hildren per member 25 per cent. Avern under 16 2544 per cent. study of these figures proves

Hobertson might have found able that on average woman operly for her 28 per cent, or eighth of a ten thousandth child and still attend a club to a fortnight, or even once is possible that her section by may even make the control of the control may even assist her in 100 women who pay from $15 a year dues are usucomfortable means, and of the homes represented may be without a servant, man's intelligent careor cooking and house-s in the slums, where degraded mothers are care for the children so sping into the criminal ent of the State. The club

cly few of the clubs have rely few of the their mem-s airls among their mem-there is some particular a to attract them. Girls of like cotilions and have not danging days. Very their dancing days. part proceed with their or are grown and married, to intelligent women of today and less progressive of club women, the unblased

FEMININE FLOTSAM.

AMERICANWOMEN IN ENGLAND. Lady Jeune Tells of Their Influence is Public Life of Great Britain.

It is a curious coincidence that the and of the last twenty years to Americans, and two of them been said by a very astute leaders, have done much to fos. strengthen the friendship bere and Mrs. Chamberlain though if and always shall, regard as the liment of all that is delightful in san wemankind, and the best repartive of her Puritan ancestors with her husband, either at the House of Commons, she has in and a sentiment that are quite unique and while keenly interested in every she has never vulgarized her ideals, or descended to the lowens into which some English wo-degrade their political sympathies, early death of Lord Randolph chill while on the threshold of the highest political position in this country deprived Lady Randolph of the positry deprived Lady Rundelph of the posi-tion which she must eventually have oc-cupied, for she at one moment seemed bound to become the wife of the future prime minister of England. Never was the promise of a life so hiighted as his, and the malady which so insidiously underrined his life was one of the last uncerting and fatal.

The influence of American women or English society is one which grows to weaker, and women like Mrs. Cham-berian and Lady Harcourt soften the excessences and peculiarities which often strike us as un-English."

The Urban Spiders' Web.

I would not advise the average matry girl to go to the city," writes lisabeth B. Grannis in Success for agost. The avenues open to girls in lies are more numerous and re-tive than in the country. City quickens mental activity, and ambitious girls apportunities to to broader knowledge, and to ex-a diversity of gifts, which most possess. Integrity and strength attacter is the main foundation for y Pernanent success, even with large flity or talent possessed by girls sking worthy expeers. An interesting chassessing country girl with little or y, and without family protec-usually wholly unprepared to is the gilded sewers and gales of the gilded sewers and was not been severally and the girls who come from the to the city without the strong and of wise and intelligent trainmake sad attempts at reaching the they seek. Armies of flippant, see daring young women who to the city with high hopes plunge to rain and desolution, and bring continent with hearthreak to the mes they have left, when, if they emained in the country, they have builded helpful and happy

Infanta Enlatie on American Girls. In the I nited States the young women lare reached the very name of inde-lendance. I like this, first of all because my way. When I visited the Nete accord with American girls upon this point of independence. It differen-tates the American girl from her sis-ters of Europe. It has enormous advanand properly understood, rightly elved and practiced, is neither aful nor unbecoming. In southern afries the difference between honest blence, on the one hand, and a improper, or perhaps what is not correct, on the other, is not comprehended. National customs aditions have much to do with to some of the older countries ocial usages are strictly conviolate a commandment of the enests of the various national cus-ous regarding certain feminine pro-rieties maye be traced to the difference stween eastern and western civiliza-For instance, in southern Spain, Arab or Moorish customs prevail, hadverse comment. The Arabs And Moors, as we style them in Spain, BICYCLE COSTUME FOR THE SUMMER GIRL

In shirt, waist, short skirt and Spanish saller hat, the Summer girl is fittingly gowned for wheeling, and, what is more extremely, is chic, www.www.www.ww.ww. are very jealous of their women. I have nearest the platter. In arranging the known a lady to sit for hours in the pansies about the plates, put the largest house of a friend awaiting the return of on the side farthest from the table's her maid rather than cross to alone to her home. She was neither young nor pretty. Where Criental civillation is strongest in Europe women have the least liberty. In northern spain female restrictions are not quite so zevere as in the south. In France they are grawing gradually less in Eng-they are grawing gradually less. In Eng-they are graving gradually less are graving gradually less. In Eng-they are graving gradually less are graving gradually less. In Eng-they are graving gradually less are graving gradually less are graving gradually less. In Eng-they are graving gradually less are graving gradually graving gradu they are growing gradually less. In Eng-and women have more freedom than on the continent. In the United States, as ble, thus marking off the space for each have said, the fair sex have reached guest. If candles are used, twine a be plentitude of independence.—The Inanta Eulalle, in Frank Leslie's Popu- fect will be one of the most delicate

Table Decoration.

If pansles are plentiful cut the stems off short and place a border of flowers about each plate. Around the roast the border should be three rows deep. It should be remembered, however, that the simpliet harmony is the best, and the flowers as near of a color as possible should be used. If this is not practicable have the shading run from dark to light, with the darkest colors.

CHILDREN GUESS:

The population of Salt Lake—a new $12.00 Standard Dictionary given the successful guesser. See the "News" advertisement.

for weddings, receptions, teas, etc. The original Desert Mandolin club. Terms address, E. A. Lambourne, Z. C. M. I., or Pergus Coalter Music Store, 39 So. Main. CHILDREN GUESS!

NEARING NORTHERN SPAIN.

A Glimpse of San Heetonso, the Royal Palace in the Highlands - Some Last Excursions Around Madrid - Crossing the Guadarrama Mountains - Arrival at Segovia, Spain, July 3, 1900.-Unlike little Jack of the nursery thyme, we ital till the very last. Thus our final green days in Mudeld were extraorals have

AN ANCIENT CASTLE

of the Moorish kings, opposite the parade ground in front of the modern palace. All attraction have a general resemblance, but this of Madrid, besides its extraordinary extent is calculated as containing the armer and swords of mer standing against the walls, of the enemy, and thousands of coats-of-mail, carries one back to Spain's heroic tains, Gunzalyo de Cord-Pizarro and Hernan Cortez of the Cid, and the belinet tered the Albambra to weighing $1 points, form of Christopher Columbus, together with his Milan harness, initial with gold and silver; the complete armor of Charles V—the same in which Titian painted him and his sword—the most famous weapon ever wrought by Juan of Toledo, which was brought from the monastery of Yuste after the emperor's death. There are after the emperor's death. There are five the emperor's death. There are five the most in San Idletonso, where the court general bucklets; the maces and colden crowns of the Visagoth kings—the latter. of the Visagoth kings-the latter saved the 'plums' of the Spanish cap-ital till the very last. Thus our final green and scarlet plumes that waved in triumph over the days in Madrid were extremely bury, buttle fields of the Axicoa, the broad-and extended almost from dawn to sword with which Pizzero bested his dawn. The Spaniards refusing not unreasonably, to modify their climate and habits to suit the concenience of strangers—arise long before the sun. INLAID WITH JEWELS

Montones or double-headed swords, sent by Popes to Spanish kings, who royal armory, which is considered the used them as their executioners; and finest museum of its kind in the world, curious leathern shields of the Moors-two hides, fastened together by a cosome platels of Spanish workmanship with revolving cylinders, made two hun-dred years before Col. Colt was born, but almost identical in mechanism with his modern revoler.

Next we visited the Royal Gallery of Palntings, of which Madrid is justly proud, as it contains by far the finest school is well represented, including the best works of such masters as Titian. Rubens, Paul Veronese, Murillo, Van Dyke and Velasquez, Whatever may be said to the discredit of the AUSTRIAN DYNASTY they were certainly liberal patrons of world indebied for these priceless treas-ures. To see them, one must pay the small fee of 50 centavos, which goes to peratars being about as 62 degrees to 90 degrees Pahr. This royal pulses—in the mine latitude as Naghts—stands higher than the center of Mt. Venuvins, surrounded by rocks, forests and cryss rul streams, while immediately above it towers the beast of La Panellara, one of the highest in Spain. Castillans are controlled in Spain. Spain in the min."

Is a worthy children in the bid. In the castillans are controlled in the beautiful rulined monastic in the beautiful rulined mon ing no turbid puddle forced up by machinery, but gendine crystal distillations from the mountain alembo. The Crascador Conndor, a spicual distillations sheet of falling water glittering

LIKE MOLTEN SILVER

under the brillant sun of Castile, supplies a large reservoir below, which, with characteristic Spanish modsaty, is termed El Mar, the ocean. There are thirry fountains on the grounds, the most famous being the Fama which shoots up water 130 feet, poor ranip V in said to have stopped before H—a few minutes upon its completion as to have exclaimed: "It has cost me 2,00,000 plastres for the three minutes I have been amused." Moniquees of statuss and marble vases deck the avenues and the correct value to the same and spurkle, through borned grass and pale gray rocks. Old Romanesque churches and convents are up yourse rising ground to the right and as the coach whirs around the verser below them, you come upon the huge aqueduct with two there of arches, which the Roman em-

Hair Goods.

An interesting feature of our business these days is the hair goods department presided over by Miss

Petrie of New York.

The switches being shown are perfect

types of natural bair,

and as for shadings-

one would hardly guess

there ever were so many. The prices too

are surprising in that

Childs', Misses' and Ladies' Shoes.

Misses' tan shoes, Sizes 114 to 2,

Ladies' spring heel tan shoes, sizes 2½ to 5, worth $1.75, $2.00— $1,20

Substantial Reductions from even our lowest recent markings have been ordered for $1.18 the coming week. The merchandise are timeliest too, and with such price lowering will soon be despersed.

Sheets Spreads and Towels.

To balance stock accounts in our Domestic Department we lay on the al-tar of sacrifice 50 dos, sheets. The price asked is almost a trivial affair, and makes it possible to buy hemstitched sheets ready for use at less than ma-terial alone would cost you. They are mostly of the best material, but where a cheaper quality may be shown the price goes down to meet it. There are 4 sizes and 7 prices-like this-

Single bed size ............ 60c Full bed size . 65c, 75c, $1.15 Extra large size ..... 90c, $1.25

An aggregation of towels too varied for detail description will go on sale along with the sheets. You will attest their extraordinary value when you

Three Lots-Three Prices-22c, 29c, 44c. SPREADS.

In this line we have two sizes of the Mitcheline or colored bed spread, for single and full size bed. You may have had them before; if so, you are aware of their washing and wearing qualities.

Single Bed Size . . $2.50. Double Bed Size

. . . $3.00.

Men's Hats.

at $1,50, $1.75, $1.13

Children's Gloves.

A full line of fine silk gloves for the little ladles—and silk gloves you know are so very cool in warm weather. These have two clasps and may be had in white, red or blue. Sell regularly

An odd line of plain and fancy blets the styles-up to 75c qualities, for the

BELT BUCKLES.

A large variety of Steel, Fancy Metale Steel, Fancy Metals and others, for the

Half Price

Hosiery and Underwear

Ladies' Swiss weave union suits, knee length, face trimmed, $1.25 value— 750

Ladies' lisle thread vests of the hand trimmed kind, low neck, short sleeve and fashioned waist with knee pants to match, $1.00 value-

Ladles' black liste thread hose, ribbed and drop stitch, very clastic, fine gauge, 50c value

Ladies' fancy lists hose in black and white stripe, drop stitch, 65c value-

Soap Cheapness.

An odd lot of toilet soaps—and for mere oddness the rices squeezed out of them-such as the well known Butter milk, Lilae Blossom Newjort Bouquet Turkish Bath, Elde Flower and many other good soaps-

5c Cake Extra good tollel soaps—Jersey Belle, Witchhazel, Cosmos Buttermilk, La Tosca and Savor de Violet—three cakes in box—special for three days only—

25c Box Brown's original tar soap-sells everywhere for the cake-special for three days only-

7c Cake, 3 Cakes 25c

Blouse Waists and Wash Suits Half Price. The walsts we wish to speak of are of the best makes only fashioned with fancy or aflover collars and made of such good inadras, pique and cambric. They are here in all sizes and which are but half regular run thus $3,00 Waists for ..... $1.50

About four dozen boys' wash suits left from a very large stock, so for riddance-

Half Price

SILK WAISTS.

Black taffeta silk waists with blue or pink front, collars trimmed with laceothers in black or colors, corded or tucked, prices up to $5.75-$4.95

Ladies' and Children's jackets and capes without reserve-

Half Price

but two weeks longer. RUGS AND TAPESTRIES.

25 pretty rugs made of carpet remnants and marked at remnant prices. They are of Tapestry Brussels and Axminsters in sizes 6x9 ft. to 18x15 ft, at $7.50 to $25.00

10 Granite ingrain squares, best suite d for bed rooms or coverings for your finer capets. Size 9x12 feet—to close out—

50 Wilton Rugs of the newest colorings and latest oriental designs-Size 35x63

Half Price

$2.15

TAPESTRIES 25 Per Cent Off. An opportunity to re-cover your furniture at a large saving -a loss to us of course, but keeps us busy, you know. All silk and cotton tapestrys, plushes, velours and others, for the week-

25 Per Cent Off

Straw Hand Satchels.

A line of first quality bunch hampers in varied sizes, worth size to $1.25-

All Straw Hand Satchels Half

A nice assertment fruit designs in Ladies' Bathing Suits.

Linen Centerpieces.

Ladies' Collars and Ties Lunch Hempers and Block collars with colored silk embroidered dots-aftermath of summer selling-worth 25c-

pull ties in pink, blue and Washable, worth Sic Ladies' figured with the in full color range—the English square styles, worth The—

35c or 3 for $1.00

Ladies' white corded mull ties, hemstitched and tiny lace trioning en-circies the neck twice and crosses in front with pin or new ball fastner.

Ladies' self colored silk ties, same styles as corded muli, but without

Some highly continended styles -qual-

w class missing-not many. For the Walker Brothers Bry Goods Co.

Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co.