

THREE MEN BOSS CITY OFFICIALS

Seifrit - Crabtree - Darmer Outfit Dictate to the Council Its Course of Action.

TWO MEMBERS HAVE LEFT.

Lippman and Snyder Drew Out of "Advisory Board" When It Grew Too Offensive Even for Them.

Smarting under the accusation made by the "American" party organ that he had accepted a bribe from Jake Moritz of the Salt Lake brewery to fight the administration which was attempting to punish the breweries, Councilman Louis D. Martin disclosed the plot behind the report of the license committee showing that the "American" party is dominated by Frank I. Seifrit, manager of the Tribune, C. J. Crabtree, formerly a councilman, and J. E. Darmer, an attorney, who constitute an advisory board. Under the present regime, the council and the mayor do the bidding of the advisory board which handles every important question that comes up and dictates every policy. Even the squabbles that arise between the councilmen are referred to the advisory committee, who are not public officials. This state of affairs has existed in the city government ever since the "American" party took office. The officials elected are mere puppets and have no voice in the policy, the city carries out.

TWO MEMBERS DROP OUT.

This committee at first consisted of five members. Besides the three mentioned, Joseph Lippman and William I. Snyder belonged to the board. Snyder dropped out because the methods of Seifrit and Crabtree were too offensive to him. Lippman followed several months later because even he was unable to sit with such an advisory board. This left the members to dictate the policy which has been followed by the city. In the organ of this "August" party, yesterday morning Martin was accused of flashing a $100 bill and boasting that he had "seen somebody" and that he was going to fight the license committee to a finish. Martin said this morning that he had written an open letter to the party organ and that Frank I. Seifrit refused to print it and make a retraction of the charges of accepting a bribe. "I would begin a suit for libel against the paper,"

When Martin discussed the matter last night he said that when he learned that the advisory committee had hatched up a plot to punish the breweries for failing to support the "American" party that he demanded that the saloonmen be given a hearing or he would fight them. Darmer, who says that there was something suspicious about Martin and the $100 bill, admitted to Martin before several persons in the council chamber last night, that the accused councilman had demanded a hearing on the saloon men.

MARTIN AND MORITZ.

Martin says he went to Moritz when he heard of the deal the advisory committee had compelled the license committee to consent to. Moritz and Martin are friends of long standing. Martin was the architect and builder of the Salt Lake Brewery and since then they have been close friends on political matters.

Martin says that the advisory committee made demands on the breweries some time ago. Moritz told them to go to—yes he went the whole length of the expression in box-car letters—Martin says. Since then this Seifrit-Crabtree and Darmer "board" has "had it in" for the breweries. In the following statement authorized by Martin, he explains the situation from his standpoint.

"If there isn't a retraction of that dirty insinuation, and a proper one, there will be something doing 'round these diggings. Mark my word."

"The inner circle have been trying to read me out of the 'American' party ever since the Devine matter came up."

BABY'S ITCHING WAS INTOLERABLE

Girl of Six Months had Fearful Attack of Eczema—Spread All Over Her Face and Eyes Began to Swell—Scratched Till Blood Came—Relieved in a Night and

CURED BY CUTICURA AFTER LONG SUFFERING

"When my little girl was six months old I noticed small red spots on her right cheek. I did not pay any attention to them but finally the spots grew so large that I sent for the doctor who said it was ringworm. He prescribed an ointment which I used for two weeks, but instead of helping the eruption, the ointment seemed to make it worse. Then I went to a second doctor who after examining the baby said it was eczema. He also gave me an ointment which did not help either. The disease in the meantime spread all over the face and the eyes began to swell. I became very anxious. The itching grew intolerable. I had to tie the baby's hands to the cradle to prevent her scratching. The cheeks were covered with blood and it was a terrible sight to see. I consulted doctors from September to December, but they were unable to cure the baby. I paid out from twenty to thirty dollars without relief."

One of my friends told me of the Cuticura Remedies and I sent at once for a set which I began to use that evening. The next morning the baby's face was all white instead of red and you can imagine how surprised I was. I cannot find words enough to praise Cuticura and I do not know what would have become of my baby only for it. I used the Cuticura Remedies until the eczema entirely disappeared. The child is now three years old and quite well. I used three boxes of Cuticura Soap, two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and one bottle of Cuticura Resolvent and I never used any other soap. I always recommend them whenever there is a chance for it. I will send you one of her pictures which she had taken just after she was healed. Mrs. P. E. Gumbin, Sheldon, Ia., July 13, 1908.

Cuticura Soap (25c), Ointment (50c), Resolvent (50c), and Cuticura Cured Pills (25c), are sold everywhere. Write for Cuticura Book and Free Trial. Sole Agents, 127 Columbia Ave., Boston.

Now I tell you that I refuse to be read out of the party. I don't believe in "my" politics by a crowd, and I refuse to give up my opinions or knuckle down to any set of self-appointed leaders. I showed them where I stood in the Devine affair and I'll show them where I stand on this license business and every other question that I have my suspicions about and they try to cram down my neck."

THE HUNDRED DOLLAR BILL.

"I'll tell about that meeting yesterday and that hundred dollar bill. I got word of what was going on yesterday morning and I telephoned Crabtree that I wanted to be heard on the saloon license matter. He told me there was to be a meeting Wednesday afternoon, and I made it a point to be there. Besides the members of the license committee who were present, there were Seifrit, Judge Darmer and C. J. Crabtree. I guess they were pretty much surprised to see me."

"When they pulled out their list of applicants for saloon licenses I noticed that they had marked among the brewery controlled saloons Conto & Maffeo, 37 South Temple. I stood on this place to know all about this particular place. Five or six months ago complaint was made about the people who were then running the place about selling liquor on Sunday. The place was closed up and afterward changed hands. The owner of the property came to me and asked me to look at the building with a view of ascertaining whether or not the structure would stand an additional story in which case he said he had an opportunity to sell. I found that it would, and the sale was made. The additional story is finished, all except the plastering."

"The saloon people have invested $18,500 in the enterprise. They own the ground, the building, a big stock and the fixtures. That they should be marked 'brewery owned' was a stunner for me, and I figured that if this kind of business was going on with reference to that particular place, there doubtless must be others.

HEARING IS ASKED.

"At first they had 37 marked for rejection. Finally I got that cut to 21, but not without fighting for every inch. At the end, I said that I would be satisfied with the report, provided that the proprietors or representatives of the 24 whose licenses were held up be given an opportunity to appear next Monday night and show that they are entitled to licenses, and that they be given an opportunity to refute any charges that might be brought against them. This was specifically understood to be made a part of the report. I don't think there was any question about that part of it. All I wanted was to give these men a chance to be heard."

"The fact of the matter is that there was a big scheme on foot to rush the report through, and having the chief of police notify the 24 that they need not appear there this morning, as the council had denied their applications for licenses. It would have amounted to nothing short of a confiscation; that's what it would have been, and I wouldn't stand to see any man robbed of a chance to fight for his life. There are a lot of good men among the 24, and if anyone says there is anything wrong about their places it won't do any harm to give them a chance to prove their honesty—not grab a man's property and his means of making a living."

THAT BILL AGAIN.

"Now, about that hundred-dollar bill. Yes, I had a hundred-dollar bill, and the people who were in the meeting saw it. I got the bill in a perfectly legitimate transaction, and it was in partial payment of a debt that has been owing me for a year. Yesterday I got a telephone message from the west side, from Mrs. Dora Topham's agent, that there was some money over there for me, and I went over to get it. They gave me $150 in currency instead of a check, as it was after banking hours. There was a hundred-dollar bill and five tens. When we were in the meeting Sam Godman, the license collector, came in with our checks. We signed the city pay roll, and I opened my pocketbook to put the check in. Godman saw the hundred-dollar bill and made a facetious remark to the effect that he would like to have a few of the same kind. I then pulled the bill out and made some sort of a remark in a joking way. That is all there was to the hundred-dollar bill incident."

"The money was due me, and I gave a receipt for it, which receipt is probably in Mrs. Topham's safe. The money was in part payment for a lot of work I did in drawing plans, making estimates and the like for Mrs. Topham."

DISTINCT STEP IN ADVANCE

(Auburn, N. Y., Daily Citizen.)

Chronic Bright's Disease may have been an incurable disease in the past, but it is certainly curable now. M. L. Walley, the druggist, tells us of a remarkable recovery in this city. There was no question about the genuineness of the case. The patient, a lady, is connected with one of our prominent families. She was in a hospital swollen with dropsy, and the albumen was in such enormous quantities as to solidify in the tube.

Death was expected daily by the physician and family, when she was put on a specific from California that was alleged to be curing Bright's Disease in that State. The results created great astonishment. Symptoms began to subside, and recovery was then gradual till finally complete. The patient has since actually passed for insurance.

The peculiarity of the treatment is that it does not seem to wear out, the patient in question taking over eighty bottles. The discoverer of the new specific is said to be a lineal descendant of Dr. J. C. Watson, who gave us the first steamship—Auburn, N. Y., Daily Citizen.

Another recovery by Fulton's Renal Compound in Auburn is Mrs. R. Lester Bell.

When to suspect Bright's Disease—weakness or loss of weight; dropsy; puffiness ankles, hands or eyelids; kidney trouble after dinner; thirst; urine may show sediment; failing vision; drowsiness; one or more of these. If you have any of these, send for pamphlet.—F. J. Hill Drug Co.

was devoted to instructing people how to spray for the codlin moth larvae and how to operate the spraying outfits to best advantage. During the latter part of the month, pear blight and woolly aphis and other pests engaged our attention. One of the most destructive pests is a new one to this locality; it is called the strawberry blight, weevil or crown girdler. In our best strawberry fields in East Mill Creek and other places the damage has been great and threatens a total destruction of all strawberry plants that are over two years old. I have visited many of the fields infested and have consulted with owners and deputy inspectors regarding what is best to do, but so far the only effective remedy seems to be to plow up and destroy the fields, as the bugs that do the damage burrow from two to four inches in the ground and eat and destroy the tender roots and the plants will die.

All fields over two years old seem to be subject to this pest and in many places several fields from two to five acres in extent are completely destroyed and will have to be plowed up.

BIG PROFIT ON KEEL RANCH.

Guard of Bingham evidently has an eye to business. Less than a year ago, he had some dealings with the local State bank whereby he secured parts of sections 22, 25, 26, 27 and 34, township 3 south, range 2 west, for the equivalent of $15,000. He now sells the same property to the Fort Herriman Stock and Land company for a little less than $33,000. The property is known as the Keel Ranch, and is located just below Bingham canyon.

Anty Drudge Prescribes for a Cold.

Mrs. Neverlearn—"My head feels like a steamed pudding, my cold is worse, I'm sick all over and all this washing yet to do."

Anty Drudge—"Yes, I saw the doctor's buggy here last Monday evening and that's the reason I came this morning. Here is a cake of Fels-Naptha. Throw away that washbowl, let your fire go out, and do your washing the Fels-Naptha way. It will give your cold a chance to get well and you'll forget what the doctor looks like for a change."

"A cold in the Spring is a cold all Summer" says an old proverb. A fine way to catch cold in the Spring and keep it for months is to boil your clothes on washday and bend over steaming suds. The steam heats you up and opens the pores in your skin, and cooling off gives you a cold.

The way to avoid colds is to wash your clothes with Fels-Naptha soap in cold or lukewarm water. Saves you hard work, fuel and bother, and your clothes are cleaner, fresher and sweeter than when washed in the old-fashioned, wash-boiler way. A million women use Fels-Naptha every week. Washday has no terrors for them. Be sure to follow directions on the red and green wrapper.

Fels-Naptha has no equal for scrubbing and house-cleaning. It whitens floors, takes dirt off woodwork without dulling the varnish and does lots of other things impossible with other soaps.
