He chased them and almost caught up with them, but they ran down Sec-ond avenue turned into a lane and were lost in the darkness at Third avenue. This is the second time Mr. Rogers house has been visited by the same gang. Many complaints of late have reached The News regarding the acts of the hoodiums in committing thefts on First, Second and third avenues, and thereabouts. The mat-ter has been reported to the police, who have a good notion of the identi-ty of some of them. Such unfortunate acts if continued, can only land the youthful participants behind the bars of a jall, and parents whose boys are out after nightfall cannot be too strongly warned to keep posted on their doings. strongly was their doings.
