

fides Splendid Race Astride Lubbock' Neck-Nelson and His Mount Well Backed.

It was the thirteenth day of the big horse-hace meet yesterday, but there was nothing unlucky about it. Good races were seen by a still better crowd and with track and weather conditions ideal, good going was in order throughout the program. The talent about held its own so everyone was happy.

The first race-four furlongs-was easy picking for the wise ones. In face of the victories this boy, Nelson, has to his credit, a lot of the fans play the boy as much as the horse. So Decklaw with Nelson up became a favorite and was played heavily. There was noth-

was played heavily. There was noth-ing to it; Decklaw simply got away in the lead and came home, without los-ing an inch of gain. The second race-five furlongs--wasn't so easy to pick. The whole field boked good: Happy Chappy, Billy Mayhum, Jllette, Platoon, Mina Baker, and The Irish Exile all had attractions. Jllette with Nelson up. Maham with Brady up and Happy Chappy with Wil-Brady up and Happy to show. It was a wide finish, Mahem forging to the three played heavily to show. It was a wide finish, Mahem forging to the front with Jllette second and Happy Chappy third.

front with Jillette second and Happy Chappy third. Frank Lubbock with McBeth up, re-deemed himself, cut down feeling against McBeth and gave a better name to the Irwin stables by winning the third race of a mile. Lubock fell down to Maxetta in a similar event day before yesterday, but McBeth rode hard yesterday and took the event in good shape. Nelson pushed Little But-tercup into second place. Little But-tercup is a small horse and Nelson weighs 117, so the animal's coming in-to second showed superior jockeyship and gameness on the part of the ani-mal. Jack Paine came in for show. The fourth race—five furkings—had 'em guessing. The field contained; Yada, Athgold, Marrint, Dr. Shorb, Mandator and Venus de Milo. Athgold was pleked by many although Yada looked good. Powell was on Yada, Wilson on Athgold, second and Malrina third. Athgold ran strong but in wide turns lost ground third. Athgold ran strong but in wide which will be a second and Mahrina third. Athgold ran strong but in wide turns lost ground. The fifth race looked like Reene W. and Berlin to the pickers. Sylva U., Piquet and Salpearl constituted the rest of the field. Reene W. and Berlin took the lead at the jump and away they went around the first turn in clickety-elick time. They had seven furlongs to go and Reene W. led to the just turn. Here she fell back of Sylvia U., who went ahead in a rush. As they came down the stretch Piquet jumped in with Berlin tagging on. It was a whiriwind finish, Sylvia U. lead-ing, Fluet second and Berlin third. The free-for-all trot was a cinch for Primus, who won it in straight heats. The crowds like running races better.

Chicago, Oct. 29.-Willis Britt of San Francisco, manager of Lightweight Champion "Battling" Nelson, stopped off in Chicago for a few hours yesterday afternoon en route from New York to the coast, and set at rest all doubt as to the puglistic plans of the Dane. "The rumors of Nelson fighting Mc-Farland six rounds in the cast or of meeting Johnny Thompson, this place or that, are all wrong," suid Britt. "Nel-son has only two fights in view, and neither of them is likely to come off soon. One of these battles is to be with Packy McFarland, for Nelson will give the Chicago boy a crack at the Ille. TAKES VALERO TO TRIAL.

Accused Man to Answer for Shooting

A Countryman. Early this morning Detective Thoma J. Mitchell of Omaha, Neb., started back to that city with Raffall Valero, whose arrest was mentioned in the "News' last night, and who is wanted-for the attempted murder of Sebastino Turco on May 39. The shooting was the result of a quarrel between Valero and some other country men, Turco interfered and tried to restore peace when, it is alleged, Valero drew a revolver and fired three times at Turco. Two of the bullets struck the man in the breast and the other inflicted a wound in the hand. Turco was in the hospital for many months but finally recovered. Valero escaped and came to Utah. He went to rovo and might have escaped capture but for the fact that his wife joined him there, Sherlff Harmon and his dep-utes had a description of the fugitive and soon located him. After his arrest the authorities at Omaha were notified and Detective Mitchell, armed with reconsistion papers lost no time in get-ting here. The papers were honored yesterday by Gov. Cutler. Detective Mitchell says he has traveled 1,000 miles to effect the capture of Valero. last night, and who is wanted
