

RAIN IN THE MOUNTAINS. All day about the city's circle fair. While in the end the sun's rays showed through the clouds...

STYLES IN WEDDING RINGS. They Change, and the Plain Gold Band is no Longer the Only Fashion. In a big Broadway jeweler's shop the other day a nice young man was negotiating between a true lover's knot of pearls and a tiny heart of diamonds...

They are no longer the fashion, explained the gill dealer in precise tones to his pleased but fainting victim. "Look here in this display, outside all of rings made to order in the past few months. Every one of dull red gold, carved and studded with pearls, diamonds, emeralds, sapphires, rubies, and other gemstones...

There were a good many here, and what did he say? "What is your name, and what do you do?" "I'm Tom Stivers, and was a private in my company. They were packing ammunition in a wagon at Bannock, and some powder exploded in the wagon and killed me."

Antiquity of Excavations. Beating hands were busy with the removal of the remains of the ancient Egyptian civilization. These excavations brought to light some of the most interesting antiquities of the ancient world...

A Simple Method of Raising a Needle. It might be of service to record a simple means by which a needle can be raised from the back of a young girl, aged twelve, when I saw her sitting on the ground...

Housekeeping Hints. It may be true that the old adage of the period housewife means the proper management of a house, when they carry their household gods to their new homes...

He Threw the Hat First Away. I heard of an amusing little story the other day. A son of a friend of mine had been to the store where he is employed, and he and his father started to their department. Previous to their departure, Jim, the boy, ordered a "Sunday-go-to-meetin'" hat...

Professed Jones in Scotland. In a country house in Scotland one day, a luncheon, a pie appeared on the table which seemed to excite a certain guest. "When the pie was cut it was found to be full of live frogs and toads, which jumped out in every direction, causing great alarm among the guests...

A Mother's House Piece of Work. "There goes the leaves man in the field this morn'g, and he'll be back in the evening, and he'll be a dead man by the time he gets home," said Captain Mack, to Amos's wife...
