London, Oct. 25.—In the note despatched to St. Petersburg yesterday the British government put forward certain definite demands in language which it is understood leaves little opening for any suggestions of a compromise.

These comprise apologies for the action of the Russian squadron in firing on the British fishing fleet in the North sea Saturday morning and full comprehension for the sufferers. It is further insisted that a searching inquiry shall be instituted with all despatch, under conditions which will insure that appropriate action shall follow the result of the investigation. In other words that the responsibility shall be fixed and punishment meted out to the offenders, whoever they may be.

That King Edward correctly interpreted the feeling of the nation in his energetic emphasizing the affair as "unwarrantable" was evidenced by the reception given him this morning when he started for the race meeting at Newmarket. A big crowd awaited the king both at Buckingham palace and at the railway station. The enthusiasm of the cheering and the vigorous waving of hats and handkerchiefs with occasional shouts of "good Old Teddy" from the ultra-enthusiasts made up a remarkable demonstration and afforded the king
