MILLIONAIRE ARMOUR COMING.

By Telegraph to the NEWS.]

Catholic University in Washington.

BALTIMORE, March 21.—The Sun has the following cablegram from Rome: As anticipated, the Pope to-day approved the plan of the new Catholic university which is to be located in Washington. By his instruction the secretary of the propaganda waited upon him with a brief, fully, heartily and emphatically endorsing the project. The matter of location, as in other respects, the Pope confidently defers to the judgment of the bishops, and places the institution directly and forever under the sole jurisdiction of the American hierarchy. In the text of the brief are used enthusiastic terms of indorsement in the same spirit and language of the Pope on the occasion of the reception of the cardinals after Thursday's consistory, namely: "It is the pride of our pontificate and the glory of the church in America." The brief will be signed by the Pontiff next week. Bishops Ireland and Keane are delighted at this manifestation of cordial approval and will leave for America as soon as the brief is received.

WASHINGTON WAIFS.

More Fish—The President in Danger, etc.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Among the tasks which the commission has set for itself, to be undertaken immediately, is that of attempting to repeople our coastal waters with halibut, despite the theory of some eminent scientists that mankind cannot control the appreciable decrease in the food supply of the ocean. The supply of these valuable food fish has been depleted in waters where it was once common and such as remain lurk in depths of from one hundred and fifty to four hundred fathoms. They may be taken with a hook and line, but difficulty is experienced in bringing them from such a depth with enough vitality remaining to make them serviceable to

THE COMMISSION.

The task will require time and careful experimentation. Encouragement, however, is found in the fact that a single venturesome individual of the species has recently been taken in the Lower Potomac, the first instance of the kind known to the commission, with its stomach full of fresh water fish upon which it was to all appearances thriving. An attempt will probably be made to plant halibut in the Chesapeake Bay. The fish commission people have radical notions respecting the fisheries trouble with Canada, and speak in no gentle terms of the efforts of our neighbors to so harass our fishermen as to force a way for their own products into our markets, which, it is declared, is the impelling motive in all their later operations.

Instructions were issued to the assistant treasurers at New York, Philadelphia and Boston to

for one and two dollar silver certificates to-day, and to resume the issue of these notes.

Dr. Z. T. Sowers, one of the most prominent physicians of Washington, in an interview with a reporter to-day, declared there is danger that President Cleveland will not live through his term unless there is a change in his mode of living.

Dr. Sowers, six months before Manning's illness, made the same prediction with regard to the secretary and advised a friend to warn him of his danger. In an interview to-day, Sowers said: "It may be deemed impertinent to talk to the President through a newspaper man, but I know of no way of and those about him so surely. You recall my attempts with friends of Manning's and their fruit, and I do not feel that I should take the same chances in the matter. I am personally apprised of the President's condition, and while it is in no sense dangerous, it will not be long before there will be reason for alarm. President Cleveland is a large, fleshy man, and since he came to the White House has gained enormously in flesh. Now, when he lived in Buffalo, it was his habit to take long walks. Since he came here, however, he has abandoned every exercise save carriage riding. That is of little or no use with the springs now in use and the smooth streets for which Washington is famous.

THE PRESIDENT

is a man who works with his heads a great deal; is, in fact, an intense brain worker. He was, in other words, a plodder, and his brain is consequently filled with an excess of blood. What is the result? He works with his head, eats enormously and fails to exercise his muscles. His blood vessels are weakened, and it is only a question of time when in a moment of excitement he bursts a blood-vessel. I tell you at the rate President Cleveland is now living, there is great danger that he will not live throughout his term. Something should be done to bring him to realize his danger and take the proper steps to prevent a result which will surely ensue if he fails to take the proper exercise. What I should recommend would be the fixing up of a room in the

and the setting apart of half an hour every day for gymnastic exercise. That alone, in my opinion, will prevent a catastrophe the avoidance of which not only the President, but the country at large is interested in securing."

The issue of standard silver dollars from the mints during the week ended March 19th was $106,806; during the corresponding period of last year, $416,450.

The shipment of fractional silver coin since March 1st amounts to $232,038.

THE ACTING SECRETARY of the treasury has appointed the following store keepers and gaugers: Ashby B. Medford at Jeffersonville, Kentucky; Thomas Rodman, Jr., at Frankfort, Kentucky; Michael Crotty at Cincinnati, Ohio, and Thomas M. Sharp in Nicholas County, Kentucky.

The President appointed Thomas Haydon United States District Attorney for Nevada this afternoon.

The Treasury Department has taken adverse action on the application of the officers of the "Ho Wong" joss house of San Francisco, a society established for alleged for the free entry of the figure of a dragon representing God, or Joss Ho Wong. The figure is about 150 feet long and is composed of paper, silk, metal, glass, feathers, tinsel and goats' hair. The application is based on the provisions of the law for the free entry of "philosophical and scientific apparatus, statuary, paintings, drawings," etc., and for "regalia and gems, statues and specimens of sculpture, where specially imported in good faith for the use of any society incorporated or established for religious purposes." The department held that the image is not included in the list of articles above mentioned, and is therefore not entitled to free entry.

Father Kelleher is allowed to celebrate mass daily in his cell. He is also allowed to receive visitors for half an hour and read the newspapers sent to him. Various donors send him articles with which to furnish his cell.

FATHER KELLEHER

telegraphed to friends at Youghals that he is in excellent health and spirits.

Father Ryan, of the Herbertstown branch league, has been summoned to give evidence in a case similar to that in which Father Kelleher was summoned. Father Ryan announces that he has determined to go to prison rather than give evidence.

The Star to-night says: "Colonel Lamont admitted to-day that the President had decided upon three of the five inter-state commissioners, but said it was not proper to say anything about the men selected. The selection of the other two is in abeyance. He said there is every reason to suppose that the names selected are as heretofore announced—Morrison, Bragg and Cooley.

Intimidating a Grand Jury.

RICHMOND, March 21.—Mr. Wm. L. Royall, counsel for the English council of foreign bondholders, and representing their affairs in connection with the Virginia debt, was to-day convicted in Hastings court of intimidating the grand jury of that court and was fined $150. This case is the result of information filed last month against Royall by the commonwealth's attorney, who charged that at the January term of court, because the grand jury presented indictments against Royall for lariatry, he (Royall) instituted suits against the individual members of the grand jury for $10,000 damages each, claimed because of their action in bringing in the indictments. Furthermore, Royall was charged through the press and otherwise, that he would sue every grand juror who in the future should indict either him or his clients for acts done in alleged violation of the law under which he had already been indicted, and that in pursuance of that threat, he (Royall) had attempted to intimidate and impede the grand jury appointed for the February term, so that they had declined to bring an indictment against him for fear of suits for damages. Mr. Royall refuses to pay the fine, and is held in custody and will probably sleep in jail to-night. He will apply for a writ of habeas corpus.

Home Rule.

NEW YORK, March 21.—A mass meeting was held in Cooper Union to-night to protest against the enactment of the proposed coercion measure for Ireland by the English Parliament. The meeting was held under the auspices of the municipal council of the Irish National League. Chas. A. Dana, editor of the Sun, acted as chairman. Samuel J. Randall was among the speakers. Roscoe Conkling sent a letter expressing sentiments appropriate to the occasion. The resolutions passed quote "England's greatest statesmen" in saying that force is no remedy, and declaring that home rule in the establishment of a parliament to deal directly with is the only basis of a statement of the Irish question. The resolutions tender sympathy and promise support to Gladstone and Parnell, and encourage them to oppose coercion. The resolutions are to be sent to the two leaders and also the tory leader, Lord Salisbury.

The following cablegram was sent to Gladstone:

"The citizens of New York, in mass-meeting assembled, protest against coercion, heartily endorse your noble policy and wish you God speed in your undertaking.

"CHAS. A. DANA."

NEW YORK, March 21.—Abraham Kling, counsel for a number of the creditors of the missing Walter E. Lawton, the guano magnate, made the first estimate to-day that has been attempted of how much the creditors will receive out of the wreck. The attachments reach a total of $500,701. Kling thinks the assets will be about $400,000, and assumes that the creditors will receive about 75 per cent of their claims. He considers Lawton's Cattail Island the principal asset, but this already has $1,250,000 worth of mortgages. It is expected that a legal battle to determine which of the various mortgages on the island shall take precedence, will be one of the interesting complications that is certain to arise out of this mysterious affair.

The Dry Goods Men.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The dry goods trade held a meeting to-day which was prompted by a recent notification from the Trunk line representatives that on and after April 1st a new classification for dry goods would go into effect. Resolutions were adopted in which it was stated that the new classification would increase the cost of freight fifty per cent. on every important line of low-priced domestic fabrics. A committee will act for the trade in protests to the railroads, and, if necessary, to the inter-state commerce commission and the United States courts.

Armour Coming.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—P. D. Armour and party of friends, who have been sojourning on the coast for several weeks, left here to-day on their special car on their return to Chicago. They will stay at Sacramento to-night, leaving there early to-morrow morning, so as to cross the Sierra Nevada in daylight. They will leave their car at Ogden and make a diversion to Salt Lake, then return to Ogden, and then proceed to Cheyenne, where they will branch off to Denver, and from there proceed to Chicago. All the members of the party are greatly pleased with their visit to California.

Raiding the Heathen.

PHILADELPHIA, March 21.—Lieutenant Walton, of the south police district, with a squad of twenty-four officers, last night raided six of the Chinese gambling places, and succeeded in capturing two-hundred and thirty-three Chinamen together with a large quantity of gambling paraphernalia, opium smoking outfits and other fixtures. All the places raided are in the neighborhood of Ninth and Race streets, and the vicinity is the rendezvous of most of the entire Chinese population on Sunday. The fact of gambling having been carried on so openly, and the noise raised by such a large congregation of Celestials, has been the source of

to the authorities, and upon these warrants were sworn out and placed in the hands of the Sixth District officers with the result above stated. In one house alone, on Race Street, a two-story structure, ninety-seven people were captured, and in others various numbers from sixty down. The prisoners were given a hearing later in the night, when the proprietors were held to bail on the charges of keeping gambling houses, and the inmates held to keep the peace.

Reagan's Successor.

NEW ORLEANS, March 21.—A Palestine, Texas, dispatch says. The democratic Congressional convention to nominate a successor to Senator Reagan, reassembled this morning and resumed balloting. The deadlock of Saturday remained unbroken throughout the day with a number of crossings and shifting of candidates. Finally amid much enthusiasm on the two hundred and seventy-second ballot to-night, Wm. H. Martin was nominated by unanimous vote.

ROME, March 21.—A special delegate sent by the Vatican to convey its congratulations to Emperor William on the attainment of his 90th birthday tomorrow, telegraphs from Berlin that he has been very favorably received, and that he has had an audience with the Emperor in order to personally present to him the autograph congratulation sent by the Pope.

EMPEROR WILLIAM.

Enthusiastic Demonstrations in His Honor.

BERLIN, March 21.—This evening between 3,000 and 4,000 students, bearing flags, banners and torches, formed a procession and marched to the palace. The line extended from the palace to the opera house. When the procession arrived at the palace the Emperor and Empress appeared at the second window on the ground floor. President Muenick, of the students' committee, rode up to the window of their majesties, who with the Grand Duchess of Baden rose and bowed. Muenick called for cheers for the Emperor, for the victorious commander in glorious battles, for the beloved for the author of the union of the German races, for the defender of the frontiers of the empire, for the guardian of the peace of the world. The applause was tremendous, followed by the singing of the national anthem. The Emperor remained standing with evident gratification. The procession then marched past the palace. The whole scene was most brilliant. The students cheered loudly at Bismarck's palace, where the Chancellor, Count Herbert Bismarck and Count Rantzen were awaiting the procession. In response to the calls of the students, Bismarck opened the window and bowed his thanks. A similar ovation was tendered Von Moltke and the officers of the general's staff. The whole affair was conducted in the most

FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY,

ORDERLY MANNER.

During the procession the Emperor called up several students to express his gratification at the manner of congratulating him. He said he rejoiced greatly in the spirit displayed by them. He expected much from the academy youths of Germany as the circumstances and times were serious. After referring to the dissolution of the Reichstag he questioned many students separately as regarding their birthplace, the studies they pursued, the number of terms they had completed and the corporation in which they belonged.

The Empress also expressed her thanks for the ovations. At 11 o'clock, when the cuirassier regiment came to relieve the guard at the palace, thousands who still remained burst into which continued so long that at last the Emperor came to the window again and thanked the people. His appearance had a magical effect. The cheers were redoubled, the national anthem was again sung, the Emperor waved his hand and disappeared. At the last hour crowds still remained in the vicinity of the palace.

Among the numerous birthday rumors is the report that the Grand Duke of Baden will be made King of Baden, and Bismarck created Duke of Lauenberg.

Bismarck will give a dinner to the embassadors and diplomats and foreign officials, the other imperial secretaries and the chief of staff. To-day most of the schools celebrated the event.

THE PRINCE OF WALES

paid his first visit to their majesties to-day.

The Chinese envoy has informed Emperor William that the presents from the Emperor of China were dispatched too late and have not yet arrived.

The Sultan of Turkey sent numerous presents. The King of Portugal sent a beautiful sword.

Enormous crowds gathered at the imperial palace to watch the evening's events. At nightfall the streets and squares in the vicinity of the palace were packed with spectators standing twenty rows deep on each side who had been viewing the arrival and departures of the banquet guests. Through the palace windows were obtained views of the within. A clear, starlight sky and the lights glimmering in all directions gave weird effects of light and shade on the architecture of the palace and the massive building of the university opposite. Suddenly a blaze of light ran along the front of the building and gleams of flame shot from the stars and crowns decorating the front facades. Then the scene changed and deep tri-colored lights shown out from the gardens and flooded the whole building. Presently the procession was seen approaching in a perfect silence. Students marched five abreast. They were attired in a picturesque dress, and carried a bare sword in one hand and a torch in the other.

IN THE LINE

were banners of old German towns. Two students dressed in the uniform of Von Wallenstein's soldiers headed the procession. Then came others on horseback, followed by the Zeithen Hussars with powdered periwigs and white corded coats and cocked hats surmounted with white aigrettes, the band playing a simple tune of the middle ages with touching effect. When they reached the Emperor's window, the Hussars wheeled back and the torches were seen moving in different directions, moving in and out like will o' wisps. This was repeated several times with increased effect, the torches circling and crossing like the ancient war dance to the sounds of soft now approaching, now fading away in the distance. While the procession of students was passing the palace, the multitude bared their heads and the cheers became wilder and wilder, until the Emperor, overcome with emotion, was compelled to withdraw.

The procession passed through the town to an open space where the students sang the hymn Gaudemas agitur quvenus dum sumus. In the rear of the procession was a long row of carriages containing deputations from German and foreign universities.

London Lines.

LONDON, March 21.—A dispatch from Hobarttown says that the Tasmanian ministry has resigned.

Sir James Ferguson, under foreign secretary, in the House of Commons to-night, said he hoped to lay before the house before the Easter recess a dispatch from the United States government relating to the fisheries dispute.

Mr. Smith's motion for urgency for a coercion bill will be opposed to the utmost by the combined strength of the Gladstonians and the Parnellites. Smith promises an early statement of the land proposition, but the opposition are determined not to permit the introduction of the until after the land question has been dealt with. The ministerialists admit their inability to enforce the new cloture rule without protracted debate extending beyond Easter. The Gladstonians greeted with derisive laughter Smith's statement that he hoped to reach a second reading of the bill on Monday.

The Parnellites are gratified at Morley's amendment, and heartily approve it. The amendment was drafted last week by Morley, Harcourt and Gladstone, with a view of embarrassing the radical unionists, some of whom the conservatives admit may possibly abstain from voting.

Lord Hartington is aware of the government's plans, and has approved of them. He will doubtless carry the bulk of his followers with him. The debate on the Morley amendment will last several nights, and it is certain that will speak. It is the present intention of the Parnellits and a large section of the Gladstonians to oppose the coercion bill at every stage, even to force a division on the formal motion for permission to introduce a bill. All parties have used urgent whips.

This is the first day of the Lincoln spring meeting. The race for the Babyany stakes was won by R. Craig's three-year-old colt, The Gloaming; Sir G. Chetwind's five-year-old gelding Goldsmith was second; Craven's three-year-old filly by Albert Victor out of Paparo, third.

The Yacht Race.

NEW YORK, March 21.—The steamer Eugia, from Hamburg, which arrived here to-day, reports: March 18, latitude 41 deg. 5 min., longitude 49 deg. 38 min., passed a vessel which showed a night signal of white, red and blue, followed by blue light. Did not observe if the steamer was a sailing vessel or where bound to. The yacht Dauntless was to have burned at night a blue signal light and the Coronet a red light, in addition to the night signal of the New York Yacht Club of red, green and white. The vessel referred to in the above report may have been the yacht Dauntless.

KANAB STAKE CONFERENCE.

KANAB, Kane Co., Utah,
March 14, 1887.

Editor Deseret News:

Last evening our two days Quarterly Conference came to a close, having been held at this place. The weather was extra warm, but pleasant, which was favorable to a good attendance from the different wards. President E. D. Woolley, Counselor Thomas Chamberlain, all the Bishops and High Councilors were present. The house was completely crowded, and it appears that if any more Edmunds-Tucker bills should soon pass Congress, we would be compelled to build larger houses of worship, as that movement had a tendency to humble the people, and increase their faith in the Lord, and there is an actual reformation going on among the Saints here.

The speakers made excellent remarks, and bore powerful testimonies to the work of God. The choir, led by Allen Frost, and with Mrs. Artemesia Snow Seegmiller as organist, furnished most excellent music.

During the afternoon of the first day, Deputy Armstrong suddenly came dashing into town, and his doctrines apparently had more of a tendency to scatter than to unite, especially certain classes of the people, who immediately took the U. G., and the dashing deputy scrutinized the faces of the remaining meeting-goers in vain.

EASTERN ARIZONA STAKE CONFERENCE.

The Quarterly Conference of the Eastern Arizona Stake of Zion was held in the Stake House at Snowflake, March 12th and 13th, 1887.

There was on the stand the Presidency of the Stake, High Council and visiting brethren.

The weather was very fine, and there was a good attendance of the Saints from most of the wards.

Woodruff, Snowflake, Taylor, Show Low, Ramat, Erastus, St. Johns, Union and Alpine wards were reported by J. C. Owens, Albert Minnerly, M. E. Willis, Hans Hansen, J. R. McNeil, C. I. Kempe, E. N. Freeman, George H. Crosby and A. E. Noble.

Most of the reports were very good, showing an increase in faith and good works among the Saints. There were a few who were reckless and wayward. There was a lack of breadstuffs in some of the Wards to carry the people through until another harvest. St. John's had a good reservoir completed and about full of water. Snowflake had completed a reservoir which, when filled, will hold enough water to irrigate 1,000 acres over once. The General and local authorities were presented and sustained by vote of the Conference. The subjects of home manufacture, training of the young, forgiving each other's trespasses, observing the laws of God, and other subjects of importance, were ably treated upon.
