

COLLEGE AFTER BUSINESSES Former U. of U. Athlete Has Hard Time Securing Football Material.

BUT TWO VETERANS REMAIN. None of Last Year's Regulars Not to Be on Eleven This Season—Prospects Are Unpromising.

Harvey Holmes, former coach for the University of Utah football team, is apparently having a hard time this year in getting together good material for his 1907 team.

With the opening of college a week back, the football season of 1907 will be launched formally at the University of southern California, and the race for the coveted championship began.

On the list of players now slated at the University of Utah, there are but two veterans appear, Charles Haigler, tackle and captain of the 1906 team.

LOSERS OF THREE VETS. In addition to these two, Holmes is sure of but one other player, Steve Clark, substitute half on last year's team.

High living without the disastrous results attendant upon the usual acceptance of that term—HUSLER'S FLOUR!
