BREVITIES.

A "draw-back"—a blister.
An order of discharge—"Fire."
The olive is doing well in Australia.
Bismarck eats opium by advice of physicians.
Leont, Eugenie's hairdresser, receives $1,000 salary.
That spot on the sun is 55,000 miles long.
Banana trees in Florida are bending to the earth with fruit.
The Davenport brothers have returned to Buffalo, wealthy.
The Government cemeteries have lost $50,000.
"Puff-blower" is a neologism for preacher that is neither pretty nor funny.
A Brooklynite killed himself to escape a mother-in-law.
Basle, in Switzerland, boasts of a newspaper nearly 200 years old.
Augustin Iturbide keeps a beer shop in Paris.
Hansmann has received imperial honors. An attempt to assassinate him has been made.
A Chicago paper advertises the ceremonies at a church under the head of "Amusements."
It is nothing serious against a farmer to say that he is a little rakish—about saying time.
The latest Kentucky wonder is a dog that has hatched and is rearing a brood of chickens.
Paris has no steam fire engines, and its hand engines are old-fashioned and scarcely managed.
An autograph letter of Washington to Henry Laurens sold for about $50 in London recently.
The introduction of startling French fashions is making the fortune of the London music halls.
Forty-two miles of board fence encloses a farm of 13,000 acres in Illinois, which is subdivided by 70 miles of fence.
At Memphis, a forger was recently executed because the note he forged did not bear the requisite Government stamp.
Fashion's latest novelty is a necklace of black velvet, fitting tightly to the throat, and on which are seen small gold or gilt bells.
Patti appears on the play bills as the "Maid of Caux." Her husband is not so silly as to be ashamed of his wife's business.
Mrs. Persimmons regards with concern the increase of the cattle plague, and sympathetically wonders if her husband will escape it.
Timber, it is stated, rendered fireproof by impregnating it with silicates, is used extensively in Germany for flooring planks, doors, and staircases.
The Revolution is discussing the question, "Have not women the same right to have paramours that men have to keep mistresses?" Miss Shoddy—"Lor, I'm so dull!
What—'Nothing at all. I'm envious to death!" Mrs. Shoddy—"Well, ring the bell for John. We'll have the cook up, and scold her—just to kill time." A watchmaker of Paris has just turned out a watch for the Sultan, price one million francs. There is a diamond at the back, nearly as large as a walnut.
Prussia is exercised about the number of French "artists" whose devotion to the picturesque leads them to sketch about the Rhine towns and fortifications.
A quarter-inch bar of iron was thrust through the under eye-lid of Martin Whitons, of Granville, Mass., recently, crushing the socket bones of the eye two inches in his head. The injury did his eye no hurt.
The residents at the foot of Lookout Mountain, Tennessee, have left, as the mountain is crumbling and falling down. A 500-ton clod fell off the other day, and gravel stones as large as churches roll down.
In Tippah, Miss., recently, an eagle swooped down upon some playing school children, took an eight-year-old boy named James Kennedy to the clouds, when the weight probably proved too much for the bird, and the boy was dropped and dashed to pieces on the ground.
A ballet girl in the Notre Dame theatre at Milan, caught her clothes on fire at the footlights one recent evening, and ran against the curtain, set it, and by it the theatre on fire. Actors and audience all escaped, but the building was ashes in 20 minutes, and the manager, losing everything by the fire, cut his throat the next morning.
The business men of Great Britain have organized mutual protective societies throughout the United Kingdom for supplying commercial information, collecting debts and other matters.
These societies now possess 2,500 branches, and number about 20,300 members, for whom, during the last year, 77,006 inquiries have been made, $4,700 applied for, and $1,150,000 collected, besides other assistance rendered.
Pleasure is to woman what the sun is to the flower, it moderately enjoyed, it beautifies, it refreshes, and it improves; if immoderately, it withers, desolates, and destroys. But the duties of domestic life exercised as they must be in retirement, and calling forth all the sensibilities of the female, are perhaps, as necessary to the full development of her charms, as the shade and shower are to the rose, confirming its beauty, and increasing its fragrance.
