EVENING NEWS.

July 19, 1909.

Correspondence.

KANAB, July 6, 1909.

Editors Desert News.

The publication of the special issue under the auspices of the "Star Spangled Banner" and the "Declaration of Independence" as follows: Salutes of guns from midnight until break of day. At 10 a. m. the people assembled at the school-house and prayer by the chaplain prepared the people for starting in procession to the beautiful shore of the lake. The procession was commenced by the choir singing the reading of the "Declaration" by Miss Sarah Ann Nebeker on a high note, followed by songs, recitations, stanzas, and prayers, all of which were rendered with the good things of this life, they participated in athletic amusements, then returned to town and danced until the "wee sma' hours." Altogether, the celebration was a success, and the people admire the glorious principles our country's fathers fought and died for, and which we feel to be the standard of government which they instituted under the inspiration of the Almighty, we feel to sustain those principles and to cherish and defend them as the rights of the people. The day is near at hand when righteousness and justice will prevail, in the east as well as in the west.

Yours truly,
JOSEPH IRWIN.

KANAB, July 7, 1909.

Editors Desert News:

On June 29th at 4 a. m. the citizens of Kanab were awakened from their peaceful slumber by the beating of drums preparatory to a day's excursion of the Sunday school. At 5 a. m. the school-house was surrounded with bright happy children and a procession was formed by the members of the church. The martial band took the lead, then the State superintendent, president of the State, bishop of Kanab and others, and then the children and parents. The band struck up a lively march, and the procession started for Temple Grove, a staidy nook some six miles from Kanab. I cannot say the air was filled with the perfume of the roses, but the air was filled with the perfume of the children's voices, and the joyous notes of the band. The cool morning air sharpened our appetites and made our breakfast much enjoyed. The morning was devoted to songs, recitations, dialogues, short plays, and after a picnic of an ample dinner we were ready for the afternoon amusements, which consisted of a baseball game, and a game of football. The cool evening breeze quickly blew to Kanab and real life, having spent a very pleasant day.

Reporter.

West Weber, Weber County,
July 17th, 1909.

Editors Desert News:

This ward is situated west of Ogden City, was formerly known as Archibald's farm, and was owned by Woodman's herd ground. In 1888 about six or seven families formed the settlement of about 30 souls. It was presided over by Bro. William Kay about four years when he moved to Ogden. Bro. Richard Douglas was appointed to preside. He was president about two years, after which Bro. Archibald McFarland presided until 1897, when he resigned, and your humble servant was appointed to preside. From the commencement of this settlement the brethren and sisters have looked after their own interests, cared well for by trustees and superintendents.

On the 1st of this month, we had a Sunday School jubilee at Hooper Ward, and the superintendent and school were well represented. They were out with the stars and stripes and with banners of all descriptions to suit the occasion, and 35 wagons were required to take those of the children to school, which is about eight miles distant. We have two young men and one young lady's mutual improvement associations and two relief societies, all doing well. We have two reading houses, as our ward extends about seven miles from east to west and about four miles north and south. We have a good young man, a good young woman, and a good young lady. Our meetings are well attended every Sunday. We have the missionaries to visit us frequently and now and again our worthy president, D. H. Freery, and his wife, are here. Our crops are going to be rather light this season. The health of the people is good, compared with what it has been, for we have had the measles among our children, severely and in some cases from the disease. Thanks to the Almighty, we have lost none and all have recovered so far.

I am, your brother,
