Last Night's Dispatches

EASTERN.

All About Cuba.

CHICAGO, 17.—A Washington special says orders were given at the navy yard yesterday for the immediate fitting out of three vessels of war and the fact, made known by the recent dispatches from Spain, and the vague hints given out in diplomatic circles that negotiations are now in progress between Minister Cushing and the government at Madrid in relation to the treaty of 1795, have been the occasion of many wild rumors touching the mutual relations of the two nations, and these rumors have been seized and exaggerated by members of the Cuban bond ring, until, if one half of them were worthy of credit, there would be reason to fear that we were even now on the eve of war with Spain. There's no doubt that our government has long desired to secure a modification of the treaty of 1795. Minister Cushing, before his departure for Spain, freely discussed this subject in conversation with friends, and hoped that one result of his mission might be to bring the Spanish government to consent to changes in the treaty. Of course it is impossible to foretell what complications may yet grow out of the chronic troubles in Cuba, but persons who are well informed see no more reason at present to fear any serious trouble than there has been for the last six or seven years, except that every year the present condition of affairs continues it becomes a greater strain upon our patience, and they do not believe there will be a speedy recognition of Cuba as a belligerent. The provisions of the treaty of 1795 give Spain the right to search American merchant vessels for contraband articles, whenever such recognition takes place, an indignity which it would be hard for Americans to bear. Diplomatists have long insisted that this section alone has prevented the recognition of Cuban belligerency by the U. S. So long as this section stands, if the U. S. should recognize Cuba every American merchantman would be compelled by the treaty to submit to the inquisitive search of Spanish frigates. If this section should be abrogated one great obstacle to the recognition of Cuba would be removed. The fitting out of vessels of war just at this time is probably ordered more for effect than because it is expected that there will be any immediate use for them.

Ku Klux Prisoners.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 17.—The Ku Klux prisoners Oman and Smoot, were taken to the Frankfort penitentiary this morning, by U. S. Marshal Moffort, respited.

The Navy—Assistant Attorney-General.

WASHINGTON, 17.—Isaiah Hanscom, chief of the bureau of construction and repair at the navy department, will recommend, in his annual report, that a policy be adopted of the building of a certain number of war vessels annually, of both iron and wood, until our navy shall be able to compete with that of any nation of the world. A. S. Gaylord, of Michigan, was to-day sworn in as Assistant Attorney General for the interior department, and assumed charge.

Increased Freight Rates—The Lard Contracts.

NEW YORK, 17.—The trunk lines informed the agents to-day that a change had been made in the rates of freight between this city and Cincinnati, and that the following will be the tariff for the present—1st class, 70 cents per 100 pounds; 2nd class, 64; 3rd class, 55; 4th class, 39; special class, 32.

The lard committee at the Produce Exchange to-day decided that the members who recently failed to make good their contracts for the delivery of lard must pay the difference between the price when the contract was made, and that at the time when the lard was delivered.

The Bowen-"Eagle" Suit Put Over.

Another of the suits growing out of the Tilton-Beecher scandal, that of the libel suit of Henry C. Bowen against the Brooklyn Daily Eagle, for $1,000 damages, came up to-day in the Brooklyn City court. Ex-Judge Fullerton, late Tilton's counsel, appeared for Bowen, and ex-Judge Beach appeared on behalf of the Eagle. Judge McCue sent the case to-day before Judge Neilson, and corporation counsel De Witt, counsel for the Eagle, appearing before the judge, said they had been sent there on motion to postpone against his clients. Fullerton opposed the postponement, but the case was put over for the term.

Pacific Mail and Panama Companies.

The Pacific Mail directors to-day appointed a committee to settle the unadjusted accounts with the Panama Company.

Poe's Monument Ceremonies.

BALTIMORE, 17.—The ceremonies attending the unveiling and dedication of the monument in memory of the poet Edgar Allen Poe, in Westminster churchyard, took place this p.m., the service preliminary to the unveiling taking place in the Western Female High School. Before two o'clock, the hour of commencing, the vast hall of the school was crowded, many being unable to obtain seats. The platform was occupied by invited guests, nearly all of whom were citizens of Baltimore, with the exception of Walt Whitman, who was the only poet present. At a quarter past two o'clock Prof. Elliott rose and said the exercises would now begin with the singing of "The Pilgrim's Chorus" by the Philharmonic Society. The regular order according to the programme was then proceeded with as follows—Historical sketch by Prof. William Elliott; reading of letters from Longfellow, Bryant, Holmes and other poets, in reply to invitations to be present, by Miss Sarah S. Rice; Music, "He Watches Over Israel," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah;" address, The Literary Character of Edgar A. Poe, by Prof. E. Shepherd; music, "Inflammatus," from Rossini's "Stabat Mater;" solo by Miss Ella Gordon; personal reminiscences of Poe, by H. B. Latrobe, Esq. After Latrobe had concluded his personal reminiscences the assemblage repaired to the churchyard and the streets adjacent, when the professor unveiled the monument, placing on it a chaplet of evergreens.

He Pays One-Third.

BOSTON, 17.—The creditors of F. Gildowski, furniture manufacturer, have agreed to accept his notes, with endorsement at two, four, and six months, for thirty-three and one-third cents on the dollar.

Another Murderer Caught—Shooting Scrape.

DENVER, Col., 17.—Frank Valintire, one of the party who murdered the four Italians in this city several weeks ago, has been captured, and was to-day brought to this city. He was the only one of the assassins at large. All are now secured, and will be tried soon. Several of the band have confessed the crime since their incarceration, and it is believed that all of them, seven in number, will be hanged.

A difficulty at Central City today between H. W. Hall, of Albany, N. Y., representing the Albany Mining Co., and Wm. Rule, late Supt. of the same Co., resulted in the shooting of the latter. The wound is not believed to be serious. The feeling at Central City is intensely hostile to Hall, as it is believed his assault was wholly unwarranted and his dealings with the creditors of the Company evasive.

FOREIGN.

SPAIN.

Don Carlos and the King.

MADRID, 17.—The fact that Don Carlos has sent a letter to the King has created a great sensation here and is variously commented upon by the newspapers.

The Spanish Press.

The Cronista, ministerial organ, states, in reference to the reported letter of Don Carlos to King Alphonso, "We believe Don Carlos is more uncompromising than any of his partisans."

The Cronista also says, "We are at the beginning of the end. The war will be speedily terminated either by submission or the overwhelming of the Carlists."

The Correspondencia says "The pretensions of Don Carlos are exaggerated and inadmissable. The royal army in the field will be 300,000 strong by the first of December."

The Trempo hails the action of Don Carlos as the harbinger of peace.

Count Rodil, one of Don Carlos' lieutenants, the recent minister of justice, will be appointed ambassador to the Vatican.

Carlos will Defend Spanish Territory.

HENDAYE, 17.—Intelligence from Carlist source asserts that the letter Don Carlos recently wrote to the King did not name any proposals for the arrangement, but offered to agree to a truce should Cuban difficulties cause a war between Spain and the U. S. In that case Don Carlos, while reserving his rights to the throne of Spain, offered to unite his forces with those of King Alfonso to defend the integrity of Spanish territory.

FRANCE.

Don Carlos, Letter to King Alphonso.

PARIS, 17.—The evening papers of this city publish the text of the letter written by Don Carlos, to King Alfonso. "The attitude of President Grant," the letter says, "is the prelude to a war between Spain and the United States, if you do not recognize the independence of Cuba. The revolution, which you represent, is responsible for this parricidal rebellion. Had I reigned it would not have occurred, at the least not have gained strength. Now, however, that the integrity of the country is at stake, and all her children are bound to defend it, should war break out, I offer you a truce, as long as the contest lasts, but maintain my rights to the crown, as I retain the conviction that I shall one day wear it. I cannot send my loyal volunteers to Cuba, but I will defend these provinces. The Cantabrien coast will send out privateers, which will pursue the merchant ships of our enemies and perhaps chase them into their own harbors. If you accept the truce, let us appoint representatives to settle the conditions. If you refuse, the world will be witness that Catholic Spain has nobly done her duty."

GREAT BRITAIN.

Appointments—Thousands of Operatives Discharged—German Crown Prince Not Coming to America—Shropshire Handicap.

LONDON, 17.—Solicitor General Sir John Holker, M. P. for Preston, has been appointed Attorney-General. Harding Stanley Giffard has been appointed Solicitor General; Vice Holker.

Blockow, Vaughan & Co., iron producers, of Leeds, have been compelled, owing to the depression of the trade in iron, to discharge between two and three thousand operatives.

The statement in a dispatch from Berlin that the German Crown Prince proposed visiting the U. S. is denied.

The race for Great Shropshire Handicap, at Shrewsbury, to-day, was won by "Coriolanus," "Consul" second, "Caramel" third.
