THOMAS BISHOP AT REST.

Funeral Services of Old Resident of

The Nineteenth Ward.

The funeral services over the remains f Thomas Bishop were held at 2 o'clock of Thomas Bishop were used at a occess this afternoon. In the Ninetcenth ward meetinghouse, Mr. Elishop, who resided at 434 north Second West street, is one of the old identities of the word where he resided, and will be long remembered by many triands for his goodness of heart and active sympathy for those who were in urouble. He was taken III about two weeks ago, and at one time it was thought that an operation might be beneficial to him, but this idea was given up owing to the fact that he was given up owing to the fact that he was a speen advanced in years being 37 years of age. Little hope was given for his recovery on this account. He continued to grow wrose in applie of everything that was done for him and the end came on Mon-day night when the malady, kidney trouble, took him off. Mr. Biahop, in company with his sons, has for many years been in the well driving business, of which he was ops of the piencers in this rity. Failing health computed in more there from the busi-mess some runfix ago, since which time he has inved in automation which the more address. this afternoon in the Nineteenth ward
