

Denver, Dec. 20.—In the lobby of the Lewiston hotel late this afternoon, Wil-liam Wilson, a cattleman, was shot and instantly killed by J. D. Henderson, a former partner. Turning the weapon upon himself Henderson then fired a bul-let through his breast and expired in the arms of officers who had selzed him. Wilson and Henderson were partners the arms of officers who had selzed aim. Wilson and Henderson were partners in the cattle business many years ago. The partnership was dissolved and Henderson, it is stated, had ever since continued to charge Wilson with de-frauding him in their final settlement. Two years ago Henderson made an at-ternet when the life of his former part. tempt upon the life of his former part-

The two men stood directly in front The two men stood directly in front of the Lewiston hotel and Henderson, without a moment's warning, pulled a revolver from his pocket. Wilson ran into the lobby and was about to seek shelter behind a pillar when his pursue fired.

he rolled over upon the floor. By this time officers were advancing upon Hen-derson, but before they had fairly seized him he had ended his life by his own

Military One to be Held in Colorado

Washington, Dec. 20.—A military fes-tival is to be held in Colorado next fall to commemorate the one hundredth an-niversary of the Zebulon Pike expedition. Representative Brooks of Colorado talked to the president today about the celebration, requesting the participa-tion of the government to the extent of sending troops to the festival. The president will make arrangements with Secy. Taft to have United States troops in attendance in attendance.

Victoria, B. C., Dec. 20 .- A band of 53 Victoria, B. C., Dec. 20.—A band of 53 released Russian prisoners, headed by two adjutants under assumed Swedish names, arrived from Japan by the steamer Kanagawa Maru today to seek a home in the United States. They ap-plied for naturalization in Japan and, being refused, would hot proceed to Viadivostok on the transport. They not their force to Victoria and have paid their fares to Victoria and have little money remaining.

A. Johannsenn, who was in charge of the party, was engaged in distributing revolutionary literature on board the transports Voronej and Yaroslav at Nagasaki when the mutiples of Russian soldiers took place on those vessels, He

