Two Grand Performances.—The them on that occasion as prices of the fine old English comedy to be as well worth seeing. The final rehearsal of "Ours," the brilliant, military comedy which will be given as a matinee on Monday afternoon, was held last night, and went off in a manner to predict an amusing and very creditable entertainment. The cast will remain as before, with the exception of the part of "Serjeant Jones," which is to be taken by Mr. John D. White, who, it is needless to say, will do it full justice. The Careless Orchestra will render some of their fine selections, and with the assistance of the Crexall, and Beczley bands, furnish all the music of both pieces:

Families, and the public generally was and cars, and five open ones for the covered ones for the more feeble and advanced in years, and the open ones for those whose health and vigor will not suffer by a ride in the open air, but actually be benefit, and vigor will not suffer by a ride in the open air, but actually be benefit, and vigor will not suffer by a ride in the open air, but actually be benefit, and vigor will not suffer by a ride in the open air, but actually be benefit, and vigor will not suffer by a ride in the open air, but actually be benefit, and vigor will not suffer by a ride in the open air, but actually be benefit.

The Committee are actively engaged in making every possible arrangement for the comfort and safety of all who may participate in the Fifth Annual Old Folks Excursion, and in addition to those from Grantsville, (kindly offered for the occasion) will also be there to fraternize with those from this City.

In addition to the above, the 7th Ward string band, under the leader-

Families, and the public generally should not fail to be present at the matinee, and everybody should see "Extremes? at night. The box office opened this morning for the sale of tickets to both performances, and the prospects are such as to indicate that they will be well patronized. Secure seats at once.

What Might Be Expected .- The Logan Leader says:

"On Moday last Mr. Fred Smith, a young man residing in Logan, was painfully injured by being thrown from a horse. He had been riding down the lane west of this city, when another party, also on horse-back, met him and gave a banter for a race. The challenge was accepted and the horses were started off at a break neck speed. After a long stretch of road had been traversed, the horse which had the lead, stumbled and fell to the ground. the from the suddros, and many stumbled and fell to the ground. The animal ridden by young Smith which was in the rear, plunged headlong over the prostrate rider and horse, and Smith was thrown on the earth with great violence. His shoulders were bruised and his side badly hurt, but it is probable that no very serious injuries were sustained."

All we have to say is, that it is a wonder more persons are not hurt or killed by such foolish exhibitions of recklessness and lack of

Washington, D. C., June 26, 1880

Editors Descret News: Nothing but good is said of Gen. Hancock here, by republicans and democrats, and the general conviction is that his candidacy will ensure the most active campaign since 1860. At any rate, both sides are proud of their candidates, and express confidence in victory and a determination to fight for it. Among republican leaders here the general ppinion is that, while the nomina-tion of Hancock is strong upon his war record, it is weak upon the great questions of policy that will govern the campaign. The democrats on the other hand are jubilant from the fact, as they believe it, that the "bloody shirt" cannot be swung over the head of Hancock. This is very true. But the republicans say they have thrown over the "bloody shirt" as a leading issue, long ago.

The campaign will be a tight one, and both sides will fight hard. Congress failed to take any action Free Hand Drawing.—One of the last specimens of work in India the have therefore no clearly defined grievance against Great Britain or the Dominion under that this morning. It is a portrait doubt, but Congress will have to doubt, but Congress will have to formulate the charges. In the matter of Vernor, the Canadian weather proportions, by Mr. Paul Hamase, well known in this community. What makes the work more valuable and admirable, is the fact that the enlargement, instead of being some with an instrument, as in the case of solar prints, was done entirely for and, the artist depending solely was his eye and artistic talent as in enlargy drawing.
