AFTER POLITICS, MARRIAGE

Romantic Marital Venture of Lee Fairchild at Salt Lake.

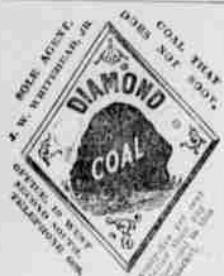

*His "Utah Hot" Nameless to Shape
Sexual in Cities, with a Few and All Women."*

Lee Fairchild, the "Mark Twain of American politics" and his campaign studies are still fresh in the minds of Utah people as he and they the last election were respectively seen and heard with marked frequency in connection with the Cross-roads party below the last election. For that and other reasons the following from the San Francisco Chronicle of Wednesday will prove interesting reading at this time:

"Editor Lee Fairchild of the St. Helens Herald was one of the passengers who sailed on the steamer Wade Walla yesterday morning from San Francisco. He departed Portland to a few hours ago, arriving at the Waiver wedding party, and that the ceremony was to be performed after the boat had begun with Captain Wallace officiating. When he boarded the steamer the editor was accompanied by his wife, a pretty young woman in a long white dress. It was learned afterward that she was Mrs. A. Ashton, of St. Helens. For some time she has been in residence in the charming little Naples hotel, where the editor and his family have been staying ever since he called as his host in search of a weekly newspaper. That was only a few weeks ago, but Editor Fairchild is in no man's way, and he present his suit so successfully that the party was compelled to move to another cabin, and even declined to his surprise in the matter of doing without immediate wedding gowns, presents and a piano to pronounce the important formula.

The St. Helens editor wanted to wear some original fashions and suggested a balcony, a railway train, ceremony by telephone and such "tricks" innovations, but the little widow induced him to compromise on a marriage suit with the captain as minister, and they left St. Helens a day ago. They are now in San Francisco where they expect to be married Saturday morning and their friends in the city will make ready for the northern trip in time to take the Wade Walla.

Editor Fairchild, when seen by a California reporter before his departure, admitted that he intended to seek the Wade Walla's captain to make him and Mrs. Ashton man and wife as soon as the steamer crossed the bar. There was no reason, he said, why such an unusual course toward unanimity should be taken, save that he preferred that plan. He intended to return in a few weeks, no suit and become popular again at the hands of the voting constituents.

2500 representatives sent out the ballot box was the editor's. Utah had a moderate share and contrasted in color, with a heavily-shaded well, a coloring card with a most like about it. The editor's name was on the ballot.

Fairchild's adventure is a "political" expedition through Utah during the recent campaign year.

Agricultural College Notes.
Enrollment at the Agricultural College 350.

Transferring vacation extends from Nov. 27 to Dec. 8.

The Atheneum association will give a ball to the sophomore in the winter.

Since the last report was made, we have received a catalog of goods from California, through W. H. Clark, who has a large number of goods.

The committees have held thirty-five business meetings, in which minutes have been taken, and are open to the inspection of the public, should they desire to do so. We have now started to our own work, and the work is progressing rapidly, and we have great hope early in the fall, although at times we found it no small task to cope with thirty-fourty widows, but as the winter has been harmony and good will.

ASHLEY RELIEF COMMITTEE.

TEACHER'S CONVENTION.

Invitation to Utah Educators to Meet at Ogden's Hotel House.

Ogden, Utah, Nov. 23rd, 1883.

Dear Sirs—Have appointed the 20th, 21st and 22nd days of Dec., 1883, as time and Osgood City, Ogden, the place, for the meeting of a convention of Utah teachers, to be known as the State Association of Teachers, etc., for the continuance of a program of excelsis, arranged by the education boards appointed. I desire that you attend, and that you urge the attendance of every teacher in your school.

John A. Lyon, of Ogden City, will act as chairman of the executive committee, and the entire corps of Ogden's teachers have unanimously volunteered to act as a reception committee, so that every visitor will be courteously and thoughtfully looked after.

I am anxious that this convention be a success, and I will be a forecast of the future. As we would like to have the following cities—Ogden, Salt Lake City, Great Falls, Montana, Cheyenne, Wyoming, Denver, Colorado, and the like, represented, we will be happy to have the railroads furnish free transportation.

Special rates have been promised over several railroads, by the executive committee, to make the money go as far as possible, we only have applied the real necessities of life to the expense.

For further information, address the Committee—in James P. Tolman, Dr. John H. Park, Prof. J. H. Peck, Dr. George C. Smith, Dr. W. H. Clark, Dr. G. F. Smith, Dr. D. H. Christensen, Utah County Super. Methodist Hotel, Ogden, etc.
