DESEBET EVENING NEWS: TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1901.

The report of C. W. Frost, county bee inspector, was received, showing the bee business to be in a good condi-tion, that many of the bee owners who only had a few stands have sold out to eastern men who have come to the to eastern men who have come to the county for the purpose of making a business of raising bees. He also re-ported that the commission men in the city have united in demanding a first class quality of honey for their trade, and these circumstances will have a tendency to stimulate the production of a better and purer class of honey. The yield this year is only about half as large as that of last year, but the continued high prices will help to make it a good paying crop. Thomas Champneys and G. S. Ables appeared and requested that Sherift Layne be authorized to appoint Henry Bell as a deputy sheriff without salary Bell as a more from insticate court to serve process from justices' court and retain fees for his services. The constable of the Fifth ward having failed to qualify. George Meldon and Elisha Andrews were admitted to the county infirmary. The matter of allowing County Superintendent Wilson $120 per year for traveling expenses was reconsidered and $100 per year was ordered allowed. The county clerk was directed to notify all the physicians in Weber county that they must report all cases of contagious diseases attended by them to the health officer of the district in which case exists.

A communication was received from County Assessor Gibson appointing W. R. Swan and A. L. Toone as clerks in his office to begin work immediately making improvements on new plats. The appointments were confirmed. The board appointed Frank Wadsworth of Hooper as delegate from Weber county to the Live Stock con-vention to be held in Chicago, December of this year. Commissioner Stanford reported visit to the county infirmary, also to the roads in his district and found all in fair condition. Commissioner Wilson reported the

The above cut but poorly illustrates the beautiful free flower show that is being held this week by the Salt Lake Floral Co. Seven of these enormous houses are filled with the choicest flowers money can buy. Chrysanthemums, Carnations, Roses and general house plants, making a display never before equalled in the state. ALL FREE. We also wish to announce that our uptown store at 142 S. Main will be open Saturday, Nov. 9. If you want to see the grandest display of cut flowers ever shown in the city don't forget the date. Watch our windows.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method a beneficial effects of the well known remedy, Symue or Figs, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxa-tive principles of plants known to be medicinally laxative and presenting them in the form most refreshing to the taste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxa-tive, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and sub-stance, and its acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without weakening or irritating them, make it the ideal laxative.

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company Depue, D. A. Kinnersley, E. A. Bennett, W. J.

The home of Hon. George Drake and wife on Farrs avenue, Mound Fort, was the scene of a most delightful event Friday evening, November 1st, when the venerable and aged couple celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary, or their golden wedding day. It was just fifty years that evening since the town of Newbury, Berkshire, England, was the scene of the uniting together in bonds of holy matrimony of Mr, George Drake, then twenty-five years of age and Miss Emily White, a charming young maiden of twenty-seven sum-mers, Elder Thomas Squires officiating at the ceremony. The fifty years that have passed quickly and most hap-ply by have brought to Mr. and Mrs. Drake a numerous posterity of children and grand children; and Friday evening brought back most happy rec tions of the blessings of the past. There were present at the anniversary, seventy-nine of Mr. and Mrs. Drake's rela-tives and friends. The evening was very enjoyably spent in vocal and instrumental music, recitations, im-promptu speeches, etc. A sumptuous repast was served in the spacious dining room. The home was very prettily decorated for the occasion with beautiful cut flowers, and potted plants. At a late hour the invited guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Drake many more years of wedded bliss and happiness. Ogden has been the home of Mr. Drake and family for the past quarter of u century. They have a host of friends in all parts of the state of Utah, who will join in wishing them God's choicest blessings.

FUNERAL OF JOSEPH LINFORD. The funeral services over the remains of Joseph Linford, one of North Ogden's brightest and most highly respected young men, were held yesterday after-noon at 1 o'clock at the North Ogden meeting house. The love and esteen in which the deceased was held in the community was evidenced by the very large attendance of sympathizing friends and the many beautiful floral tributes which were laid on the casket which contained the remains of one of Weber county's noblest sons. The funeral services were presided over by Bishop James Ward. The ward choir furnished the ward choir Bishop James Ward. The ward choir furnished the music, opening prayer was pronounced by Elder David Shupe. The speakers were Elders Joseph Bid-well, George W. He Will Meet Nechad the Turkish Wrestler at Graeco-Roman.

New York, Nov. 5.-Ernest Roeber, the American champion Greco-Roman wrestler, has just been matched to meet Nechad, the Turkish wrestler, who re-cently arrived in this country. The articles call for a straight Graeco-Roman match, best two in three falls. There will be a time limit of two hours in case no fall is scored, and the man doing the most work in side of that time will be awarded the decision. After one hour's wrestling the men have agreed to a fifteen minute's rest. If only one fall is scored in two hours the man gaining the fall gets the decis-lon. All holds will be allowed.

Harry Forbes Wins.

St. Louis, Nov. 4.-Harry Forbes of Chicago received the decision tonight over Abe Attell of San Francisco at the end of the fifteenth round of fast milling at the West End club. The bout tend to the milking. He spoke to her before going out, and told her he had made the fire. She replied that she was not feeling very well, and did not think she would "get up just yet." When Mr. Bodison returned his mother was dead. The Provo football team had a line-up iast evening for practice with very sat-
