A warranty deed has been filed with the county recorder which conveys a lot of land in Erick's subdivision, east of Eighth South and Third East streets, Salt Lake City, from Lavina E. and Charles Livingston, Jr., of Sweet Water county, Wyoming, to Carrie M. Timby, of Salt Lake county. The consideration is $3,800.
The examination of the four applicants for teacher's certificates and diplomas is being held in the office of State Superintendent Park. Five others are taking examinations in Ogden, Provo and Wyoming. The results will not be announced till after the State board of education passes upon the examination papers.
Charles Livingston Jr. and wife, of Rock Springs, Wyoming, formerly of this city, have conveyed by warranty deed, for the stated sum of $3,800 and the assuming by the grantee of a mortgage for $2,200 to Carrie M. Timby, a house and 320 rods of ground, together with right-of-way adjoining on the east side of Seventh East street, between South Temple and First South.

People who came down from Brigham last night reported that there are heavy forest fires burning around Lake Mary and in the gulches between Park City and Brighton. Heavy clouds of smoke rolled over the hills and many enormous pines were seen to fall before the devouring flames. Careless smokers or campers are thought to be responsible for the devastation.
The funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Eleanor Toronto, mother of Prof. J. B. Toronto, were held in the Eighteenth ward chapel Thursday afternoon. The speakers were Bishop Whitney, Bishop Spencer, and Elder John Nicholson, the first of whom testified to the integrity and strong faith of the deceased. The musical service was furnished by Messrs. Zypor, Whitney, Patrick and Wallace. The chapel was filled with mourning friends, among them in attendance being members of the board of education, and various teachers who have been associated with Prof. Toronto.

Scheme on Foot to Start a Co-operative Society in This City
Along the Lines of Those in Vogue in Great Britain.

There is a movement on foot in this city among some thirty or more residents and business men to establish a general co-operative society along the lines of those which have been in successful operation in England for some years past.
The scheme is to limit the purchasing of goods at the institution to stockholders, who will likewise share in the profits of the enterprise.
In order to arrive at the sentiment of people interested in the matter a public meeting has been called for eight p. m. on Monday evening in the hall over Ferguson's music store on East Temple street, where the enterprise will be discussed in all its bearings.

SNOWDEN OUT ON BOND.

Richfield Dentist Released From His Cell in the County Jail This Morning.

W. E. Snyder and Gideon Snyder of Park City Are Bondsmen in Sum of $1,500.

C. R. Snowden, the Richfield dentist whose case is pending on appeal in the Supreme court, was released this morning from the county jail where he has been confined since June 27th, subsequent to his surrender by his bondsmen. Snowden owes his release to the fact that W. E. Snyder and Gideon Snyder of Park City, this morning entered as bondsmen for him in the sum of $1,500. Snowden, it will be recalled, was found guilty of the crime of adultery committed in this city with one Audrey Kester, also of Richfield, and was on April 27th, sentenced by Judge Norrell to three years' imprisonment in the State prison. Pending an appeal from the judgment Lewis S. Hills and Wm. W. Riter entered as bondsmen for the convicted man, to later surrender his person to the sheriff.

HER LOVE FAILED NOT.
Marries the Man She Was Engaged to Despite His Physical Injuries.

A marriage ceremony was performed at De Lamar, Nevada, last Friday when John Corbick and a young lady, a waitress in a hotel at that place were the contracting parties.

There is nothing in that bit of information to create surprise or comment, if nothing further concerning the affair were known. It will be remembered that about six weeks ago an explosion occurred in the April Pool mine, and the strong manly form of Jack Corbick was literally torn to pieces. He was brought to Salt Lake and conveyed to the Holy Cross hospital, with the full expectation of returning him in a coffin. A broken and bleeding heart was left behind, the little waitress in the hotel, who had kissed him good bye forever as she thought. By some inscrutable means the man began to recover, and last week was discharged from the hospital, blind, one hand gone, the other so badly injured that he is practically useless, and his body otherwise impaired.
But the love of a true woman was demonstrated in this case will cling as long as there is anything left to cling to.
There are Nellie Grey's whose love departs when the physical beauty is inspired, but there are others whose love is linked to the spirit and not to the body of the one they adore.
Mr. and Mrs. Corbick will live at De Lamar.

OLD FOLKS AT THE LAKE.
Members of Granite Stake Spend a Pleasant Day.

The Mutual Improvement Association of the Granite Stake tendered an excursion to the old folks of the Stake to Saltair yesterday, and everybody seemed to enjoy the day immensely. Speeches were made by President Frank Y. Taylor and Congressman King and others, and splendid programs of sports were given in the afternoon. There were ten persons present who were over 60 years of age, each of whom were presented with a ton of coal, three sacks of flour, two dresses, a pair of stockings, a pair of gold cuff buttons, a box of soap, pair of silk suspenders, three pair of men's hose, a knife, one dozen silver spoons, a handkerchief, a cup and saucer and $5 in money.
The people quite enjoyed the excursion, and the ladies' potato race. There were seventeen inmates of the county infirmary present. Mrs. Whitney, the superintendent, had them in the evening, and the ladies' committee for their comfort and pleasure. The Rapid Transit company placed a special car at her disposal in going and coming from the lake.
The lake was also visited yesterday by the Utah county Sunday schools and M. I. A., which numbered about 1,000. The three oldest persons at the beach were Nathan Tanner, aged 81, W. N. Cook, aged 81, and Mrs. Eliza Paxon, aged 88.

AMUSEMENTS.
Nearly every one concerned was surprised to see a large and brilliant summer audience at the Theatre last night. The promoters of the concert in aid of the Orphan Home and Day Nursery had kept the matter so confidentially among themselves, that it was feared the evening might turn out a "front," but though no printed matter was put out, a vigorous private canvass was made so that the success of the affair was assured in advance. Knowing how difficult it is to procure Salt Lake audiences for a musical entertainment on the merits of the program alone, this was perhaps the wisest course. The various numbers of the evening were arranged by Mr. H. S. Goddard and as no enclosures were allowed, the program was pushed through by 10 o'clock and proved thoroughly enjoyable. Messrs. Zypor, Whitney, Ensign and Spencer opened and closed the concert. The first number of "Sally in our Alley" being best received; Mr. Goddard had a big welcome for his fine singing of the "Two Grenadiers"; the talented pianist, Prof. Anderson, was down for two numbers and his enraptured execution was greatly applauded; Miss Harrington, of Ogden, made her debut and showed herself the possessor of a full, clear and beautiful soprano voice. Mr. Goddard made one of the most positive hits of the night, Mr. Clive, in his violin solo, was another, and both were called back to make their bows. Miss Arvilla Clarke emphasized the impression she has already made. It was her first appearance at the theatre but her rich, soft, contralto filled every part of the building. Her number, "O, for a Bird of Song," was enthusiastically received. Mr. Ashworth was in his best voice and the same can be said of Miss Barrow, who sang "The Swallowtail" as sweetly as she has done anything before the public. Schubert's majestic song, "The King" was feelingly rendered by Prof. Lund. Messrs. Anderson and Lund W. Riter entered as bondsmen for the convicted man, to later surrender his person to the sheriff.

The scheme which had its successful origin in Rochdale, England, has grown to big proportions in Great Britain until today there is hardly a town or city in Albion's Isle that has not its co-operative institution, while the Civil Service and Army and Navy stores in London, which are operated upon the same lines, are universally known as being among the largest department concerns in England today. Under this co-operation the stores are enabled to undersell all competitors while the stockholders not only get their commodities cheaper, but at the same time pocket dividends every quarter.
Those who are behind the scheme, today expressed themselves as being sanguine in regard to the outcome of the project, which if successfully floated will be the only one of this character in the West, if not in America.

Great preparations are being made at Walker's field for the San Juan Hill exhibition there by the Paine's Fireworks company on Monday evening.

TWO DEATHS AT DE LAMAR
One is Asphyxiated, the Other Has His Skull Crushed.

William Sloan, a young man employed at the April Pool mine at De Lamar, met his death in the mine last Tuesday. He was engaged in painting the inside of one of the large cyanide tanks. There was a quantity of cyanide solution in the tank, which he had poured enough to wash a few hours to kill him. His lifeless form was found lying on the bottom of the tank. Sloan came from Dublin, Ireland, three years ago and was employed a short time by the firm of James and George Nesbitt, merchants at De Lamar.

Another death occurred at De Lamar on Tuesday. The victim was James J. O'Brien, 35 years of age, who was a cave-in in the De Lamar mine where he was employed. He was working underground and a bank of rock and gravel fell upon him, crushing his head and body. He was married and was buried at De Lamar.

YOUTHFUL BURGLARS.
Yesterday afternoon Officers Sperry and Davies arrested two boys named George Robinson, aged 14 years, and Willie Corbick, aged 15 years, on the charge of burglary. The officers were in possession of the firm of James and George Nesbitt, merchants at De Lamar.

CONFERENCE APPOINTMENTS
President Snow Will Go to Brigham City—President Cannon to Syracuse.

At the meeting of the Apostles Thursday President Snow decided to attend the Eastern Stake conference next Saturday and Sunday. The people at the old home of the venerable leader will be overjoyed at this indication of his health and the privilege they will have of hearing him speak again. It was also decided that President George Q. Cannon is to attend a special meeting at Syracuse next Sunday.

President Snow will be accompanied to Brigham City by Apostle Tullidge, Clawson and Smoot, who will also attend the conference.
Apostle Brigham Young was appointed to attend the San Juan conference, while Apostle John Grant and John W. Taylor were appointed to attend the Granite Stake conference, Saturday and Sunday next.

WATER EXCHANGE.
The board acting for the farmers who have water rights in Parley's creek and the city held a meeting yesterday afternoon at which the second and last appointment for this year of water from the Jordan canal in exchange for the waters of Parley's creek was made. The land and water commissioner set the water for the farmers at the amount of one-third of the amount of water from the canal that was received by them at the opening of the season. This increases the flow into the city and does not work any hardship upon the farmers as their crop is out of the way and will not suffer from the diminished flow.

Land and Water Commissioner Wesley Field sold today that the flow from Parley's creek was getting very low and that many of its feeders were running dry.

WHEN WANAMAKER WAS POOR.
With Nathan Brown, his brother-in-law, John Wanamaker, in April 1881, rented the store at the southeast corner of Sixth and Market streets, and purchased a small stock of clothing and furnishing goods. The partners had a capital of only three thousand five hundred dollars. They could not afford a horse and wagon, so John purchased a two-wheeled pushcart and delivered his first order himself. The profits of that first day's business amounted to just thirty-six dollars. The young partners invested every cent of it in an advertisement in the Philadelphia Inquirer next day—August Success.

AN HONEST CONFESSION.
Emilie Schaumburg never attempted a thing for which she had no special talent, but having once undertaken a study she pursued it with enthusiasm, following its every detail to the limit of her capacity. To an admirer, who once exclaimed—

"Is there anything in the world you cannot do, and do brilliantly?" she replied simply, "I can't do anything but study." Yes, I was a dismal failure at both sewing and arithmetic.—Virginia Tappan Peacock in the July "New Lippincott."

TRIALS OF A DEBUTANTE.

"Her father and mother and two brothers had coached and advised and criticized her to the degree that she couldn't cross a room without tripping, and she simply felt lost and alone. She couldn't even speak grammatically. Once there was a Mr. Armat, immensely clever, brought up and introduced to her, who remarked casually, 'I was at So-and-so's last night, and what do you suppose she said?' 'Was you?' Upon which he simply stared and never came near her again. She probably taking it for granted she couldn't make herself understood in English. Just fancy—'was you?'—Edna Olive Kirk in the July "New Lippincott."

A Minister's Good Work.
"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them for three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so he declared he would go to bed and stay there until morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No, I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not feel better, but he took no more. He died the next morning. I think if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he would have been cured. I think it the best medicine I have ever tried.'"

For Over Fifty Years
Mrs. W. W. W. Scott's story has been used for children's books. It is a story of a child who, after a long illness, was cured by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is the best remedy for biliousness. 25 cents a bottle.
