FOR HOME-SEKERS.

In another column we publish a letter from a reliable correspondent in Danneberg county, Idaho, setting forth in a fair and impressive manner the advantages which March Valley offers to those who settle there.

The advantages which this valley offers are many and of a nature that will attract those who seek a better home.

It would be infinitely better if other valleys of the mountain region had been built up in the same manner.

REVIVAL IN MINING.

People connected with mining in the West feel that there is going to be a considerable revival of that industry in the near future.

In addition to the feeling among the miners on the East coast, the attention of the Pacific coast has been attracted to the West.

Whoever may be the outcome of the particular contest, it is suggested by Mr. Stump, it must be apparent to those observers that the West is about to make further rapid strides in social progress.

and politics, and a general revival of activity in the industrial may be looked upon as an inevitable result.

THE APPLE'S DARK LUCK.

The American dried apple is the least of our export products to sail down the world's sea.

DAVID AS A GENERAL.

In the popular distribution of the merits of great military men, and of their names, it is interesting to note a prominent Frenchman coming out with the evidence that King David was an officer whose military genius on the field of battle was equal to that of Napoleon or Frederick II.

AGRICULTURAL DISCOVERIES.

Of great interest to agriculturalists are the recent discoveries of the Morgan in Egypt. A year ago the famous collection of the burial places of the ancient pharaohs found in the pyramids of Giza, the Sphinx, and the Great Pyramid of Cheops, were discovered.
