THE UP-TO-DATE RETAIL HOUSE

Of the State of Utah. Modern Merchandising Means Making Moderate Margins.

THIS KIND OF SELLING FROM NOW 'TIL AFTER CHRISTMAS.

Jackets. CAPES. People come to us for their Capes & Jackets because, as they say, we are lower on these goods than any other house. OF course we are. We know how to buy these goods, and we are inclined with a moderate profit.

Dress Goods. Silks. "The Income Tax Dress Goods." This is the latest in dressmaking, which speaks volumes. From now 'til Christmas we are going to offer some rare bargains in this department.

Shoes. Yes, we know how to buy shoes—shoes that are the advance in leather. You'll get the benefit of our shoes from now 'til after Christmas.

Underwear. We've had to duplicate and re-duplicate our fall purchases on Women's and Children's Underwear. That tells the story better than anything else—we are headquarters for these goods.

Handkerchiefs. We always have been, are now and always will be headquarters for Handkerchiefs. Our usual grand display from now 'til after Christmas.

Gloves. We have the best 75 cent Kid Glove in the market. Come in to see our Gloves.

Men's Goods. Our 15 cent wool ribbed Shirts and Drawers are the best things ever offered for the money. Ask to see them.

Babies' Bonnets. We were successful in securing another big drive in these goods. As we can sell you babies' Bonnets at just half what they are usually sold for elsewhere.

Blankets & Comforts. The cold, chilly nights of December, January and February, you need not be cold. We sell Blankets as low as 25 cents a pair. We sell a good Comfort for $1.25.

Shawls. What is nicer than a good warm Shawl? Fashion's fancy brings so many new warmers, but the shawl, the old faithful, holds its own.

Shawls. Just ask to see our $1.50 Shawl, our $2.50 Shawl, our $3.50 Shawl, our $5.00 Shawl, our $7.50 Shawl. HAVE ONE.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, Nov. 29, 1905. Notes and Personal.

Dr. J. H. Wallis died Wednesday at the residence of C. H. Woods, of the Fourth ward, from pneumonia. The deceased was forty-eight years of age, an educated and accomplished gentleman and leaves a wife and six children in mournful loss. He came to Utah last July from St. Louis, and so well pleased with the country that it was his intention to make his permanent home here. One who was in St. Louis has been communicated with and is expected to be here to attend the funeral services which take place tomorrow, at Mr. Woods's residence.

The Central building, a business block in the city owned by the Brigham Young Academy, is being completed and will be occupied by the preparatory department and the medical department. The present building, across the street west of the academy, has been bought and will be used as a laboratory. The Church has a total of $100,000 in bonds and $50,000 in purchase chemical apparatus. There are now 150 kindergarten pupils and over 200 students in other grades attending the institution.

The Utah Wool Growers' company has commenced suits in the First district court against the following defendants for the amounts named, which are the principal or principal balance of accounts for money loaned and advanced to defendants and sales of wool: John H. Taylor, $200; C. D. Winchester, $200; J. William Painter, $200; J. W. Johnson, $200; Henderson Bros, $175.

T. F. Lyons, of Washington, D. C., is in this city. He is looking over the country for the purpose of locating a place in which to build a hotel. He has a plan in mind which will be beneficial to his wife's health, and may decide to remain in Utah.

A substantial judgment of $125.75 was rendered in the county court in the case of James Johnston vs. D. D. D.

Joseph W. Kirk, a printer, who was injured while on duty, was taken to the hospital on Friday morning from the effects of his injuries. Kirk has been arrested on a charge of murder. On the night in question Kirk and his wife were in an electric car, which was being driven by a small roadster. Kirk was seated in the front seat and his wife was seated in the rear. The car was being driven by a man named Smith, who was driving at a high rate of speed. Kirk was thrown from the car and his head struck a pole. He was taken to the hospital and his injuries were found to be very serious.

Even coffee is better if accompanied by biscuit made with Price's Baking Powder.
