—Did So to Shift Responsibility—Republican Leaders Confer—Decide Action Was Beyond Precedent and Not Wholly Justifiable—May Yet be Suspended as a Punishment.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The most important development today to the Tillman-McLaurin episode of last Saturday was the act of Senator Frye, president pro tem, of the senate, in ordering the clerk of the senate to restore the names of the two South Carolina senators to the roll. If this plan is carried out this act will be followed by the adoption by the senate of a resolution before a vote on any other subject is taken, practically endorsing the action of the president pro tem. In ordering the clerk to restore the names of the two senators for some definite time, Senator Frye implied that it would be the duty of the senate to decide whether or not to suspend the two senators for some definite time. The order of Senator Frye was issued immediately after the adjournment of the senate. The explanation of this order Senator Frye said: "In my rulings yesterday I believed I was strictly within parliamentary law; that senators in contempt are not entitled to recognition either to speak or to vote and that logically their names should not be called. I still adhere to that opinion, but, desiring to shift the responsibility from the chair to the senate, I have directed the clerk to restore to the roll the names of the two senators from South Carolina."

French Comment on Henry's Visit.

Paris, Feb. 24.—The visit of Prince Henry to the United States is attracting attention here and there is a tinge of irony in the newspaper comments which relate some feeling of uneasiness at the enthusiasm of his reception. "The temps says: 'This time it is not the iron glove, but the velvet glove that is being used. Prince Henry stretches out, it is somewhat significant that the Washington Herald yesterday passed almost unperceived and the brilliance of the reception of the prince, who represents one of the monarchies of Europe. Europe. The great republic is launched in the very midst of the international movement to longer has time to devote itself to the pious and almost exclusive worship of the glorious memories of its history.'"

Woodward Sentenced to Hang.

Casper, Wyo., Feb. 24.—Charles Woodward, who was found guilty last week of murdering Sheriff Ricker of Natrona county, was sentenced to be hanged on March 25, 1902. He was allowed only two more days respite that the law provides. He listened to the reading of the sentence without exhibiting the least nervousness or emotion.

Clinton Dotson Must Hang.

Helena, Feb. 24.—The supreme court today decided that Clinton Dotson, who is a convict in the penitentiary, must hang for complicity in the murder of his father, Capt. Oliver Dotson. Dotson was up for life and, with a convict named Arthur, was charged with the murder of his father. The court decided that the evidence was sufficient to sustain the verdict of the jury and that the sentence of life imprisonment was too lenient.

Can Assess Bank Shareholders.

Washington, Feb. 24.—In passing upon the case of Clement Studebaker vs. John Perry, receiver of the National bank of Kansas City, the supreme court today affirmed the opinion of the court below. The question involved in the case was whether the controller of the currency acting upon the national banking laws could validly make more than one assessment upon the shareholders of an insolvent national banking association. Two assessments having been made by the controller in this case, the court decided that several assessments could be legitimately made if necessary.

Georgia Society Banquet.

New York, Feb. 25.—A scene of confusion and confusion of the Georgia society was concluded at the Marlborough hotel. James H. Gray, second vice president of the society, was the last speaker. He launched into an attack on the popular demonstration accorded Prince Henry and declared that the society was in a state of confusion and that the conclusion of his remarks most of them hurriedly left the room.

Statue of Gen. Sherman Arrives.

New York, Feb. 25.—The long-delayed statue of Gen. William T. Sherman has at last reached this country. It is an equestrian figure, ordered 11 years ago by a committee of the chamber of commerce. The statue was raised and shipped by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States to the coronation of a British monarch.

Names Restored To Senate Roll

Tillman's and McLaurin's Ordered There by Frye—Did So to Shift Responsibility—Republican Leaders Confer—Decide Action Was Beyond Precedent and Not Wholly Justifiable—May Yet be Suspended as a Punishment.

Washington, Feb. 25.—The most important development today to the Tillman-McLaurin episode of last Saturday was the act of Senator Frye, president pro tem, of the senate, in ordering the clerk of the senate to restore the names of the two South Carolina senators to the roll. If this plan is carried out this act will be followed by the adoption by the senate of a resolution before a vote on any other subject is taken, practically endorsing the action of the president pro tem. In ordering the clerk to restore the names of the two senators for some definite time, Senator Frye implied that it would be the duty of the senate to decide whether or not to suspend the two senators for some definite time. The order of Senator Frye was issued immediately after the adjournment of the senate. The explanation of this order Senator Frye said: "In my rulings yesterday I believed I was strictly within parliamentary law; that senators in contempt are not entitled to recognition either to speak or to vote and that logically their names should not be called. I still adhere to that opinion, but, desiring to shift the responsibility from the chair to the senate, I have directed the clerk to restore to the roll the names of the two senators from South Carolina."

French Comment on Henry's Visit.

Paris, Feb. 24.—The visit of Prince Henry to the United States is attracting attention here and there is a tinge of irony in the newspaper comments which relate some feeling of uneasiness at the enthusiasm of his reception. "The temps says: 'This time it is not the iron glove, but the velvet glove that is being used. Prince Henry stretches out, it is somewhat significant that the Washington Herald yesterday passed almost unperceived and the brilliance of the reception of the prince, who represents one of the monarchies of Europe. Europe. The great republic is launched in the very midst of the international movement to longer has time to devote itself to the pious and almost exclusive worship of the glorious memories of its history.'"

Woodward Sentenced to Hang.

Casper, Wyo., Feb. 24.—Charles Woodward, who was found guilty last week of murdering Sheriff Ricker of Natrona county, was sentenced to be hanged on March 25, 1902. He was allowed only two more days respite that the law provides. He listened to the reading of the sentence without exhibiting the least nervousness or emotion.

Clinton Dotson Must Hang.

Helena, Feb. 24.—The supreme court today decided that Clinton Dotson, who is a convict in the penitentiary, must hang for complicity in the murder of his father, Capt. Oliver Dotson. Dotson was up for life and, with a convict named Arthur, was charged with the murder of his father. The court decided that the evidence was sufficient to sustain the verdict of the jury and that the sentence of life imprisonment was too lenient.

Can Assess Bank Shareholders.

Washington, Feb. 24.—In passing upon the case of Clement Studebaker vs. John Perry, receiver of the National bank of Kansas City, the supreme court today affirmed the opinion of the court below. The question involved in the case was whether the controller of the currency acting upon the national banking laws could validly make more than one assessment upon the shareholders of an insolvent national banking association. Two assessments having been made by the controller in this case, the court decided that several assessments could be legitimately made if necessary.

Georgia Society Banquet.

New York, Feb. 25.—A scene of confusion and confusion of the Georgia society was concluded at the Marlborough hotel. James H. Gray, second vice president of the society, was the last speaker. He launched into an attack on the popular demonstration accorded Prince Henry and declared that the society was in a state of confusion and that the conclusion of his remarks most of them hurriedly left the room.

Statue of Gen. Sherman Arrives.

New York, Feb. 25.—The long-delayed statue of Gen. William T. Sherman has at last reached this country. It is an equestrian figure, ordered 11 years ago by a committee of the chamber of commerce. The statue was raised and shipped by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States to the coronation of a British monarch.