15
MASSIVE VOLUMES.

A Startling Statement.

About half a million sets (that is, from twelve to fifteen million vols.) of Encyclopaedia Britannica have been sold in this country alone.

During the past three years 50,000 sets of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, in 25 vols., have been sold by the London Times in England, America, Africa and India for $86.70. This was considered a rare bargain, as the publication had previously been sold abroad for $179.45.

THE DESERET NEWS' PRICE IS LESS THAN 1-4 THAT OF THE ORIGINAL.

LESS THAN 1-2 THAT OF THE LONDON TIMES.

THIS WORK ISSUED 1902.

LONDON TIMES EDITION 1887.

Our remarkable offer to the public may be somewhat better appreciated by this comparison.

THE ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITANNICA COST $3,000,000.00 for authorship alone.

THE VALUE OF THIS AUTHORSHIP IS RETAINED.

ADDED COST OF THIS PRODUCTION $750,000.00; contains 10,000,000 words, 12,000 pages, over 100 large maps, 4,000 illustrations, fine paper, $50,000 for colored plates in 16 and 18 colors.
