

WHITE PEOPLE MUST BE SUPREME

That is Burden of Secy. of War
Dickinson's Speech Discussing Negro Question.

A GOVERNMENT OF FAIRNESS

Courts and Not Mobs Should Punish Law-Breakers—There Must Be Justice.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 22.—Secy. Dickinson began his address by highly praising the men of the south who, he said, had taken prominent parts in ruling the nation. Tennessee was especially noted in this respect, having given Andrew Jackson to the country. The same standard of unimpeachable honor set by these men is, he said, being lived up to by President Taft.

"President Taft has attained to his high office through a novitiate unpassed by any of his predecessors," said Mr. Dickinson. "As Samuel, even as a child, began the training for the high place which he was to fill, so while a youth the future president, under his distinguished father, breathed the atmosphere of large affairs, came into familiar contact with the great men of that day and received the inspiration which urged him on to cultivate his talents and broaden his faculties for future statesmanship."

THE NEGRO QUESTION.

"It is not probable that any statesman from the outside, although sympathetic, would entirely agree with us. We cannot alone make our views permanently effective. Under these conditions it is fortunate that the leader of the party which is in control of our national affairs is earnestly and warmly sympathetic with us. He appreciates the extent of the irritation that has come from appointing negroes to offices in the south which bring them into unpleasant relations with the white people with injurious effects on both races. He understands that in the south is a deep-seated race question that cannot be ignored or argued out of existence, and that for the peace of both races such appointments should not be made and he has publicly declared this to be his policy and has carried it out. He holds with his distinguished predecessor who declared in his famous speech made in New York before the Loyal Legion, that the purity of the races must be maintained."

Passing to a discussion of the race problem, Secy. Dickinson said: "It is idle to talk of a settlement of the negro question in the sense that all agitation and controversy will cease. You might as well talk of settling the posterity question or the labor question. There can be no settlement so as to remove forever controversies arising from the continuing conditions of 12,000,000 of one race of people, living in a country with another race, both having the same rights and opportunities under the existing law and theoretically the same citizenship with its attendant rights. In any aspect the question is portentous. The distant future may evolve something to hold in store the operations of some forces which we cannot foresee. The destiny of a nation is happily a closed book. We must deal with the present and its problems as they appear. It is our duty to minimize as far as we can the troubles as they arise. To obviate them and to make them as harmless as possible calls for the exercise of the highest wisdom, firmness, moderation and justice."

RIGHT TO GOVERN.

"If the white people assert the right to govern, then the government should be one of fairness and justice, a government of law and not of passion. The courts, and not mobs, should punish law-breakers. Negroes should be protected in their property rights, settled justly and governed by the constituted authorities. Those who established the commonwealth of Tennessee, such men as James Robertson, John Sevier, and Andrew Jackson, would have frowned with indignation the very suggestion that in time of peace they did not have virtue and manhood enough to enforce the law through the courts. The cackling virus of mob rule, no matter against what evils directed, destroys all wholesome life in the body politic and makes it a polluted wreck, swayed by passion, and incapable of the ordinary administration of law.

"There can be no wholesome control of the negro question of a permanent character that does not appeal to the sense of justice of the people of all the states. 'Injustice and violence will breed violence and will debauch the communities that sanction it. No citizen can depend on broad and high lines where communities are terrorized by mob rule. We do not want a state of siege, continuous conflict and exhibition of mailed hands. We can for a time maintain supremacy by violence and disorder, but it will be at a frightful cost. We ought to maintain it with a beautiful advancing and not a retarded civilization, under peaceful conditions and the reign of the law. This should be done with the highest degree of protection and justice to the negro compatible with the maintenance of our own race. The minds of citizens, of our own race, are open to the appeal that it should govern so long as that government is one of just protection under the law. A sense of justice is repellant when an aspect is presented of the assertion of governmental control with a submission to mob rule."

"It is unfortunate for the south that some of her people irritate the minds and repel those who are inclined our way and are leaders of public thought, by questioning lawless brutalities. Some of the most enlightened among the negro race counsel their people to abstain from politics and to apply themselves to the offices of good citizenship. They indicate a willingness to withdraw from political agitation, but ask justice, protection and orderly administration of the law. 'Men of character and patriotism throughout the south could not make their people better than by making peaceful sentiment so overwhelming that the lawless will find that they are regarded as the greatest of enemies to the welfare of the south.'"

A SPRAINED ANKLE.

As usually treated a sprained ankle will disable the injured person for a month or more, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment and observing the directions with each bottle faithfully, a cure may, in most cases, be effected in less than one week's time. This liniment is a most remarkable preparation; try it for a sprain or a bruise, or when laid up with chronic or muscular rheumatism, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which it affords. JOHN DICKINSON REAPPEARS IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Sept. 22.—John Dickinson, head of the defunct stock and grain brokerage house of John Dickinson & Co. of Chicago and New York, who mysteriously disappeared on the eve of the $1,000,000 failure of his firm on May 17 and for whom creditors have been searching, reappeared in Chicago yesterday.

Dickinson's appearance came as a surprise to his attorney and the Chicago Title & Trust company, receivers for the concern, as it was reported that the bankrupt broker had been recently in Paris, in Mexico and in California.

Dickinson visited the court of Referee in Bankruptcy Sydney C. Eastman, and was questioned by Francis J. Houghman, attorney for the Chicago Title & Trust company. He said all the assets of the firm had been turned over to the receiver, so far as he knew.

"What are the assets of the concern?" "It is impossible to tell. I have been ill and have not been able to go over the books."

"What are the liabilities?" "I understand about $300,000. The books, I understand, are in such a jumbled condition that it will take some time to find out just how we stand."

Mr. Dickinson's attorney said he had suffered nervous breakdown, but that he did not say where he had been or assign any cause for the failure.

years in the fall observed a similar disappearance, which he considers a reasonable phenomenon, and which he thinks tends to support the theory that life exists on Mars, and that the canals denote a system of irrigation.

BATHTUBS IN PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS UNSANITARY

Washington, Sept. 22.—Declaring that bath tubs were unsanitary in public institutions and should be replaced by showers, Dr. R. W. Corwin, superintendent of the Minnesota hospital of Pueblo, Colo., caused a lively tilt last night at the conference of the American hospital association, being held in this city.

He said that for patients with different diseases to bathe in the same tub was unsanitary. Dr. W. H. Rose defended the tub, saying it was the only practical way of bathing children and further that women would object to the showers because they did not like to get their hair wet when bathing. The sentiment was about evenly divided.

Dr. Abernethy, the great English physician, said: "Watch your kidneys. When they are affected, life is in danger." Foley's Kidney Remedy makes healthy kidneys, corrects urinary irregularities, and tones up the whole system. P. J. Hill Drug Co. "The Never Substitutors."

CHARGES AGAINST MORRISON WITHDRAWN

Leopoldville, Belgian Congo, Sept. 22.—The charges brought against Rev. W. W. Morrison, an American missionary, by one of the Congo concession companies, which has a monopoly of rubber gathering in the Kasai region, have been withdrawn, but the plaintiffs reserve the right to bring suit later for damages. Rev. W. H. Sheppard, another African missionary, has been sued for $2,000 by the same company for "calumnious denunciation." The suit being based on an article which appeared in the Kasai Herald. Judgment in these cases will be rendered on Oct. 4.

MRS. EDDY SENDS CHECK FOR $5,000

New York, Sept. 22.—Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy has sent to the New York museum of safety and sanitation her check for $5,000. Mrs. Eddy stated that she did so in appreciation of the philanthropic efforts of the museum in the introduction of safety devices to minimize the accidents due to railway travel and the use of machinery.

FINDING OF DYNAMITE CAUSES CONSTERNATION

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 22.—The discovery tonight of a bomb in a residence in course of erection in Juarez, across the border in Mexico, by a boy, caused a sensation in that town. The authorities were notified and 12 workmen were placed in communication.

It was at first reported that the bomb was found in the rear of the customs house where President Taft and President Diaz are to meet on Oct. 16, but this was later denied by the authorities.

Because of the approaching meeting of Presidents Taft and Diaz, the Mexican authorities were extremely reluctant that the men arrested should have a hearing in the morning.

Federal Judge Miranda has ordered that no information be given out in Juarez and many conflicting reports were in circulation.

It was impossible to get from them the names of the men arrested.

SUFFRAGETTES SENTENCED TO HARD LABOR

London, Sept. 22.—A magistrate at Birmingham this afternoon sentenced Mary Leigh and Charlotte Marsh, two of the ringleaders in the suffragette outbreak at the meeting in Birmingham, Sept. 17, which Premier Asquith delivered an address on the budget, to two and three months at hard labor respectively.

Another woman was given one month at hard labor.

When the sentences were announced, a number of suffragettes picked up whatever they could lay hands on in the form of missiles and broke the windows of the courtroom.

Many people delude themselves by saying "it will wear away," when they notice symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. This is a mistake. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy, and stop the drain on the vitality. It cures backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, and makes every trace of pain, weakness, and urinary trouble disappear. P. REPORTS OF RIOTING AT KIEV ARE DENIED

St. Petersburg, Sept. 22.—The Associated Press correspondent at Kiev, as well as the correspondent of the Official News Bureau, denies the report of rioting in that city. In a dispatch received here at a late hour tonight, the former says:

"The report is false. The Russian newspapers are without any information on the subject and no reports concerning rioting, it is said, have been received in government circles."

ENTIRE FAMILY OF SIX PERSONS MURDERED

Bluffton, W. Va., Sept. 22.—An entire family of six persons was murdered and the bodies of all but one of the victims were burned in their home at Hurley, Va., early today. The motive evidently was robbery, as the owner of the house, an aged woman known as "Aunt Betty" Justice, was generally supposed to keep a large sum of money in the place.

Mrs. Justice, her son-in-law, George Meadows, his wife and their three children were the victims. Meadows' body, badly mutilated, was found in the yard.

The blackened and half-burned bodies of the two women and their children were found beneath the debris of the house, each body bearing evidences of murder committed before the house was fired.

STRONG DENUNCIATION OF PINCHOT'S POLICY

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 22.—The three counties of Washington which are situated in the Yakima valley, and have been transformed from desert into rich farming lands by irrigation, celebrated their day at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition today. United States Senator Wesley L. Jones of North Yakima and United States Judge Cornelius H. Hanford, who is largely interested in eastern Washington irrigation projects, addressed a meeting in the exposition auditorium. Judge Hanford denounced the conservation policy advocated by Chief Forester Gifford Pinchot and former Gov. George C. Pardee of California, saying:

"We have been told repeatedly by advocates of the 'big stick policy' that our proposed new system will not hurt the west, but will aid in the development of the natural resources of the region in which vast areas are reserved and to be reserved."

"These provisions of kindly intentions being to mind a case tried in one of our courts many years ago, in which, according to the testimony, a murderer conspired his victim by beseeching him not to mind having his throat cut, because the pain would soon be over and he would be in heaven. In our state, the reservations comprise more than 12 per cent of its total area, into which no homeseeker dares set his foot; the water runs down our mountains and most of it flows idly to the sea without turning a wheel, but to prevent grabbers from acquiring vested rights the theorists insist that it must keep on flowing idly until it can be made to yield tribute to the national treasury perpetually as the agents of the government shall dictate."

LOVES BOTH HIS OWN AND ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE

Boston, Sept. 22.—A peculiar psychological case came to light yesterday when Hartley Bennett, a Boston architect, confessed in court that he had been the lover of the wife of Dr. B. Lincoln Chase of Brookline. The court promptly awarded Mrs. Bennett the custody of their two children. Dr. Chase attended the hearing and made this statement:

"Mrs. Chase and I have been married 12 years. I know of the love that Mr. Bennett has for my wife. I admire and respect him for it. He is an idealist. I would trust him with everything I have in the world."

Bennett, a Harvard man, 25 years old, made an equally strange statement to the court.

"I love Mrs. Chase," said he. "My love for her goes beyond everything else in the world, but I love my wife none the less. Between my wife and me there has been for several years a growing conviction that our ideals are different. I can't adapt myself to her way of thinking or she to mine. My ideals of love would allow me, though married, to love all women."

HEINZE PLEADS NOT GUILTY.

New York, Sept. 22.—F. Augustus Heinze pleaded not guilty in the criminal branch of the United States circuit court today to the solitary count left in the indictment filed May 18 last, charging with misappropriation of the funds of the Mercantile National bank. The indictment, when returned by the federal grand jury, contained 16 counts, but Judge Hough sustained a demurrer to all but the last one. This involves the alleged loan of $500,000 made by Mr. Heinze to himself on Oct. 14, 1907.

No date was set for trial, and Heinze was allowed freedom on bonds given on another indictment.

S.S.S. PURIFIES BAD BLOOD

Bad blood is responsible for most of our ailments, and when from any cause it becomes infected with impurities, humors or poisons, trouble in some form is sure to follow. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, pimples, etc., show that the blood is infected with unhealthy humors which have changed it from a pure, fresh stream to a sour, acid fluid, which forces out its impurities through the pores and glands of the skin. A very common evidence of bad blood is sores and ulcers, which break out on the flesh, often from a very insignificant bruise, or even scratch or abrasion. If the blood was healthy the place would heal at once; but being infected with impurities which are discharged into the wound, irritation and inflammation are set up, the fibres and tissues are broken, and the sore continues until the blood is purified of the cause. S.S.S. is Nature's blood-purifier and tonic, made entirely from roots, herbs and barks. It goes down into the circulation and removes every particle of impurity, humor or poison, restores lost vitality, and steadily tones up the entire system. S.S.S. neutralizes any excess of acid in the blood, making it pure, fresh and healthy, and permanently cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Boils, and all other skin eruptions or disease. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.
