MEETING OF HIGH COUNCIL POSTFONED -The meeting of the High Council, called for to-morrow morning, is postponed until Friday, Nov. 12th, at 10 a.m.

RETURN OF THE PRESIDENT AND COM FANY .- The President and Company left Provo at six o'clock this morning, and passed American Fork at ten minutes to nine.

They arrived in this cfty this afternoon.

THEATER AL-Lastnight" Haccarat" was repeated, and was played very excellently, Mr. and Mrs. Stone, Mr. Lindsay and other characters, doing their best to make the piece a success. We must not omit to mention Mr. John Kelly, as the aristocratic Herald, from which the above is taken, flunkey "Tonio," The airs assumed by this prince of valets were worthy of the most accomplished Belgravian funkey, and elicited great laughter.

To-night the excellent drama, entitled "Griffith Gaunt or Jealousy," will be presented. During the piece there is an exart representation of an English country tair, with dancing, shows, racing in sacks, elimbing the greasy pole, race for a pig and other amusements popular among the rustics when collected together at fair times in England. Besides this the piece abounds in interest and excitement and is well worth seeing. This is the last appearance of Mr. and Mrs. Stone. They will be supported by Miss Lockhart, Mrs. De Bar, Miss Annie Ward, Messrs. Lindsay, Graham, Margetts, Hardie,'and the fall strength of the com-DBBV.

COMPLIMENTARY PARTY,-There was very large gathering last might at the Fifteenth Ward, Hall, of the members of the Ward and their friends to attend a com-plimentary party given to Bishop Robert T. Burton, prior to his departure on his mission to the Eastern States. During the evening an address was read by Bro, J. K.

Hall, on behalf of the members of the ward, which had been prepared by the committee, composed of Bros. Jas. Moyle, Wm. Bangor and J. K. Hall, in which was em-bodied the kind feelings they entertained towards their bishop and their high appreciation of his worth and past labors in their midst; with a hope that he might be greatly prospered on his mission and be able to return again in the enjoyment of every blessing to resume his labors among them. A suitable response to the address was made by the Bishop, " Mrs. Sarah H. Kimball then read an

GREAT CRY AND LITTLE WOOL -- Our contemporary the Omaha Herald, of the 2nd instant, referring to an article which appeared in the NEWS a few days ago says:

"The DESERST NEWS very properly re-bukes the claim of courage set up for Mr. Colfax on account of his recent speech in Salt Lake. It does not require any par-ilcular courage, not even boldness, for non-Mormons to speak their sentiments in Utah. It does not require men to be even respectful in such expressions so far as anything like violence is concerned.

"This claim of courage for Mr. Colfax for the speech he made in Utah is the sheerest nonsense. It is an utterly groundless claim, and that is a cheap reputation for bravery which that gentleman is acquiring on that score among those who know the tolerant spirit with which the Mormons treat those who oppose their peculiar institutions."

The same paper of the 3rd instant, refers to an account, received from its Corinne special, of an assault committed at Brigham City upon the person of a Mr. Beadle, and though disapproving of his course since he has resided in Utah, says, while the outrage was doubtless committed by some fanatical men, it is diabolical, and swift and condign punishment should be dealt out by the legal authorities.

We should not have noticed this affair, but seeing that a partial or garbled statement of it is going the round of our contemporaries, we think it best to publish the facts, so far as they have been transmitted to us by telegraphic message from Brigham City.

It is well known that Mr. Beadle is the editor of an insignificant sheet, published formerly in this city, but latterly at Corinne, which only maintains a circulation of a few scores by continually loading its columns with diatribes against the Mormon Church, and people and their leaders, remarkable for nothing but sourrilous abuse and sheer lack of truth. Sometime during the past summer this same Beadle published, in his columns, a slanderous report about Judge Samuel Smith, of Brigham City. On Monday last there was a trial at the Probate Court at that place, which resulted in an attachment for between eight and nine hundred dollars being levied upon the paper of which Beadle is the representative.

After the trial, while leaving the Court House, a young man named Hyrum Smith, the son of Judge Smith, seized Beadle and inflicted severe personal chastisement upon him for having thus assailed the character of his father. Young Smith was arrested and brought to trial, and fined $50, and during the trial the above facts were elicited.

The above are the whole of the facts in nd while we do not atte
