

lar to New York. At the principal piers freight is piled up for want of horses to remove it. The steamer India, which arrived on Friday, has not yet commenced to discharge. If the present state of things continue a week, the steamer cannot be unloaded and a general cessation of business must ensue, so far as regards carrying freight. One of the great inconveniences is the lack of horses for funerals. In Brooklyn the railroad lines will probably withdraw all their cars to-morrow and give the diseased horses a chance to rest. A few fatal cases are reported, but it is not definitely settled whether they are caused by the epidemic. Medical authority states that under the most favorable circumstances the disease runs from seven to ten days, and with the present unfavorable weather may linger longer. At all events it is considered that the present inconvenience to the public is liable to continue the latter part of the coming week, by which time the horses first attacked should be convalescent.

Ten cases of small-pox here during the week and three deaths announced.

BRUNSWICK, N. Y., 26.—The horse disease has appeared here in a mild form.

CHICAGO, 26.—It appears to have been definitely settled that there are as yet no cases of horse disease in this city. West Side St. Railway Company has a number of horses sick with colds, but none appear to have symptoms of the epidemic prevailing in the east, though some veterinary surgeons claim to have had some cases of it.

CHICAGO, 27.—Lewis H. Kormendy, the well known gymnasium proprietor, shot himself in the head at the Briggs house, inflicting a mortal wound.

Most of the saloons are mostly open. Mayor Medhill declares he knows no influence but that of the law, which he shall enforce until it is repealed.

CINCINNATI, O., 28.—At Lexington, Ky., on Saturday, William Thomas pursued his wife from her house to the neighborhood women, for the purpose of whipping her. The neighborhood expostulated, when he commenced to whip her, and her son, a boy of 15, coming in, shot him dead with a revolver.

CHICAGO, Ill., 28.—The Sunday liquor law was observed here yesterday, much as it was a week ago. Less than five per cent of the saloons were fully open. The number of arrests for drunkenness was only fourteen. The average number before the law was attempted to be enforced was over a hundred.

A New York special gives the result of a post mortem examination of the horse disorder. In opening the throat the membrane lining of the larynx was found covered with bloody mucus. This mucus, gathering in the gullet above the larynx, passes into the larynx and causes inflammation. The mucus, working up and down in the larynx, lodges in the tubes connecting with the lungs and produces pneumonia. It first strikes the left lung, and if inflammation sets in, the right lungs become affected and death ensues from what is styled double pneumonia. All other parts of the body were found in a healthy condition. The result of the examination shows it to be important to force the mucus through the nose and thereby prevent its escape through the larynx into the lungs.

PORTLAND.—A visit to the leading stables to-night shows nearly every horse sick. Probably nine-tenths of the horses are afflicted. No cars run to-day, and not a dozen horses have appeared upon the streets.

The horse disease is not abating. The railroad lines have comparatively few cars running. In Brooklyn the disease prevails extensively. The city railroad companies have hauled off nearly all the cars for the purpose of giving the needed rest to well horses. On some lines no cars run. On other lines they run at long intervals.

At the O'Brien meeting at the corner of Rassenell and Water Streets on Saturday night, opposing politicians threw a chimney on the people on the sidewalk. Thos. Maugin was killed and several wounded. It is not known who overthrew the chimney, but several suspicious persons have been arrested.

BOSTON.—The horse disease is abating here.

NEW YORK.—About twenty-five horses died to-day of the prevailing disease.

SYRACUSE.—The horse disease is spreading rapidly in this city. Nearly every horse is afflicted. The cars on two railroads have discontinued running. Other lines are running cars hourly. Several deaths occurred yesterday.

terday. Leading merchants are employing oxen in conveying goods to the freight depots.

PHILADELPHIA.—This morning a passenger train on the Reading R. R., near Bridgeport, collided with a coal train. Edwards, the engineer, jumped off and was killed. No other casualties.

NEW YORK, 27.—The National Democracy has nominated John McCool for mayor.

NEW YORK.—The horse disease shows no decreasing signs and the weather to-day is damp and foggy and consequently unfavorable to the afflicted beasts. The disposition which has been evinced to work the afflicted horses is beginning to tell in aggravated symptoms on many horses that would have been likely to speedily recover. It is now thought that the crisis has been reached and that after to-day recovery is expected in some of the lighter cases. It is proposed to-day by some city firms to introduce oxen as a substitute for horses. To-day additional cars have been withdrawn on some lines and others have wholly stopped. The 9th Avenue Line reports slight improvement among its horses. Generally, however, the disease is getting worse and there are many deaths. Experienced horsemen say that by Wednesday there will be a total stoppage of all public means of conveyance.

SAN FRANCISCO, 26.—There was a considerable fall of rain about half-past 3 this morning.

With a degree of ingratitude that could not be expected from any other person, Laura D. Fair refuses to pay Judge Leander Duint his fees, and the expenses incurred during her trial for murder; he has therefore brought a suit against her for $3,075, and attached enough of her money in the Savings, and Loan Society and the Odd Fellows Bank to cover the bill. Duint was Fair's main stay and support during her trials, and to him she actually owes her life, for he carefully guarded all the evidence on her behalf, and did not omit any legitimate exertion to secure her acquittal.

SAN DIEGO, 26.—On the beach of False Bay, above high water mark yesterday, was found the skeleton of a man, shrouded almost to a mummy. The upper portion was decomposed past recognition, but the lower parts showed it to be that of a white man. Nearby was found a pile of clothing, rifle, spy-glass, pair of shoes, canteen full of water, loaf of bread. A short distance from the body were found the remains of an immense shark. Who the man was, and how he met his death, are mysteries, which create considerable excitement. It is supposed that he went to the beach to bathe, but whether killed by the shark or not is mere conjecture. The body was brought to town for an inquest to be held.

It is thought that the owners of Lucy and Goldsmith Maid will prefer that they be kept here for the winter, rather than subject them to the dangers of the horse disease now prevailing in the East.

BOSTON, 28.—With better weather to-day the number of horses in the streets has increased. A large number of oxen have been brought in from the country. Man power also is utilized. Horse car travel was partially resumed this morning.

OSWEGO.—All the horses in the towing company's stables are afflicted. Rates of towing have advanced ten cents a mile.

PHILADELPHIA.—In a collision on the Reading R. R. yesterday between a passenger and coal train, the engineer of the former was killed. No one else injured.

There are no well defined cases of horse disease here. Precautions have been taken and it is hoped this city will have immunity from the malady.

BUFFALO.—The horse disease is so far abated to-day that the streets have assumed their usual appearance. The air is clear and bracing. The street cars have resumed their regular trips. The streets are full of teams.

PIQUA, Ohio.—A locomotive and nine freight cars on the Cincinnati and St. Louis railroad ran off the bridge over Stillwater River, near Covington. A brakeman was killed and the engineer and fireman were injured.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Alarm has been produced here among horsemen by the fact that several horses affected with the prevailing disease have been brought here from New York. No other cases are reported.

General Sherman, quite sick on Saturday, is now convalescent.

CINCINNATI, O.—A special to the Chronicle reports the sinking of the steamer Umpire between Evansville and Cairo.

David S. Meyer, a stranger, committed suicide this morning by cutting his throat with a razor.

ERIE, Pa.—A tall, finely dressed stranger, registering himself as Louis Patterson, of Baltimore, Md., died at the Ellsmouth House this morning of an overdose of morphine. The name on the clothing was carefully blotted out and nothing was left to identify him. The letters L. P. were pricked in India ink on each arm.

NEW ORLEANS, 28.—The Steamer Victoria, captain Gates, from New York for New Orleans with assorted merchandise broke her shaft and went ashore at Jupiter Inlet, Oct. 21st, and became a total loss. The crew were saved. Vessel and cargo were estimated at a quarter of a million.

The board of alderman to-day empowered the railroad to use dummy engines.

ROCHESTER.—Ninety-five per cent of the horses here are sick, a few have recovered, and less than a dozen died. The cool weather to-day has improved the prospect. All the fire department horses are sick, and the steamers are run by hand.

The beautiful weather this afternoon has increased the number of horses on the street. Some oxen, used on Broadway to-day, caused a sensation. Some stage car lines have partially renewed.

HAMILTON, 26.—The Pioche stage, which left Hamilton yesterday, was stopped twenty-two miles from here by six highwaymen, who ordered the treasure box handed out. Owing to the fact that the Palisade stage was not connecting that day there were but forty dollars in the box. The passengers were not molested.

If you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples, Blotches and Eruptions, purify your blood by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose. s77 w39
