

CITY ENJOINED; GRADE CHANGE.

Mrs. Anderson Secures Temporary
Estoppel of Work on North Main Street.

IT DAMAGES HER PROPERTY.

Says It Will Depreciate Value of House That is Now Rented and That Tenant Will Vacate.

An injunction suit was filed in the district court this morning by Hannah L. Anderson against Salt Lake City to restrain defendant from changing the grade of north East Temple street, between North Temple and First North streets. It is alleged that plaintiff owns a 15-room house on the west side of East Temple street, where it is proposed to change the grade and that, in order to make the change, it will be necessary for the contractor to make a fill in front of plaintiff's premises of between eight and ten feet.

By such change she alleges that her premises will be greatly damaged, the light and air of the same interfered with and the ingress and egress obstructed. If the change is made she claims that her tenant will vacate and the rental value of her property be destroyed. She therefore asks that the city and the contractor, who has been awarded the contract for grading the street, be enjoined from proceeding with the work and that, upon the final determination of the case, the injunction be made permanent. A temporary restraining order was issued by Judge Lewis this morning.

Attachment Suit.
An attachment suit has been filed in the district court by the Heaviness Mercantile company vs. M. Cantion and Sons to recover a total of $468.74 and interest alleged to be due on an account for merchandise sold to defendants.

Receiver Named.
In the case of J. A. Dupee vs. E. N. Jenkins et al. Judge Lewis this morning appointed R. B. Porter receiver of the premises at 940 south West Temple street. The action is brought to foreclose a mortgage.

Arguments Heard.
Arguments in the sensational divorce case of Mary A. Jones vs. William T. Jones were heard by Judge Lewis this morning and the case was submitted to the court.

Divorces Granted.
Judge Lewis this morning granted decrees of divorce in the following cases: Melissa Meadows vs. James Meadows; Eliza Glass vs. Samuel Glass; Sarah A. Tonne vs. Louis Tonne.

DAMAGES FOR DEATH.

An action was begun on the 24th of July, 1902, by Benjamin B. Mann as administrator of the estate of Harvey McGraw, in the Third judicial district court of this city to recover $5,000 damages from the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad. The complaint alleged an accident on the railroad in Nebraska while McGraw was a passenger which resulted in his death and the heirs asked for the damages named. The case was today removed into the United States circuit court on the proper showing being made and the requisite bond being given.

SENATOR DUBOIS HERE.

Has Doubts About Adoption of Proposed Cuban Treaty—House Jealous.

U. S. Senator Fred T. Dubois of Idaho arrived from the north last night, and registered at the Knutsford. When seen today by a "News" reporter, he stated that he was on his way to Washington in attendance on the extra session of Congress called by the president. As to what the senate was likely to do with the proposed Cuban treaty, Senator Dubois said he was a good deal like the Irish violator of the law, when asked by the court if he pled guilty or not guilty, replied: "Sure an' how can I tell until I hear the evidence?" However, the senator had his doubts about the treaty being ratified, as action on it involved current action by the house and members of the house claimed that the senate had been trenching on the prerogatives of the house in the way the senate had been acting. There is a very strong opposition being brought to bear against the adoption of the Cuban treaty by sugar men in this country, and the influence of this opposition is being felt. Senator Dubois said the Panama canal matter would not be brought up at the extra session, and that Congress would not doubt adjourn after perhaps a two weeks' session.

In the matter of the Dales improvement, Senator Dubois said that three great states were interested in up in northern Idaho, is progressing finely, and that the feeling throughout the state generally was one of hopefulness and satisfaction at the outlook for the future.

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

Young Men's Club to Hold Ratification Meeting Tonight.

The Young Men's Republican club will parade and hold a ratification meeting this evening. The line of march will begin at Republican headquarters in the Knutsford annex and proceed to Main street and then through the principal thoroughfares of the city, winding up at the Salt Lake theater. It is called the shotgun brigade and it is expected there will be 120 men in line armed with guns accompanied by a band and no end of stragglers.

To guard against accidents seven men have been appointed sergeants to command the others. They are: A. H. Steele, J. E. Iverson, J. C. Sharp, William Edwards, Joseph Burbridge, James Cowan and D. M. Bernheisel.

FRANK KNOX RETURNS.

Republican Candidate for Mayor Denies Alleged Corrupt Politics.

Frank Knox, the Republican candidate for mayor, returned home last evening from Los Angeles, where he went to attend the bankers convention 10 days ago. Mr. Knox stated on his return that he was not in close touch with the developments here politically during the past few days, but he wanted to make it clear that there was any corruption in the convention which nominated him for mayor that it was not resorted to on his behalf. Mr. Knox stated that there was a great deal of interest manifested in Los Angeles over the forthcoming election here. Regarding the entertainment given the visiting bankers by the Associated Bankers of Los Angeles he stated that the city did itself proud and proved to be a veritable eye-opener for the strangers from the east.

NEW SYSTEM FOR TELEPHONING.

Experiments Now being Conducted in Colorado Which Point to A Successful Issue

ON THE DENVER & RIO GRANDE.

Supt. W. E. Glandon is Now Working On the Telegraph Wires Between Pueblo and Denver.

A telephone system is about to be inaugurated in Colorado, which if it proves successful will render the telephone companies quite independent of the telephone companies. W. B. Glandon, superintendent of the telephone service of the Denver & Rio Grande has been making tests, between Pueblo and Denver and they are said to have proven successful. The object is to use the telegraph wires operated by the railroad company. An experiment was made some months ago and did not prove successful, because of the fact that the wire was old and broken.

Supt. Glandon says it will be possible for telephones and telegraphic communication can be carried on at the same time without interfering with each other, provided the call is sent in down and conversation is begun.

It is stated that such a telephone system is being successfully operated on the second division of the Rio Grande between Salida and Leadville and is proving highly satisfactory. Should the experiment prove all right it will not only greatly facilitate business but prove a money saving institution.

LAST SPIKE DRIVEN.

Montana Railroad and Lewistown is Now Practically Complete.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 31.—A special from Lewistown, Mont., says: Cheyenne is now the only county seat in Montana without a railroad. The last spike was driven at 5 o'clock last evening on the extension of the Montana railroad and Lewistown, and this place now has rail connections with Butte and the rest of the country.

Mayor L. W. Eldridge and President Walter F. Smith of the Lewistown Business-men's association wielded the hammers that completed the line and the elaborate ceremony was witnessed by many citizens including all public officials.

The first train left Lewistown at 10 o'clock. An office has been opened here and the line is ready for business.

Another Mexican Road.

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—Word has just reached here by mail that the Mexican port of Mazatlan is about to have railroad communication with the interior of the republic by the extension of a branch line of the international railway to Durango. The proposed line is to be 160 miles long and will cost $17,000,000.

SENSATION IN TOM HORN CASE

(Special to the "News.")

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 31.—A sensation was sprung this afternoon when the attorneys for Tom Horn, the convicted murderer of Willie Nickell, filed an appeal with Gov. Chatterton to commute the sentence of death to life imprisonment, in which it is stated that Victor Miller, a playmate of the dead boy, committed the crime.

The appeal includes the affidavits of men who testified for the state, who say they were jobbed. Ollie Whitman, an Iron Mountain ranchman, swears that Victor Miller confessed to him he killed the Nickell boy. Miss Irene Kimball, a schoolteacher, who boarded with the Victor Miller's parents, swears that Victor told her that he killed Willie Nickell. Other persons in the Iron Mountain country make affidavits that tend to create a doubt in the mind of the governor. The appeal is headed with a personal letter from Tom Horn, in which he declares his innocence he asks that his sentence be commuted to a life imprisonment being confident that the true facts in the case will be made public in a few years.

The appeal includes about 63,000 words of typewritten matter and it will be a week before the governor renders his decision.

At midnight last night the time allowed the defense to file new evidence in the courts expired but nothing was filed. This is the weak part in the appeal.

(Special to the "News.")

Pocatello, Ida., Oct. 31.—Harry Barrett, the 16-year-old son of Thos. Barrett of 536 W. PERRY S. LATH REACHES HOME.

His Retirement from the Membership of the National Committee Insured.

Reported that Pre-Roosevelt Has Made Such a Declaration—What St. Paul Glee Says.

TALK OF HIS INDIGNMENT.

Perth S. Heath, secretary of the National Republican committee, returned from Washington this morning.

He went to the nation capital, it is stated, on business having to do with his resignation. Whether he will step down and or will soon be seen as action will not long be delayed. That he will do so is said to be an absolute certainty. President Roosevelt is represented as being highly indignant over Heath's course in the postal scandals and is said to have declared that he should be indicted. It is well known that the claim has been made that this cannot be done on account of the statute of limitations having run its course. However, it is contended that the limitation does not apply in cases where fraud has been concealed. Some of the high opinion papers have wired their representatives in this city to the effect that President Roosevelt has stated that "Heath must be indicted for he must have known of the rascality in the postoffice practised right under his very nose and should be punished."

ABOUT HELD'S BAND.

The Tribune Says:

HELD HOLDS THE CROWD.

Sunday Evening Entertainment at the Grand Delights Music Lovers.

There were many standing on the lower floor of the Grand theater last night, so great was the audience of music lovers which turned out to listen to the regular Sunday evening concert of the "Held's Band." And the musical assemblage was by no means disappointed in any part of the attractive programme. The band seemed to catch inspiration from the sympathetic crowd and its music had even more than the usual go and dash. Mrs. Nellie Penrose Whitney was also particularly happy in her rendition of "The Image and the Music," and was compelled to respond to an enthusiastic encore, while Walter Simms, the clarinet soloist was likewise at his best.

ABOUT HELD'S BAND.

The Tribune Says:

HELD HOLDS THE CROWD.

Sunday Evening Entertainment at the Grand Delights Music Lovers.

There were many standing on the lower floor of the Grand theater last night, so great was the audience of music lovers which turned out to listen to the regular Sunday evening concert of the "Held's Band." And the musical assemblage was by no means disappointed in any part of the attractive programme. The band seemed to catch inspiration from the sympathetic crowd and its music had even more than the usual go and dash. Mrs. Nellie Penrose Whitney was also particularly happy in her rendition of "The Image and the Music," and was compelled to respond to an enthusiastic encore, while Walter Simms, the clarinet soloist was likewise at his best.

The Herald Says:

Another full house greeted Held's band at the Grand theater last night, and an excellent programme was rendered. The band led off with the special favorite, "Stars and Stripes Forever," and from then on the number till the close each one was roundly applauded. Mrs. Nellie Penrose Whitney was the vocalist and she delighted the audience with a dainty little ballad by Conz, "The Camella and the Rose." She was recalled and responded with another pleasing selection to which her voice was equally well adapted. Both the numbers showed cultivation and a good quality of voice. The finest number played by the band was undoubtedly, "The Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 11," by Liszt. It was well calculated to test the skill of a leader and Mr. Held stood the test admirably. The summer favorite which made such a hit at the Salt Palace, "The Darktown Gal," was well rendered also, and the clarinet solo by Mr. Simms was an especially commendable number.

The Telegram Says:

ANOTHER DECIDED SUCCESS was added to Conductor Held's long list last night, when the band under his direction rendered the following programme to a crowded house at the Grand.

"Stars and Stripes Forever" ... Sousa
Ballet Music from "Faust" ... Bizet
Caprice—(a) Frog Puddles ... Haines
Clarinet solo, Polonaise from "Mignon" ... A. Thomas
Soprano solo, "The Image and the Rose" ... Conz
Grand selection, "Peggy from Paris" ... Caprice
Clarinet solo, "The Darktown Gal" ... Johnson
Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 11 ... Liszt
"The Gleisriede" (descriptive) ... Puerner
The soprano solo of Mrs. Nellie Penrose Whitney was well received and encored. The rendition of the Hungarian Rhapsodie No. 11, by the band, was a storm of applause from the audience.

SEVENTIES' QUORUMS TAKE UP CHURCH HISTORY.

The following letter has been prepared by the First Council of the Seventy and sent to the various quorums of that order of Priesthood in the Church, recommending the quorums to take up the study of modern revelation, in connection with the circumstances under which said revelations were given, and suggesting as the text book on such subject the first volume of the Church History, published by the Deseret News.

Believing that the communication to the presidents of the quorums will be of interest to all the Seventies, the "News" takes pleasure in publishing that portion relating to the History of the Church for the benefit of the 10,000 Seventies now in the Church.

Presidents and Members of the Quorum of Seventies:

Dear Brethren—We feel constrained by the responsibilities resting upon us as the first council of the Seventy, and our inability to meet with you and members as often as we would desire, to address you by letter and suggest items of interest that should be considered by the Presidents and Seventies.

Preparation for the opening of your season's work should begin at once. Some quorums meet during the entire year, a thing we most heartily commend, but in all quorums there ought to be a reawakening and a very great effort made to increase the attendance and interest in your quorum meetings. The council of the quorums should meet at once and be prepared to present a definite program and course of study for the season, to place before the members for their approval.

Where a quorum has not yet adopted a definite plan the First Council of the Seventy are united in recommending as the special study for quorums of Seventies, Modern Revelation.

The Church has just published, and at a very low price, the first volume of a documentary history of the Church. This first volume contains 161 of the 184 sections of the Doctrine and Covenants, so that the greater bulk of the revelations which have resulted in the establishment of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and its doctrines is to be found in that book, and given under the circumstances which called them forth. When the revelations are stated in connection with the circumstances that brought them forth they are much better comprehended, since the conditions under which they were given are known.

Where it is decided to take up this line of study we urge upon the presidents of Seventies to canvass their members, asking that they at once purchase the Church History. In the event of adopting Modern Revelation as a main line of their work, other subjects could be worked into a program of exercises to give variety and hence increase interest to the meetings. In any event we consider that the Church History work of such importance that we recommend that it be in the hands of all Seventies, and that they make themselves familiar with its contents.

The regular price of the History of the Church is $1.50, but by sending orders to the Deseret News Book Store for six or more in one order a special rate of $1.20 per copy can be secured, though this rate does not include postage, but in many instances arrangements can be made to have the books come with goods sent from Salt Lake to your place.

It is desired that presidents will carefully consider the above instructions at their council meeting and then present the letter at one of the quorum meetings, and be united in the necessity of immediate action in following out the suggestions herein offered. I am, Your Brother in the Gospel, (Signed.) SEYMOUR B. YOUNG.

In behalf of the First Council of the Seventy.

HALLOWEEN AT LION HOUSE

The Historic Mansion a Maze of Mysteries—Celebration Tonight.

It is safe to predict that no such elaborate Halloween celebration will take place in the state as that which the walls of the Lion House will witness tonight. The entire edifice from attic to basement has been converted into a maze of mystery, and not a room in the many comprised in the historic house, but will hold its uncanny secret for the mystification of the guests who will throng them. In every nook and cranny of the long halls skeletons, corpses, and imps will lurk, and witches will brew cauldrons while chanting incantations of eerie import at their tasks. A real fortune teller will reveal secrets of past and future; in a mystic pool will be reflected the features of guests' future partners; refreshments will be served from a table lit with jack-o'-lanterns and decorated with serpents and snakes there will be prestidigitations of night and day, with costumes, carrying emblems of sun, moon and stars; and in a room decorated with weird draperies, and having uncanny sentinels set as watch, the guests will dance in robes suggestive of ghostly habiliments. The very entrance is wrapped in mystery. The guests will present their invitations at a basement door, and will enter a room where they will be permitted to don costumes, or doff wraps; then they will be shown outside to seek the real entrance to the house, where weird pleasures await them.

Once inside, they will find every pathway beset with barriers impeding their way, and only by finding the cord of fate, which will form a network from top to bottom of the labyrinthine mansion will they be able to gaze upon the mysteries in store for them. The entire affair, in fact, promises to be the most complete that can be imagined, and exceptional credit belongs to the hostess, Mrs. Eva Dohlin, whose mind
