FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

W. D. Hendricks, Esq., of Richmond, is in town.

C. and Mrs. John N. Neels arrived from New York yesterday.

See what our special columns say about G. D. Ames in this issue.

There is a letter at this office for W. W. Turner, care of R. Aveson.

Wm. Held, for obtaining meals at the Walker House, and not paying for them, was fined $25.

The President's Message, or that portion of it relating to Utah, is the prevailing talk of the town.

The cases against the Rev. Pierce—and their names begin—continue dragging through the District Court.

Strange that mules, the most harmless of all things, should have the most uncharitable of voters.

Burglar broke into the Utah Central depot at Santaquin last week, but was poorly paid for the risk they ran.

A lodging-house for tramps was proposed by Mayor Jennings, for the consideration of the City Council, last evening.

The street cars of the city were licensed for another year last night. The fee is $25 per car, in lieu of a per capita tax.

It is estimated that there are between 700,000 and 800,000 cattle on the Black Hills range, and not less than 25,000 horses.

A nineteen-year-old son of John Montgomery, of North Ogden, was thrown from a horse on Sunday last and had his leg broken.

A railroad was killed at Mountain Home, Idaho, on Monday. It was supposed that he fell from a train and had his neck broken.

Brother Wm. G. Dunn, who fell into a cellar a few days ago, at American Fork, and was seriously injured, is regaining his strength. So says the Expositor.

"Heroine" is perhaps as peculiar a word as any in our language; the first two letters of it are male, the three first female, the first four a brave man, and the whole word a brave woman.

A collection of hymns and anthems, set to music by home composers, compiled by E. Beesley for the use of Ward and Association choirs, has just been printed at the Juvenile Instructor office.

The Fort Douglas ambulance tipped off a bridge on Monday night, while returning to the Fort, and several people were injured. In the party were several ladies. Lieutenant Taggart had two ribs broken, and Lieutenant Barnham had his shoulder blade hurt. The vehicle turned over twice.

Wines warranted as the pure juice of the grape, put up in and shipped from the midst of the fruit-growing region of Los Angeles, Cal., are advertised in another column.

Mr. R. J. Woolcott, 29 and 33 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, is the wholesale and retail dealer. He has visited Utah, where he has acquainted himself with the particular of his business.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

"Morgenstjerne."—The closing number of volume two of this work, my magazine is just out. The publisher informs us that he class the volume with about twenty-four actual subscribers and will commence the new one with an issue of about 5,000 copies. The entire Scandinavian population in Utah is estimated at about 3,500 families, which shows that Morgenstjerne is read by the great majority of the Danish speaking people. As an advertising medium it therefore commends itself. No advertisements accepted, but from good and reliable firms, interested in the growth and progress of the Territory and its best interests.

An Alarming Affair.—Night before last an alarming circumstance is reported to have occurred in what is known as the Watts' building. An old lady, an invalid, and a native of Scandinavia, occupied one of the rooms, where, it is said, she was daily waited upon by a woman nurse, who, after seeing that all was well with her, went home, locking the old lady in.

On the night in question she departed suddenly, leaving her patient alone and a lamp turned down and burning near by. By some accident the old lady upset the lamp and the room caught fire. She screamed lustily and after strenuous efforts succeeded in awakening her neighbors or people living in the same house, who trying in vain to unfasten the door, burst through into the apartment and rescued the terrified inmate. She was burnt some, but not seriously. The above account is given by an acquaintance of the old lady.

How He Wilted.—The Idaho Democrat is responsible for the anecdote that a resident of Boise Valley was hunting in the mountains two or three weeks ago, and as an unusually severe rain storm overtook him he crept into a hollow log for shelter. After the rain abated he endeavored to creep out, but the log had swelled so that he found it impossible to make his exit. He tried to compress himself so as to make the passage, but it would not begin to work. Nothing that he could conceive availing, he gave up to die, and like a man drowning, he began to think of all the mean things he had ever done, until finally he hadn't paid his subscription to a local paper for many years. He then saw the fellow who had shipped out of the log without an effort. The reader can dig the moral out, if there be any.

LOST HORSES.

PAY FOR ANIMALS LOST BY CAPTAIN LOT SMITH'S COMPANY.

From advices received by T. O. Bailey & Bro., land attorneys of this city, from Captain John Mallan, Charles and Wm. B. King, of Washington, D. C., it appears that those officers and soldiers of the above-named company who lost their horses while doing special military service in protecting the United States mails between Utah and the Missouri River, will obtain pay for them, if the claimants make their applications so that they can be filed in Washington before the 9th day of January, 1894.

The proofs in each case can be filed any time after that date. Several members of the company have already made application, but we are informed there are many others who have not, and we advise them not to delay in doing so, but to make application at once. Blank forms and information can be had of the above-named firm.

Ladies Art Bazaar.—A visit to the ladies art bazaar, just opened in the new Ellerbeck-Roberts building, midway between the Deseret Bank and the Theatre, well repays one who has an eye for the beautiful. Mrs. R. V. Morris, the proprietor, has a full line of fancy goods, consisting of chandeliers, arsanese and filigree silks, embroidery silks, knitting silks, crevils, and the latest designs for stamping.

Lessons are given in embroidery and orders are taken and promptly filled for all kinds of work of this character. Visitors cannot fail to be pleased with the profusion of lovely and delicate objects on display. Mrs. Morris and her daughter produce the work on exhibition almost entirely.

She is the agent for the celebrated Santa Cruz shells, and mosses, which among other things make lovely wall ornaments. Fire and lamp screens of the most delicate fabrics and designs, and ribbon, chenille and filigree work on silk, plush and velvet. Call and examine Mrs. Morris' goods, and beauty your home; with home-made and very superior artistic workmanship.

North Jordan Notes.—Sister M. A. Youlton, a correspondent in Taylorsville, sends a well written report of affairs in general in that growing settlement. She says: "We have a Primary Association, a Young Ladies Society, and a Mutual Improvement for both sexes and all ages. On Wednesday evening I gave them a short description of London. Sister Pixon gave an address two weeks before."

We have a good day and Sabbath school, fairly well attended; in fact, the settlement seems to be progressing generally. I forgot to say that Brother Hague three weeks ago gave a description of Liverpool, and Bro. A. Bennion an account of the life of Moses up to the time of the departure of the children of Israel from Egypt, and Sister A. Bennion a resume from that time until his death.

They have asked me to deliver a lecture, but I have not yet fixed the date or subject. Last week we had Christenson's Panorama of scenes in Navajo, and the early Saints crossing the Plains, Winter Quarters, etc. The house was well filled and the people seemed much pleased and interested.

Surprising their Bishop.—A good number of the inhabitants of Salem, Utah County, gave Bishop Charles D. Evans a surprise party last Friday evening, and had a genuine good time in so doing. After supper, which was a sumptuous spread, the Bishop, in an appropriate little speech, tendered his compliments to the company for the expression of good feeling shown to himself and family, and social delights and dancing till midnight closed the happy interview. Sisters Anne and Olivia P. Davis were the committee in charge. The brass and string bands of Salem were in attendance.

Letter From Abroad.—A letter from Elder J. Alms Smith, dated October 24th, at Kedgey, in the Leeds Conference of the British Mission, to Brother John R. Howard of this city, states that the work of the Lord was slowly but steadily progressing in that neighborhood. The Saints of the Bradford and Kedgey districts were feeling well. During the last year about 100 had been baptized and a few more emigrated. A number had lately been added to the Church in Wilsden and vicinity. Elder Smith, since writing, has been changed to the Newcastle Conference.

Antiquities of Egypt.—Brother Robert Smith is in the city with his improved and enlarged panoramas of the Seven Wonders, Pyramids of Egypt and Great Events in History. All who love beautiful paintings and to hear their description, will doubtless avail themselves of this opportunity.

The paintings will be exhibited in the 15th Ward this evening, the 5th, and in the 20th Ward on Friday the 7th. Brother Smith proposes to give part of the proceeds to the Young Men's and Young Ladies Associations.

Z. B. B.—The Secretaries of the Zion's Beneficial Building Society are now prepared to receive the December subscriptions, which should be paid on or before the 12th inst. Those who desire to become members under either of the two conditions explained in recent issue of the Deseret News, should see the Secretaries as soon as possible.

Death From Apoplexy.—Father Joseph Bean, an old and respected citizen and a Counselor in the Bishopric of the Eleventh Ward, died of apoplexy during last night. The funeral will take place on Sunday next, at the Eleventh Ward Meeting house. Friends are invited. Deceased was the son of George and Mary Miller Bean, and was born April 18th, 1814.

Christmas presents at Pembroke's. See advt.

Arrived in Washington.—The following telegram was received at 7.50 o'clock last night:
WASHINGTON, D. C.,
Dec. 4th, 1893.

Hon. John Taylor.
Arrived here Saturday, an sworn in and entered upon duties as Delegate in Forty-eighth Congress, today. All well.
JOHN T. CAINE.

Terrible Fatality.—A Saltwater correspondent of the Ogden Herald recounts a fatal accident to young Richard Bybee, last Saturday evening. His father had bought some new kind of caps for the young man's gun and on arriving home gave them to him. After supper Richard took his gun down to try one of the caps. His father cautioned him to be careful and advised him not to try them that night, but the lad replied there was no danger as he had used the gun the day before and put it away empty, being out of bullets. The young man set the butt of the gun on the floor, put his foot on the muzzle, and blew down it before capping it, when his foot slipped from the hammer and the gun was discharged, the contents entering his mouth and lodging in his brain, killing him instantly. The Justice of the Peace was called upon to hold an inquest over the body. A jury being impaneled brought in a verdict according to the facts, Davis Bartholomew, Alms W. Richardson, and B. Chadwick being the jurors. The deceased was a young man of great promise, beloved by all who knew him. He was the son of Blufford A. and Margaret Bybee and was in his eighteenth year. He had been familiar with the use of a gun from his childhood.

An individual for peddling coal oil without a license, interviewed the Police Magistrate this morning, was discharged on a technicality.

The Fourth Quorum of Elders are hereby notified of a special meeting, which takes place on Monday evening next, the 10th inst., at 7.30 o'clock in the Ninth Ward meeting house.

At the annual meeting of the Utah Fine and Cement Company on Monday last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Elmon Hamberger, President; J. P. Pascoe, Vice President; J. Barnett, Secretary and Treasurer; A. Hansen, Robert Harkness and F. A. Pascoe, Directors.
