Local and Other Matters.

TO THE BISHOPS AND PRE- SIDING ELDERS IN ALL THE SETTLEMENTS OF THE LAT- TICE-DAY SAINTS.

DEAR BROTHERS: It is our de- sire to commence again to assist the scattered poor of God's people in gathering to Zion. To aid in the accomplishment of this pur- pose we request the Bishops and Presiding Elders in the various settlements to give special atten- tion to the collection of the debts due to the Perpetual Emigration Fund from those who have been settled in past years. In view of the near approach of the season of the year when our emigration leaves the shores of Europe, we de- sire that our brethren give this matter their immediate attention, that we may be enabled to do as much good as possible this present year.

It is the duty of all the Saints who have the means to assist in the gathering of these of their brethren and sisters who are still scattered in Babylon, and we should be pleased to have the local authorities solicit donations from those who are not in debt to the P. E. Fund, and who are able and willing to do their part for the gathering of scattered Israel.

Your Brother, BRIGHAM YOUNG, DANIEL H. WELLS

Stormy.—The storm threatened yesterday commenced with rain in the evening, followed with a fine and somewhat fresh driving snow storm this morning.

An "Equable Climate."—Our "equable climate" is showing itself this week. The other day the mercury was at 57 degrees. To-day the figure is 32 degrees, and this is nothing extraordinary hereabout.

Belligerent.—Yesterday a couple of soldiers, inflated with strong drink, went to the office of the provost guard and commenced to roundly abuse the solitary guard who was there. He went for the police to have them looked up, in his absence the two made their way out of the back door and across lots to the street below. He pursued them, and with the aid of some citizens, brought them to the City Hall, delivered them to the police, and they were locked up in jail for the night.

Robbing at Bingham.—Several days ago Nicholas Castro, mine owner of Bingham, took a man into his cabin and treated him kindly. The way the ungrateful rascal showed his appreciation of Mr. Castro's hospitality was, in the absence of that gentleman from the cabin, to rob him of a seal-skin overcoat, for which $200 had been offered the owner, a gold-billed dagger, $25 in money and several articles of jewelry, with which he made off the night before last. Mr. Castro tracked the thief for several miles towards this City, but he still remains at large.

A Maniac.—Yesterday a man, apparently about thirty years of age, entered the Temple Block, leaped to the lower part of the interior of the Temple building, and into an aperture in the wall, and otherwise manifested indications of lunacy, declaring that he had been sent by the Supreme Being. He had to be removed by force, he resisting with his might, by several men to the City Jail, and he was placed in the City Jail, apparently in a semi-lunatic condition. He appears to be a stranger heretofore, nobody who has seen him being able to tell who he is, and he refused to state his name.

Theatre.—That able young actor, Mr. John S. Lindsay, previous to his departure from Salt Lake, takes a complimentary benefit at the Theatre on Wednesday eve, tendered to him by the members of the dramatic profession and numerous other prominent citizens. The programme selected for the occasion commences with the tragedy of "Jack O'hearts," in which Mr. P. Margetta, jun., gives a song. Messrs. Harris and Bowring appear in the "Mulligan Guards" for the last time. The performance concludes with the farce of "A Bashful Bachelor," in which Mr. Graham appears as "Bashful Bachelor."

This is a varied and attractive bill, and ought to draw a large house.

Robbery.—About nine o'clock last night a young lady, resident of the 11th Ward, was returning to her home, from a party that was being held in the County Court House, and when just one block south of that building, a man came from behind a cottonwood tree, and with a threat with a large knife in the other hand, she got a couple of exceedingly loud screams, causing the fellow to start off on a run and some neighbors to rush out of their houses and make for the spot. The person who arrived first upon the scene was a man in his shirt sleeves, but the lady, still alarmed and excited, kept up a continuation of screams and unable to answer the inquiries of those who had gathered about her, she continued to scream as she was taken to her home.

Strayed.—A small dog, white and black, was strayed from the home of Mrs. J. S. Lindsay, 11th Ward, Salt Lake City, and is now being sought for by its owner.
