LOCAL BRIEFS.

Scots Will Ride—The Caledonians and the Scots will indulge this evening in an illuminated trolley car ride.

Back From New Haven—James A. Hogle has returned from a trip to New Haven, where he graduated in 1899.

Crail Is Back—Architect J. A. Crail has returned from a trip along the Pacific coast, where he found most of the great centers rapidly growing.

Foresters to Observe Memorial Day—The Foresters of America will hold their annual memorial service tomorrow at 11 a. m. in Knights of Columbus hall.

Naval Lieutenant Home—Lieut. Reuben Smith, U. S. N., is home from Annapolis, awaiting orders for assignment to station, from Washington.

Eureka for Eagles—The local Eagles will visit Eureka tomorrow, 200 strong, with their ladies. The train leaves Salt Lake at 3 a. m., and arrives on the return at 2 a. m.

Immigration Inspector Home—U. S. Immigration Inspector James McCabe has returned from an eastern business trip. Inspector Longley leaves this afternoon, for Boston with an insane fugitive to be deported to his native heath.

Home for the Summer—Lynnan Judson, Cornell, 10, is home from Ithaca for the summer vacation. He made the Froshman ball nine and is happy. Francis Judson, who is of the same class at Princeton, is also home for the summer.

Maccabees Hold Services—The Knights of the Maccabees and the lady Maccabees will hold memorial services tomorrow, decorating graves at the cemeteries during the day, and holding indoor services in the evening at their hall.

Will Make City Lots—Cannon & Cannon have bought from Willard Y. Croxall of this city, six acres between Eighth and Ninth East, 3,800 ft. Twelfth South street, for $4,800. The purchasers will plat the land and divide it into city lots, introduce water and cement the sidewalks.

K. of P. Memorial Day—Tomorrow will be Memorial Day for the Knights of Pythias, and the three lodges, Canaanite-Myrtle No. 1, Rocky Mountain No. 2, and Lincoln No. 22, will join in the exercises. Visits will be made to the various cemeteries where repose departed knights. The march will be made from K. of P. hall at 1:30 o'clock.

Races at Ogden—The D. & R. G. will run a special train to Ogden Monday, leaving this city at 6:30 a. m., to accommodate those wishing to attend the bicycle races at Ogden. The road will also run a special to Park City Tuesday, at 6:30 a. m., to accommodate Salt Lake riders wishing to attend the Williams-Mantell steeple contest.

Walker Employed at Auditorium—Manager Barbours of the Auditorium announced this morning that arrangements had been made to give a roller skating party next Wednesday evening for the employees of Walker Bros. It is likely that weekly or semi-weekly parties will be arranged during the summer and until fall when the regular season will open.

Inspector Clark Returns—Inspector F. E. Clark of the state board of health has returned from the Sevier country where he went to inquire into certain conditions existing at Sigurd. He believes the town will be removed from its present unhealthy location to one where a pure water supply can be obtained. The board will send an engineer down there to ascertain desired information as to river and reservoir levels.

Y. M. C. A. at Campment—The Y. M. C. A. of this city is carrying out with the high school cadets, the policy of the order in general regarding military camps, and has sent Robert Brown and Robert Porter to superintendent Y. M. C. A. work at the American Fork camp. They are in charge of the athletic work of the cadets, and have three tents where the boys can read, write or play games.

Young People's Christian Union—The Young People's Christian Union of this city will hold a mass meeting tomorrow evening, at 5:45 p. m., in the First Methodist church. The topic is "Who Are Slaves and Who Are Free?" (Romans vii, 12-23), with O. R. Mumford as leader. This meeting will be prefaced by a prayer meeting called for 5 o'clock, and an invitation is extended to attend both meetings.

Hansen Memorial Services—The Twentieth ward Sunday school will hold memorial services in honor of the late John E. Hansen tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The speakers will be State Supt. George H. Wallace, of the Benign state, John H. Hurd, superintendent of the Twentieth ward Sunday school, Miss Katie Hall and Bishop George Romney. Solos will be rendered by Mrs. Mary Romney-Ross, Miss Mary Barlow and John James.

Cold and Wet East—General Agent J. A. Sanborn of the Pacific Express company has returned from an extended eastern trip. He found eastern Nebraska and western Iowa pretty much under water, so that raising corn this summer seems well nigh an impossibility. The seed rotted in the ground, and wheat, extending in area under water, replanting is useless, for the time being anyhow. The entire east has been suffering from the prolonged cold and wet.

Leave for Jamestown—Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt B. Love left yesterday on a month's absence in New York and Jamestown. Mr. Love was formerly a member of Company A, New York Seventh regiment, the crack infantry command of the country, and will visit the army during his stay in New York. Mr. Love is a member of B company of the Seventh, and the late Capt. D. Parker, who lies buried in the Fort Douglas cemetery, was a member of B company.
