VOL. VIII.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH TERRITORY, SATURDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 26, 1874.

NO. 29.

ANOTHER "OPEN LETTER."

Dear Public:

We have often observed how naturally, when you wish to purchase any article of comfort or necessity, you endeavor to procure it at the lowest possible price, cheapness generally constituting the most important point in favor of buying. This frequently proves mistaken economy, because low-priced goods must be made of inferior materials, consequently such goods invariably fail to give satisfaction; in perhaps no branch of trade is this fact more apparent than in Boots and Shoes. We are not advocating high prices, however, but take great pleasure in seeing that the policy we have adopted of using only the best materials, and making none but good, "honest" warranted Boots and Shoes, has gained us hosts of customers, who, as evidence they are satisfied that our goods are well made and truly cheap, always come again and send their friends. Any defect in workmanship is repaired free of charge. Old Boots and Shoes are made "as good as new."

In addition to the goods of our own make, we keep a choice assortment of the best qualities of imported Boots and Shoes, including Rubbers etc., suitable for the season.

Your obedient, faithful servants,

By Telegraph.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

EASTERN.

Help For the Needy.

New York, 24.—Whitlaw Reid forwarded this evening, by telegraph, to ex-governor Saunders of Omaha, Neb., and Gov. Osborn of Topeka, Kansas, $4,500, being the amount of the Tribune dollar subscription for the relief of the Kansas and Nebraska sufferers; the Tribune continues to receive subscriptions at the rate of several hundred dollars a day.

The Election Returns.

New Orleans, 24.—The returning board makes the representation up to date—Democrat 52, Republican 54.

Desperado Captured.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ill., 24.—Bill Rodefer, a cowboy, named desperado, who scaled the walls and escaped from prison on Tuesday, and robbed the residence of Mr. Mann, at New Albany, the same night, was arrested today at Memphis, Clark Co., Indiana, after a desperate fight. He entered Mat Combs' for provisions, and being recognized he took quickly to his horse and rode away, but was so hotly pursued that he was soon captured and deprived of fire-arms.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

$25,000 Fire.

PITTSBURGH, 25.—A fire last night on Fourth Avenue destroyed property to the amount of about $25,000, partly insured.

Assault by Rowdies.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., 25.—Two brothers, Bill and Nat Beck, noted rowdies, last night, entered John Rampton's saloon, to raise a disturbance. They were refused, and the two brothers, Rampton ordered them out of the house; but they declined to go, and Bill struck Rampton with a mug, cutting his forehead badly, when Nat advanced with a knife and said he believed he would kill Rampton, and commenced cutting at him, inflicting ghastly wounds on his head, face and body, none of which are likely to prove fatal. Both the assailants were arrested, and are now in jail.

Murder in the First Degree.

CLEVELAND, O., 25.—The jury in the case of John Johnson, on trial for the murder of his friend Andrew Johnson, this city, last August, returned a verdict of murder in the first degree.

CINCINNATI, 25.—A fire at Newport, Ky., to-night destroyed Robeson & Co's distillery, with its contents, and two small buildings adjoining; loss on the distillery $30,000, insurance $6,000, on the other buildings $4,000, insurance $1,000.

New Lands Discovered.

NEW YORK, 25.—The Times says ship Basilisk has just returned to England after a commission of nearly four years, and brings word that a large archipelago of islands has been discovered in the neighborhood of New Guinea, and that two mountains in this region, each 11,000 feet high, have been named Mount Gladstone and Mount Disraeli.

Kalaikau Goes to Church and to the Theatre.

NEW YORK, 25.—King Kalaikau, this morning, attended services in St. Thomas church, 53d St. and 5th Ave., in the afternoon the King held an informal reception, at which former residents of his kingdom and many prominent citizens were present. In the evening his Majesty attended Booth's Theatre.

A detective who was dispatched to Morristown, N. J., yesterday, by the superintendent of police to ascertain if a child in the possession of an aged couple there, was Charles Ross, returned this afternoon and reported having seen the boy, who bore a resemblance to the missing child.

Shooting and Cutting—Flight with Whites and Blacks—Dead.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 25.—The celebration of Christmas in this city was marked by a number of shooting and cutting affairs, none of them however are likely to result seriously.

A special to the Courier-Journal gives an account of a serious affray in Versailles, Ky., last night; two boys, respectively, by the names of "Franklin" and "Logan," began to throw torpedoes and roman candles across the street at each other, and what was at first sport soon became a heated contest, and stones from the newly macadamized street were substituted for fire works. The parties were reinforced, respectively, by black and white men, and the fight became general. One of the negroes made an assault with a club on a white, and was shot, and it is thought mortally wounded. This morning the town marshal arrested the ringleaders and all was quiet today. During the affray a white man passing on horseback, annoyed by the firing, discharged a revolver, which was followed by indiscriminate firing on both sides. The negroes were driven for refuge into a house, which the whites set fire to, and compelled them to surrender.

Mrs. Elizabeth Haldeman, mother of W. N. Haldeman, one of the proprietors of the Courier-Journal, died today, in her 84th year.

Served Him Right.

ST. LOUIS, 25.—The Globe's Cheater, the special says that Jacob and William Fisher and Amos Young, of Ellis Grove, Randolph County, made a murderous assault upon D. H. Roberts last night; Roberts took refuge in the store of Charles Beare, and Young, who is a notorious desperado, followed with the intention of killing him; Beare ordered Young to leave the store, which he refused to do and threatened to shoot Beare, and his son, whereupon John Beare, Jr., shot Young, killing him instantly.

FOREIGN.

CREAT BRITAIN.

Fifty Persons Killed and Wounded.

LONDON, 24.—Thirty persons were killed and wounded by a railroad accident at Woodstock, to-day, some of the latter being fatally injured; all were conveyed to Oxford.

An explosion occurred in Bignall Hill colliery, North Staffordshire, to-day; twenty miners were killed. Thirteen bodies have been taken out.

FRANCE.

Adjourned.

PARIS, 24.—The National Assembly has adjourned until January.

SPAIN.

Meeting of Centennial Commission.

MADRID, 24.—The Spanish commissioners to the Philadelphia Centennial exhibition met to-day. Senor Castelar made an eloquent address. He sketched the rise and progress of the United States and the ideas of liberty and labor which prevailed there. He said that he found in American civilization, language and arts, traces of Spanish origin which three and ingratitude were unable to eradicate.

A Medium on the Bench.

A CHICAGO JUSTICE WHO DECIDES SUITS ACCORDING TO SPIRITUAL ADVICE.

Among the recent converts to Spiritualism in this city is a Justice of the Peace. Not willing to stop at the foot of the spiritual ladder and receive instructions from others, he has been busy in developing his powers as a medium, and at last has come to such a pitch of perfection as to be able to carry on long conversations with the inmates of the world beyond the grave. He no longer wastes his time in visiting saloons, but stays at home at night and holds intercourse with Kent, Blackstone, and other dead worthies of law. It is his great relaxation, when he gets home after a weary session, to light his pipe, mix a glass of punch and then have a protracted talk with Sir Edward Coke. This is really an improving way of spending the time, and may be recommended to all who desire to become experienced in the law.

These little peculiarities of the court have thus far had no influence upon the outside world, except to amuse the lawyers who found their way into his presence, whom he would inform how, on the previous evening, he had a long argument with Story on some obscure point, and had compelled him to own that he was mistaken. Yesterday, however, the matter assumed a serious form, and one lawyer at least is in a quandary as to what to do. During the forenoon session a case came up for trial. The attorney for the defence quoted a decision which will be found in one of the early Illinois reports. It was apparently decisive. The lawyer looked triumphantly at the judge. The latter said: "Wait a minute; I feel the influence."

Then the Judge grabbed a lead pencil and a sheet of paper. His hand went convulsively, and at the end of five minutes he had scribbled over the entire page. When he had finished, he said: "I have just received a message from Judge Lockwood, who was one of the Judges of the Supreme Court at the time this decision was rendered. He authorizes me to say that the majority of the members of the court, who are
