That's getting 'em, eh?

Only about 75 unterrified fans saw the struggle, but they saw a game worth going miles to look upon. There has been no better here or elsewhere in the N. P. league this season. From the beginning it was a pitchers' battle between Tozer for us, and Hoon for them, and Tozer took the candy. He pitched a great game, holding 'em down to six scattered bingles. Hoon was also there with the mysteries, Salt Lake getting but five hits. For six innings there was nothing doing. In the seventh, Hoon bounced the horsehide off Delmas' anatomy after Hausen singled. This put Bill at second. Gim fanned, Eslick flew out at second but Forsythe sent a zizzler down to middle. Then Bill Hausen began a sprint. He kicked up so much dust he could hardly be seen, but he beat the ball home and won the game.

There was a pretty play in the third. Dowling got to third on a hit, and McHale knocked one to Gimlin Dowling started for home and Gim fielded the ball straight to the home plate to Tozer.

Nothing doing for Dowling.

FINAL PLAYS TODAY

For the Olympian Golf Championship—Egan in Match.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 23.—Finals tomorrow for the Olympian golf championship will be contested in real international style by United States Golf association Champion H. Chandler of Exmoor, and George S. Lyon of Toronto, Canada. Each won his match today in the semi-final game, Egan defeating B. P. McKinnie, the St. Louis champion, 4 to 3 to play. It was not until the last putt was holed on the thirty-sixthy green that the Canadian ex-champion eliminated from the tourney F. C. Newton of Seattle.

Battling hard for two rounds, victory appearing to rest first with the Pacific coast man and then with his veteran rival, Newton had to succumb to hard luck and lost, one down.

After a most interesting morning battle the Canadian had a lead of one hole. Only one stroke in medal play separted them. At the fifth hole Newton was 2 up, but at the twelfth hole Mr. Lyon was 3 up. At firstwonderful playing brought Newton to the end of the first holes, only 1 down.

The Canadian took the nineteenth hole, but at the twenty-first hole the watch was square. Three putts on the twenty-third green lost that hole to Newton, but he won the twenty-fourth, while Lyon took the twenty-sixth. The twenty-seventh was halved in two. Not in years has a gallery seen such play as the men displayed on the twenty-seventh green. Each drove the green, Newton being away Judging the hill nicely Newton holed the putt. Not to be outdone by his Seattle rival, whose twenty-foot putt was a wonder, Mr. Lyon negotated his putt from sixteen feet.

The match was all square at this point. Newton took the twenty-eighth hole, but lost the thirty-first by going into the ditch. Poor putting lost him the next, using four strokes on the green. Lyon lost the thirty-third, but won the thirty-fourth and the thirty-fifth was halved. Almost holding his approach Newton had to be satisfied with a half at the thirty-sixth green, and the Canadian earned the right to play in the finals, 1 up.

J. BRITT VS J. GANS.

Peculiar Actions of the Coast Fighter Towards the Black.

Unless either side backs out there will be a match soon between Joe Gans and Jimmy Britt. At San Francisco on Friday night the clever negro had a talk with Britt and as a result they agreed to meet for the lightweight title of the world. Some time ago Gans challenged Britt, something unusual for a champion to do. But the colored man was prompted by the fact that Britt had made a reputation and there was a fast spreading impression that the white man could whip Gans. Britt did not respond to the defi at once, but when he did it was only to draw the color line. Under no circumstances, averred Britt, would he fight Gans. He was stoutly indignant that Gans should have the temerity to challenge him, and Britt's father, who is supposed to cut a wide swath in political circles in San Francisco, wrote a letter to Al Herford, Gan's manager, in which he stated that he would use his influence to stop boxing in that city if the dusky champion persisted in forcing Britt into a scrap. Naturally Britt's change of heart at this stage is a surprise.

Gans has proved himself to be the best lightweight we have had in years. He has been a consistent performer and ever willing to fight when called upon. There was always some doubt as to whether the negro could fight at the lightweight limit, 133 pounds, ringside. Most of his matches were at a higher scale and the weighing-in time was in the afternoon. Gans now contends that he will not have the slightest difficulty in making the legitimate lightweight standard and proposes to face Britt under these conditions.

Stift Knocked Out.

LAST RACE MEET OF THE SEASON.

Sensational Finishes Characterized Last Night's Saucer Events.

A LARGE CROWD ATTENDED.

Another Contest Between M'Farland And Samuelson in Which the Former Was Victorious.

Last night's bicycle meet at the Salt Palace was a fitting climax to a season of good racing.

In the first place, there was a good sized crowd on hand to witness the doings. Second, every race was a hair-raiser. The weather was delightful and the music excellent.

The riders, professionals and amateurs, did their best last night and their efforts were highly appreciated by the cycle fans in attendance.

The motor race between E. B. Heagren, T. M. Samuelson, J. M. Chapman and Earl Staley, has not been excelled this season—or any other season for that matter. It was a thriller with a thrill in every lap, and as the race was of five miles, there were a great many thrills.

Between events the spectators were entertained by sweet music from the band led by A. S. Zimmerman. Special mention should be made of the saxaphone solo by Earl Mackay. He played that old-time favorite, "Cricket on the Hearth," in a most charming manner.

But this is a story of the races:

Second to the motor race, chief interest centered in the final of the one-mile professional. Samuelson and McFarland were in separate heats, both qualified, and both were in the final. Those who imagine that the local riders has a ghost of a chance against the speedy San Jose boy, should have been at the saucer last night. They would have seen McFarland run away from the Provo lad. Early in the final, Palmer pulled the p unch around at a lively clip. Suddenly Samuelson shot ahead and sprinted for home. It appeared as an open den to McFarland to fight it out without the aid of pacemakers, and McFarland quicly accepted it. In a twinkling the rivals were riding neck and neck, and the other contestants were left far behind. For more than half a lap they fought it out bitterly Then McFarland jumped ahead, leaving Samuelson far in the rear. Downing, Hofman and Hollister were quickly taking pace from Floyd, and finished in the order named, Samuelson quitting high on the bank.

It was a bad night for "Sam."

He was in the consolation race. That is, he was in it for awhile.

When it came to the final sprint, young Hopper beat the Pride of Provo, and beat him badly, or "goodly," as you please.

But the five-mile motor race was the feature. A killing pace was set from the crack of the gun. It was soon aparent that the struggle would be between Samuelson and young Heagren, and again the latter demonstrated that he can beat anything on the track In that kind of a race. He was a quarter of a lap behind Samuelson at one stage of the five-mile race, and several times he tried hard to go around Samuelson, each time failing. Chapman and Staley were soon out of it entirely Heagren allowed his machine to drop back for a few yards, and then he pulled the throttle wide open, leaned low on the wheel, and let gasoline take its course. After tearing around the steep track for a mile or so, he gained the lead, and was never headed. For over two miles the pace they set was around the 1:20 mark.

The fans who saw last evening's events felt to congratulate Manager Heagren for the manner in which he has conducted the races this season. There has never been the least suggestion of crookedness; the riders have been well treated, and the public has been given its money's worth on all occasions.

A summary of the events follows:

Three-quarter-mile handicap, amateur—Schnell (80 yards), C. Redman (scratch), Halliday (70 yards). Time—1:20 2-5.

Mile open, professional—McFarland, Downing, Hofman, Hollister. Time—1:56 4-5.

Three-mile lap, amateur—C. Redman, West, I. Redman, Castro. Laps: Larson, 1; Lundgren, 5; Heagren, 1; Castro, 1; Mills, 2; Redman, 7; Welser, 5; Wilcox, 1. Time—6:22.

Half-mile consolation, professional—Hopper, Samuelson, Williams, Palmer. Time—0:58 15.

Five-mile motor race—Heagren, T. M. Samuelson, Chapman; Staley unplaced.

A PUGILISTIC CARNIVAL.

Will be Termed "A Horton Law Reunion"—Held at Polo Grounds.

This from New York:

"A Horton law reunion."

That is what the gathering of pigilistic champions for the Glants' field day and benefit at the Polo grounds means.

Joe Humphries, who is asisting President Brush and Manager McGraw in arranging the details of what promises to be the greatest athletic entertainment ever presented in New York, has the pledges of the leading pigilists who flourished under the boxing law to appear on the turf in three-round bouts, which are not to be Y. M. C. A. in any sense of the word. Friday will bel the day, if all goes well. Here is the list of contests arranged:

Bob Fitzsimmons vs Tom. Sharkey.
Jack Munroe vs Billy Elmer.
Young Corbett vs Kid Broad.
Terry McGovern vs Johnnie Burdick.
Frank Erne vs Frank Zimpfer.
William Rodenbach vs Jack Mumford.
Eddie Hanlon vs Toby Irwin.
Tommy Murphy vs Johnnie Loftus.

Here is a galliant array of past and present champions and others such as has never before been presented on one bill.

Moreover, and most important, it will be the first time in wich the women of New York have had an opportunity to see perform the migty gladiators over whom their brothers, husbands and sons raved in the delirium f fight fans at the Broadyaw, Lenox, Cony Island and Maspeth clubs, in the day when the pugilist was the athlete par xcellence.

Fort Douglas soldirs left for Denver this morning to take part in the big athletic meet.

Nothing has been hard from Iver Lawson, but he is expecid to arrive in New York today. From th metropolis he will come directly home.

If members of the Twelfth and Twenty-second batteries, all the Twenty-ninth infantry at Fort Douglas have their way, there will be a footall team from each in the field this seaon.

An effort is being made to arrange a series of five footbll maches between the teams representing the Salt Lake and Ogden High Schools Manager Thompson of the local team has gone to the Junction city to arrange for the games

Floyd McFarland xpects to leave Salt Lake next Sunday evening for the coast. He will go to his hoie in California, and after a visit amongh is old-time friends in San Jose, he wil probably leave for Australia. Palmer is another rider who is going back to the Antipodes.

The amateurs who have been riding at the Salt Palace this season are a fine lot of young men. They have been clean in their work, and on all off the track have conducted themselve in a gentlemanly manner. This is not aying that the professionals have not done the same. The amateurs have proved a big drawing card. Each one has a personal following, and they have done as much as the pros to draw the crowds

Dare Devil Edwards or Zarrow, made his first attempt to lap the gap at the Salt Palace last night. He made the dangerous trip successfull before one of the largest crowds that has attended the Collins—Blackburn shows. Fraviola also performed her act of looping the loop in a globe. Both acts were without accident, although Edwards went headfirst into a pile of dirt after leaving the platform. He will have the gap widened tonight as last night he demonstrated that he can make a much longer leap.

WAS IT CONSUMPTION?

Doctors Told This Lady She Had Consumption and Was Incurable —Drs. Shores & Shores Said Not—And Cured the Patient— Read Her Story As She Tells It, And You Will Understand Why Drs. Shores & Shores Cure Their Patients.

Julia Gilroy, Residence, Second West Street, Below Tenth South, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Miss Gilroy, tells a remarkable story of her cure, which many regard as a miracle. To all intents and purposes she developed Consumption, Good doctors so pronounced it and told her she was incurable. She came to Drs. Shores & Shores, and was cured. Here is her story:

"I have suffered for a long time from what I supposed was Consumption. I contracted one violent cold after another, had a terrible cough, and finally had violent and repeated hemorrhages, lost flesh, and was all run down. My breathing was hard and painful, and Doctors told me I was incurable. Reading of Drs. Shores & Shores great skill, I went to them and began their treatment. I improved from the first, my cough was relieved, the hemorrhages stopped. I GAINED 12 POUNDS IN WEIGHT IN ONE MONTH, and today I feel splendid, in every way, and feel that I am cured. No one can tell how grateful I am, and I feel it a Christian duty to give Drs. Shores full credit, and to advise all who are sick and despondent to see these expert specialists before they give up hope.

I shall be pleased to verify this statement if anyone interested will call on me. (Signed) "JULIA GILROY."

Specific Blood Poison
No dangerous minerals to drive the virus to the interior, but harmless, blood cleansing remedies, that remove the last poison taint.

What "Weakness" Is and How We Cure It.
So-called "Weakness" in men is merely a symptom of chronic inflammation in the prostate gland, brought on by early dissipation or by the improper treatment of some contracted disease. A complete and radical cure is, therefore, a question of restoring the prostate gland to its normal state, and this we accomplish promptly and completely without the use of internal remedies. Our treatment is a local one entirely. It is original and scientific, and has been proven absolutely effective by thousands of tests. We are convinced that by no other methods can full and permanent restoration of strength and vigor be accomplished.

VARICOCELE
Absolutely painless treatment that cures completely. Investigate our method. It is the only thoroughly scientific treatment for this disease being employed.

Spermatorrhoea, Stricture, Piles, Skin and Kidney Disease, Lost Strength, Hydrocele, Organic Weakness, etc., are also among the diseases we cure to stay cured.
