A good girl is wanted. See advt.

EVANS & HONY appear at the Theatre on Thursday, Feb. 18.

"The Pirates of Penzance" will be the attraction at the Theatre on Washington's birthday.

The Articles of Incorporation of the Darlington Mining Company were filed in the Secretary's office to-day.

GOVERNOR MURRAY visited the Legislative Council yesterday, and remained until after the close of the day's session.

The flags throughout the city were placed at half-mast to-day, out of respect to the memory of Major General W. S. Hancock.

On Monday evening next, February 15, Mr. B. J. Young and Madame Mazzucato Young will give their grand vocal and instrumental concert in the Theatre.

YESTERDAY, as the city gravel train came down around the corner of Eighth East Street and Fourth South streets, the cars frightened Dr. Belle Anderson's horse, which was standing hitched to a buggy, and caused the animal to run away. The damage done was slight.

The Utah Commission have appointed as presiding judges at municipal elections to be held on May next, Jos. M. Cohen, Park City; James H. Field, Smithfield; and Abner Crane, Mt. Pleasant. Also as county registrars—John Duncan, Wasatch County, and J. M. Louder, Washington County.

In the House branch of the Legislature this afternoon, the House bill in relation to private corporations was read the second and third times. The House amended the bill in relation to the code of civil procedure, which was read and referred to the judiciary committee. The House also passed the deficiency appropriation bill for the Insane Asylum, which appropriates $30,000 for the institution.

The motion which Mr. D. C. Young made in the House branch of the Legislature just previous to the close of the afternoon session yesterday was that the committee on fish and game be instructed to either delete a clause in the bill now being considered by them or make a new bill to prevent any person from fishing in Mill Creek, Canyon Creek, Immigration Creek and City Creek, in Salt Lake County, during the next three years.

In the Legislative Council this afternoon, Mr. Sharliff was excused on account of sickness in his family. A message from the House was read, announcing that they had postponed indefinitely the further consideration of C. F. No. 25, a bill in relation to the assignments of unpaid debtors. The substitute for H. F. No. 124, a bill to prevent the spread of malignant diseases among sheep was read the second time and its further consideration indefinitely postponed. The composition of this bill was the cause of considerable amusement as the various sections were being read. C. F. No. 26, a bill in relation to the Insane Asylum was being read as we went to press.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Filippier.—Yesterday a little boy between 6 and 7 years of age, Alfred A. Watson, residing in the 10th Ward, was hit with a pebble from a filippier in the hands of Albert Beer, a boy about 12 years old. The larger boy had a spite toward the little fellow, who narrowly escaped losing his left eye, which is blackened and badly swollen.

A "Mistake."—This afternoon Deputies Vandercrook and Franks applied for admittance to the residence of President A. M. Cannon (while two of their fellow deputies outside, apparently to catch anyone who might attempt to escape) and served a subpoena upon Mrs. Amanda M. Cannon. Upon being informed by the lady that she was already under bonds as a witness, the deputies claimed they had made a mistake.

Book of Mormon Panorama.—Reuben Kirkham, the talented painter of Logan, Cache County, is to be in the city on Monday next to exhibit his excellent panorama of Book of Mormon views that evening in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms, and afterwards in some other wards of the city. It is two years since he last exhibited here, and since then he has added ten pictures to his already extensive and interesting list of views. Those who want to enjoy a pleasant and instructive evening's entertainment should attend one of his exhibitions.

Provo City Officials.—Certificates of election have been issued to the following municipal officers of Provo City, Utah County, elected on Monday, Feb. 8th:

Mayor—Wilson H. Deenberry.
Aldermen—Abraham O. Snodgrass, Walter Scott, Wm. H. Brown, John E. Booth.
Councilors—Charles D. Glazier, Roger Farrer, Jr., Evan Wride, Wm. A. McCullough, David Holdaway, James A. Bean, John M. Holway, Jos. T. McKean.
Recorder—Edward L. Jones.
Assessor and Collector—Jesse J. Fuller.
Treasurer—Jas. E. Daniels.
Marshal—John W. Turner.

"Civilization."—As an evidence that "civilization" as such prevails nowhere is fairly upon us, we learn that Mrs. Hannah Adams, of the 1st Ward, was presented with a fine, healthy girl baby on Tuesday last, the infant, which was only a few hours old at the time being brought to her by a woman and carried in a butcher's basket. Rumor has it that the mother of the child is a young woman who is anxious to keep up her reputation for respectability, and that the father is one of that class who is opposed to cohabiting with more than one woman in the marriage relation.

Deputies' Searches.—A party of seven deputy marshals suddenly appeared at the old Church Farm, south of the city, yesterday afternoon, made a thorough search of the houses, barns, stables, sheds, stack yard, etc., presumably for President George Q. Cannon, as they presented the man in charge of the place with one of the private circulars which the marshals has been so industriously circulating of late, upon which is a photograph of that gentleman, his description and the offer of a reward of $500 for his capture.

They had their trouble for nothing, as they found no one whom they wanted. After leaving there three of the party who were mounted on horses rode to the stock farm, north of there and made a search of the barn, etc., with a similar result, and after getting through, fired a shot from a pistol, presumably as a signal to their comrades, who had proceeded in a light conveyance by way of the State Road, of their non-success.

THE PERSECUTORS' MILL.

GRINDS RAPIDLY, BUT DOES NOT GRIND TO POWDER.

In the Third District Court this morning, the case of FREED, HUGH S. GOWANS, charged with having lived with and acknowledged his wives, was taken up. Brother Gowans was the first one dealt with by the "persecuting" process inaugurated for persecution purposes, there having been three indictments found against him. On indictment No. 227, charging the commission of the offense, dated Feb. 1, 1895, against him, the following jury was empaneled, John M. Young being accused because he preferred not to act as a juror in this class of cases. Bolivar Roberts because he had some connection with the case, and J. Fitzgerald for not having any taxable property.

W. H. Remington, H. N. Greene, Gideon Turnbull, George Tarr, J. C. Conklin, W. S. Smiley.

The indictment was read, charging the offense between Feb. 1, 1893, and December 31, 1895, with being a married man and cohabiting with a woman. The defendant was sworn and testified that the lady named in the indictment was his wife, and during the period named they lived together in the relation of husband and wife.

The Court then read the indictments against the defendant were continued for the term.

Feb. 26th, at 10 a. m., was fixed for passing sentence.

The next case on the calendar was that of the United States vs.

HENRY GROW.

Mr. Dickson stated that he could not tell whether he could proceed with the case until he had conferred with Mr. Atty. Gen. W. H. Remington. A short consultation was held with Mr. Remington, and the case was continued until the next day. Mr. Dickson then retired from the court room to ascertain what witnesses were put under bonds; on his return he announced that he desired the case continued until 2 p. m., when he would decide upon what course he would pursue. This was granted, and the case against Joseph Sisson, noted elsewhere, taken up. After the conclusion of the Sisson case, the charge against was taken up. All the even-numbered jurors were omitted, and the following jury empaneled:

W. H. Remington, H. N. Greene, Gideon Turnbull, J. C. Conklin, Wm. H. Perry, Geo. Tarr.

Mr. Young, in examining the jurors, stated that this case was similar to the others which had been tried, with the exception of Sisson's, which he did not wish to be regarded in the same connection, as Sisson was a married man.

There were also three indictments against Herbert J. Foulger, and the charge of the offense between December 1, 1893, and December 31, 1895, with being a married man and cohabiting with a woman. The defendant was sworn and testified that the ladies named in the indictment were his wives, and lived with him as such during the period named.

After hearing the instructions of the Court, the jury returned a verdict of guilty, the entire trial occupying but eight minutes.

Sentence will be pronounced on Feb. 26th, at 10 a. m.

Other two cases against the defendant were continued for the term.

This afternoon Mr. Dickson asked that the case of Henry Grow be continued until March 1st, as the witness in the case had not been subpoenaed, and no subpoena had been issued for her, through a clerical oversight. The request was granted.

Mr. Dickson had probably forgotten that Mr. Grow's residence had been searched for this same witness for which he says no subpoena was out.

Pennman's Sentence.—When the jury returned a verdict of guilty yesterday afternoon, in the case of the United States vs. John Pennman, charged with polygamy, the district attorney stated he had no further business until to-day. Mr. Young of counsel for defendant, gave notice that Mr. Pennman would prefer to have sentence passed then; he was a poor man, and his family were in destitute circumstances; his eldest son was insane, and had been so for years, and was only able to do a few chores around the house.

In reply to the questions of the Court, the defendant said his son had not been in an asylum for five or six years, although he had at one time been confined.

The Court then asked the jury to give the penalty for the crime of polygamy. It now becomes my duty to pass sentence. Have you anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced?

Mr. Pennman—I believe not.

Court—is it your intention to obey the law in future?

Mr. Pennman—I have nothing to say.

Court—Now on your condition, am disposed to be somewhat lenient with you. You will be sentenced to two years in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $50 and costs, and stand committed until the fine and costs are paid.

In view of the fact that the defendant had refused to make any promises as to his future conduct under "the law as interpreted by the courts," the imposition of the comparatively light sentence elicited considerable surprise and comment.

The charge of unlawful cohabitation against the defendant was continued for the term, and Mr. Pennman was taken to the Penitentiary last evening, as was also Mr. Willey.

A Good Man Gone.—The Ogdin Herald of Thursday, contains the following account of the death of Brother Henry Crawshaw of that place, which occurred at 8:40 a. m., on the 4th inst.

For about six weeks Brother Crawshaw has been suffering from chronic meningitis, and his death was the result of the disease. He was born at Halifax, Yorkshire, England, February 26th, 1830. He came to America 31 years ago and settled in St. Louis. During the war he was a ward master at the Government Hospital at Jefferson Barracks near St. Louis, and his duties in this direction were faithfully discharged. He remained in St. Louis until 1871, when he came to Utah. Since his residence in Utah, he has been a most successful and shining example to his fellow men. He made numerous friends. For about fifteen years he was in charge of the retail grocery department in a Z. C. M. I. store in this city. He was intending to go on a visit for the benefit of his health, and he had been to the doctor, but he had to keep his bed, but death was now nearer. He died at his home, and is relieved of all earthly pain and suffering.

Attend to it Now.—After the leaves come out on the fruit trees the little bands of egg laid by the moths will be more difficult to discover. They are now in plain sight and comparatively easy to see on a tree; but when you realize that by simply clipping off the end of a quarter-inch twig, when the branches are bare, and the egg rings are easily seen, you can destroy from 100 to 300 large caterpillars, with all their multitudinous offspring, you will realize the advantage of commencing the work of extermination at once. A united and determined effort now by the orchardists of this city would obliterate the plague this season, and that without seriously interfering with the work of extermination.

Bees River Town.—Certificates of election have been issued to the following officers elected by the voters of Bear River Town, Box Elder County, on Feb. 8th:

President—Carl Jensen.
Trustees—M. C. Mortensen, James F. Anderson, Christian Petersen, Lars F. Johnson.

Appeals Dismissed.—On motion of city attorney Moyle, the following appeals have been dismissed in the Third District Court, the diligence not having been used by the appellants in prosecuting their appeals:

John B. Dilley, stealing a saddle, $38.15.
Robert Nordlinger, embezzlement, $68.20.
Sadie Nobles and Camille Gordon, battery, $22.50 each.
Elizabeth Brown, assault, $38.10.
Sinking Howe, selling opium, $118.
Mrs. J. Madson, disturbing the peace, $50.20.
Samuel L. Tobias, assault, $30.35.
N. P. Gray, selling liquor on Sunday, $110.50.
J. N. F. Van Enschut, assault, $39.50.
Elbridge Tufts, assault, $32.00.
Thomas Davis, assault and battery, $44.
Barr & Smith, selling liquor on Sunday, $90.50.
J. A. Fitzgerald, battery, $31.40.
J. A. Fitzgerald, selling liquor on Sunday, $68.

To-day Mr. Kenner moved that the case of N. P. Gray be reinstated; the motion will be argued before Judge Zane on Saturday.

"The Pirates."—On Washington's Birthday the public will have the pleasure of witnessing the interpretation of another of Gilbert & Sullivan's delightful operas, by the Carleton Opera Company. This time "The Pirates of Penzance" will be produced, and from indications everything will have been done to make the performance of the piece in every way a perfect success. The cast, as will be seen, embraces some of the very best musical and dramatic talent of the city. Mr. Gorinski has been specially engaged to assume the roll of the Pirate King—a part which is particularly adapted to his voice—and he will, no doubt, make a big hit in the character. Miss Edith Clawson makes her debut on the operatic stage on this occasion, when she appears as "Mabel." Much curiosity is indulged in as regards the lady's success in her new departure, but those who have witnessed the rehearsal of "The Pirates" speak in high praise of the charming manner in which she sings and acts in the part assigned her. The music is of that peculiar style, well suited for Miss Clawson's voice. Miss Weir is admirably cast, and in the character of "Ruth," in which she has a better opportunity of displaying her dramatic and lyric abilities than in any part she has yet assumed. Misses Allen and Whitney, like Miss Clawson, also make their first appearance in opera on the 23d. Messrs. Spencer, White and Pyper are also well cast in their respective lines. The cast is as follows:

Pirate King, Mr. Robert Gorinski.
First Mate, Mr. J. T. Whitcomb.
Second Mate, Mr. Geo. D. Pyper.
Squire, Mr. Geo. D. Pyper.
Samuel, Mr. J. T. Whitcomb.
Miss Edith Clawson.
Miss Louise White.
Miss Ellen White.
Miss Lila White.

The chorus will consist of 50 voices principally from those who constituted the choruses in "Patience" and "The Mikado." Prof. Careless will conduct the opera.

Sisson the non-"Mormon."—Two indictments for unlawful cohabitation were found by the grand jury for the September, 1895, term of the Third District Court, against Joseph H. Sisson, of West Jordan, Salt Lake County. Sisson's brother-in-law being the complainant. This case was taken up for trial this morning, and to the calls of the bailiff for Joseph Sisson, an aged gentleman came forward and announced that that was his name.

Court—You are not the defendant in this case, are you?

Mr. Sisson—No; but my name is Joseph Sisson, if you want me.

Court—Well, we'll not try you now. Mr. Sisson then took his seat, and after more calls of "Joseph Sisson, Jr.," an individual who had been seated inside the bar finally stated that his name was Joseph Henry Sisson, the defendant, Messrs. Young and Rawlins stated that they had nothing to do with this case, and in reply to the Court, the defendant stated that he had no means with which to employ an attorney. The Court accordingly appointed Messrs. The Grange Young and J. L. Rawlins, Mr. Rawlins remarking "That'll be bad for the man," and Mr. Young adding "If we have our usual luck."

The following jurors were sworn to try the case:

F. H. Remington, H. N. Greene, Gideon Turnbull, J. C. Conklin, Wm. H. Perry, Geo. Tarr.

The indictment was read charging Sisson with unlawful cohabitation with Hannah Sisson and Engred Poulson, from Jan. 1, 1894, to June 30, 1895.

Andrew Poulson, son of Andrew Poulson, Jr., and Engred Poulson, Jr. were called and examined as witnesses. Their testimony was to the effect that about eight years ago the defendant married Engred Poulson, a sister of his first wife, lived with both up to about two months since, when Engred was married to Christian Lila. Both women had children to the defendant, Engred's youngest child being one year and eight months old.

The defendant denied that he had ever married Engred Poulson.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty, after which Sisson pleaded guilty to the other indictment against him, it being understood that Sisson would be suspended. The time of passing sentence in the first case was set for Thursday, Feb. 18.

The fact that the defendant was not a "Mormon" was not introduced before the jury, or it might have been considered doubtful, even with the direct testimony, what the result would have been. Sisson, however, in appearance and demeanor, presented a strong contrast to the "Mormons" who have been tried. The hand-drawn expression on his countenance, his apparent lack of intelligence, unkempt hair and general untidiness made him anything but an attractive object. The history of the man too, is one that will not bear the light of day.

It appears that about eight years ago, his wife Hannah gave birth to a child, and his sister Engred Poulson was engaged as nurse. The Poulson residence was some distance from Sisson's, and the latter would accompany his sister-in-law home at night. On these occasions he succeeded in seducing the girl, and a month or two afterward married her. As soon as his crime became known, Sisson, who had been a "Mormon," was promptly excommunicated for adultery. He continued to live with the two women as wives, until arrested last fall; and a few days later he was indicted by the grand jury, he indicated a man of desperate character, and of low moral standards. He was married last fall to a woman named Lila, and he is in a proper position to make any promise the Court may require.

What We Are Indebted to the South for.

There appears in our columns to-day the advertisement of the well known (and universally used in the Southern States) Simmons' Liver Regulator. Years ago it won its way into every household of the South by pure, sterling merit. It takes the place of a doctor and costly prescriptions. The medicine is becoming widely known in the North, and whenever used the demand for it has steadily increased. It is a family medicine, containing no dangerous and deleterious ingredients, but purely vegetable, and so gentle in its action that it can safely be given to any person, no matter what age—the centurion or the crowling infant. The Regulator promotes digestion, dissipates nasty sick headache, and gives a strong, full tone to the system. In malarial climates it is invaluable, both protecting against the disease and expelling the poison after it has entered the system. It has no equal as a preparatory medicine, and can be safely used when a doctor cannot be called in. Persons of the highest character and eminence have given Simmons' Liver Regulator their cordial and hearty endorsement.

Dr. Henley's Popular Remedy, Colic, Has the largest sale, and has relieved and cured more persons afflicted with colic troubles than any one known remedy.

STRENGTH OF TEETH. Pleasant to the taste, accessible to the stomach, harmless in its nature, painless in its action. Cures indigestion, biliousness, irregularity of the bowels, and all the troubles which result from a weak and disordered system. It is a family medicine, and can be safely used when a doctor cannot be called in. Persons of the highest character and eminence have given Simmons' Liver Regulator their cordial and hearty endorsement.

PERMANENT REDUCTION. Photographs at Fox & Symons. COAL! COAL! COAL!

We do not sound a needless alarm when we tell you that the latent scrofula is in your blood. Inherited or acquired, it is there, and Ayr's Sarsaparilla alone will effectually eradicate it.

Weber, Rock Spring, Pleasant Valley and Red Canyon. All the Coals sold in the Salt Lake market. Our Weber is from the celebrated Grass Creek mines, and we are mining better coal than ever before. No other Weber brought to this market can compare with it. All our coals are nicely screened and cleaned.

THE BEST EVIDENCE. Of the merits of a remedy is the effect on the system, so there can be no doubt that the California Fig Syrup Company is the only one who is able to make known the wonderful efficacy of Syrup of Figs for all the troubles which result from a weak and disordered system.
