Bravely Done.—This afternoon
Wells Fargo & Co.'s heavy express

Mr. Banks, the driver, was temporarily occupied with some other matter, and had for a moment laid down the lines. The furious animals were making a bee-line for the Ward Spring car, which stood in the corner, and for a moment it seemed that the car would be annihilated, but Mr. Banks was in the wagon and jumping over in the seat, he seized the lines just in time to save the street car, and by persistent effort succeeded in quieting the horses before they had gone much further.

PARSONS IS BEADON IN THIS CITY.

It is reasonable to conclude that the Parsons Plaster, having received the acclaim of the public, and the position over all others, in having received the universal praise, having been unequalled in the world, must have been manufactured in this city.
Parsons Plaster was invented to overcome the action of the ordinary poultices plaster.

LATE BACK.

Have you ever found immediate relief from the use of Parsons's Poultice and quickly dispelled?

Other plasters will not even relieve.

Parsons's Poultice, having been unequalled in the market. Some of them contain Parsons's Poultice, but the best Parsons's Poultice through it. Take no other.
