

EVENING NEWS

Friday June 29, 1883.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

New York, 28.—The newly appointed Mexican Minister to England, Senor T. Marascal, arrived from Mexico this afternoon. He leaves for England July 9th.

Hanover, N. H., 28.—John Wentworth of Chicago presided, and delivered the address at the annual dinner of Dartmouth College, Rev. Dr. C. Barrows, of San Francisco, also spoke.

Omaha, 18.—The printers on all the Omaha papers struck for an advance in the price of composition from $2 to $5 cents per 1,000 runs. The proprietors of 33, The papers will be published in reduced proportions tomorrow.

Philadelphia, 28.—A dispatch from Bethlehem says that one thousand employees of the Bethlehem Iron and Steel Mill will quit work today, demanding an increase of wages, which was refused; much excitement prevails.

Detroit, 28.—Cleveland, 6. Details. 4
Chicago, 28.—Rain postponed the Chicago and Buffalo game.
Boston, 28.—New York, Boston, 18.

Concord, 28.—The ballot in joint convention for U.S. Senator at noon: Whole number, 316; necessary to nominate, 166; Gilman Marion, Jr., J. W. Patterson, 30; Edward E. Hale, 21; George Simonds, 18. Total in the ballot box, 316; of yesterday of eight pairs, and the absence of five members of the House.

Richmond, Va., 28.—Rumors are prevalent that a meeting relative to the hostile meeting between Morris, Birne and Elam, but as yet none have been verified. In fact, persons who should know assert that there has been no meeting. The whereabouts of the two parties is not known.

New London, 28.—6 p. m.—Harvard defeated Yale; time of Harvard, 24:47½; Yale, 25:59.

Later.—The eighth annual Yale-Harvard eight-oared, four-mile, straight away race was rowed at 5:30 p. m.; Harvard having virtually a walk over, winning in the slow time of 24:46½. Yale's time, 25:59. Fully six thousand strangers were in town. One train of 17 cars from New Haven, was a complete jam.

Bath, N. Y., 28.—The trustees of the Soldiers' Home investigated the charges of cruelty contained in all daily publications of the Soldiers' Home. John Cowan, signer of the paper, was charged with being a damnable anarchist, when closely questioned admitted that some of his statements were untrue, and others were supported by or hearsay evidence; the records of the Home, the surgeons and half a dozen witnesses proved the statement false.

Chicago, 28.—The creditors of M. Nichols & Co., commission men on the Board of Trade, brought to grief by the late failure of McGraw, Everingham & Co., held a meeting yesterday. An examination of the affairs of the firm showed that they would be able to pay about 60 cents on the dollar. Some members of the firm had suggested that the firm be given a trial, as the impression was general that the firm would pay 50¢ full.

Lima, 28, via Galveston.—The Tribune, the New Iberian organ, says a meeting at L. Union in the department of Huachuca, June 14th, resolved to adhere to the condition of peace and to recognize Iglesias as President. The same paper prints a certificate from Juan F. Demarini, dated Talma, June 23d, that similar resolutions were passed there June 14, and of Pampa in the province of Junin on the 19th.

Montreal, 28.—The opinion of ex-Judge Badgley of the Superior Court just issued, states that the Grand Lodge of Free Masons of the Province of Quebec are subject to the penalties imposed in 1853 against secret societies. Those only exempt are the Under Grand Lodges of England, Ireland, Scotland & Canada, the four named having got a special act passed granting immunity from the penalties. The G. and Lodge of Quebec contemplated taking the matter into court.

Lexington, Va., 28.—Valentine's regimental figure of Gen. Robert E. Lee was unveiled to day in the presence of 6,000 persons. Gen. Wade Hampton acted chief marshal. Gen. Stewart as assistant marshal. The procession marched to the cemetery and decorated the grave of Gen. Jackson, then returned and paid the like honor to the grave of Gen. R. E. Lee. The exercises were held in the University campus. Gen. Jubal A. Early, preceding officer. A few remarks were introduced by the orator of the occasion, Maj. John W. Daniel. Father Ryan subsequently recited his original poem, "The Sword of Lee."

Baltimore, Md., 28.—About fifty ex-confederate soldiers, members of the Society of the Army and Navy of Maryland, under command of General George H. Stewart, left last night for Washington to take part in the Lee memorial services at Lexington. Many of these ex-Confederate soldiers were attached to the army of Stonewall Jackson, and they took with them a bronze relief tablet to be placed on the tomb of General Jackson. The tablet is nearly three feet in diameter, and a facsimile of the Great Seal of Maryland. On the upper edge is "Stonewall," in the lower "from the survivors of his men in Maryland."

New York, 28.—The Commission on Immigration to day resolved that all immigrants coming to this port from almshouses or elementary institutions of foreign countries be reported to the collector of the port as "unable to take care of himself or herself" without becoming a public charge," unless authentic evidence to the contrary is produced; and that the Collector be asked to detain them in the steam vessels carrying the immigrants for time sufficient to permit a thorough examination by the inspectors. An officer of the American Legion, to which the Pennsylvania Legion, and other official communication has been received from the Immigrant Commission, and that they would not take any passengers back without pay unless it is properly proven that they are likely to become public charges.

Chicago, 28.—The Colorado Traffic Assn. met to-day and admitted the Illinois Central and Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha roads to membership, percentages to be fixed hereafter. The D. & R. G. has been extended into the Iowa business, that the traffic which has heretofore been carried as part of the business of the Iowa pool should now be transferred to the Colorado Traffic Association, and carried over the Union Pacific, Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, and Denver & Rio Grande. A committee was appointed to apportion the percentages on this business.

Rounds running between Chicago and the Missouri River are discontinued with the exception allowed them on the through California route, and to-day succeeded in committee of General Manager Hughie of the North Western, and General Mulligan of the Rock Island, and General McMillan of the Chicago & Alton, to confer with the route of trains.

We GUARANTEE our work.

Over any day.

We'll make good.

Call on us.

We'll make good.

Call on us