Many Suggestions Made at Gathering of Priesthood Meeting Last Night.

INTERESTING MEETING.

The regular meeting of the general Presthood convened in the Assembly Hall last night. Stake President Angus M. Cannon presided. The meeting comenced by singing the hymn, "Come, let us anew, our journey pursue," etc. Prayer was offered by Elder John Clark. Continued by singing, "Come, all ye sons of Zion, and let us praise the Lord," etc., after which the roll was called by the Stake clerk and the minutes of the last meeting read.

A larger attendance was present than at the last session and the wards and various quorums of Priesthood were well represented. The names of sev-eral young men worthy to be ordained Elders were read by President Cannon and upheld by those present. Elder Andrew Jenson was introduced as having some important matter to be made known and upon arising he said, that the Latter-day Saints have been engaged for some time gathering together material for histories, and that for some time past it has been contemplatd to bring this material to a focus and glean the available matter for finishing certain histories, that have been unier way for a considerable time. the century, he said, has been considered the proper time to come to a closing of the work alluded to. He irged the necessity of placing this maerial in proper shape so that it can be used as a work of reference to future historians. Therefore, he said, it has been proposed that all the dif-ferent wards be visited and the clerks and secretaries of organizations he notifie and be prepared to meet with him and furnish the different records required. said it had been thought best to start here at home and to commence with the very first round and contin until all of the wards throughout the hurch had been reached. It was also toped that some of the representatives from the different associations could be present, as there may be some valuable suggestions made in regard to future record keeping, and how to keep them in a proper shape.

Some remarks were made by Blahop O. F. Whitney of the necessity of all members of the Church, upon their renoval to another ward, to have a cerwhence they came. Bishops had been instructed to forward certificates of this kind to the Bishops of the wards which such members located, whether they asked for them or not, and those who moved into another ward and were ndifferent about getting their certifi cates of removal should be labored with and their standing ascertained.

Elder Penrose said that it was exthe Saints of the wards into which the are appointed, and that Bishops should guard against and try to avoid the eading of long local notices on those nights that the home missionaries are appointed; only the most important notices should be given out on those nights and that they be given in a concise manner so that not too much time which belongs to the missionaries when present be wasted. These re-marks were also endorsed by President Cannon who said that as little time as possible should be consumed in the eading of notices on those nights re-Prof. Stephens, of the Tabernacle hoir, wished to emphasize the noces sity of constant and continual attendance of the members of the choir. He said it was highly important that those purelled in that body of singers see that hey have no other duties to attend t on the regular nights of rehearsal. said careful and constant rehearsal

Notice was given out by Elder Ly-man that the Young Men's Mutual Improvement Associations of the Stake would hold their conference a week om next Sunday, and that they going to have regular meeting in the afternoon and officers' meeting in the evening. It was asked that the bishops irge the young people to attend the

The meeting was then adjourned for one month. After singing the hymn. "Lord, dismiss us with Thy blessing," etc., the benediction was pronounced by Patriarch John Smith.

NEWMAN IS MADE PRESIDENT

Called to Direct the Affairs ofthe School Board.

"FADS" TO BE ELIMINATED.

Wants to Know Why Doctors Have Laid Their Hands on Public Schools and Left Other Institutions Atone.

The new board of education met last vening to organize, and did so by electing W. J. Newman as president. and lmon Bamberger as vice-president.

Mr. Newman is one of the oldest members of the board, and has always been one of its most active members. and his actions have generally been characterized by intelligence and conservatism.

On assuming the chair Prest, Newsman made a few remarks, pledging all the time he could spare and all of his ability to the school interests of Salt Lake. He said that there were gore questions confronting the members of the board, one of which was the financial question. He thought that by wise administration of affairs, and the eliminating of some of the useless fads and fancies that are in vogue in the schools, the expenses could be materially cut down. Thus a sufficient amount of funds could be raised to keep the schools running the full length of the school year. Also enough means to erect a new school building of which the schools are in sore need. The building would cost, he said, at least $60,000, and there is only half that amount in the treasury.

Prest. Newman paid his respects to the medical fraternity and expressed the opinion that the doctors had been too busy with the concerns of the school board. They had placed their hands upon the pulse of the schools, he said, and pronounced them sick. Yet they had not retarded any of the State inhad the publi stitutions, as they Again thanking the for the honor they had done, Mr. Newman closed his remarks.

On retiring from the chair and from he board, President E. W. Wilson took occasion to express his warm thanks to the members of the board for the honor they had shown him is the past. On motion of Moyle, amend ed by Critchlow, a vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Wilson and Judge Henderson, the two retiring members.

Then the work of organization was

Mr. Geoghegan arose and nominated Newman in a very complimentary speech. There was no other nomina-tion, and the result of the first ballot was five votes for Mr. Newman, two for Mr. Bamberger, and one for Mr. Nelden. The chair ruled that six votes was necessary to elect. jected, contending that a majority vote was sufficient. There was some controversy, in which several participated, when Mr. Newman ordered another bals lot. The second ballot resulted in Newman 8, Bamberger 1; the former was consequently declared elected. At the conclusion of President Newman's speech, Mr. Bamberger was elected vice president of the board unanimously, Mr. Moyle made a motion, which was carried, directing the superintendent to all for daily reports of the enrollment and attendance at each school on and In answer to Mr. Young, who asked if there was any reason for some of the teachers contending that the vaccinaorder applied only to pupils, Whitney, the school board's health of-ficer, explained that they had no rea-son for so contending. He further son for so contending. He further stated that there was no excuse for so construeing the order of the board in regard to the matter, for the letter of interpreting

Superintendent Cooper inte Superintendent Cooper explained that if there were any teachers who held to that position, that they were the few who did not attend the last general meeting when the announcement was made. He also said that he would write a circular to the several principals, making it clear that teachers must resent certificates of vaccination as well as the pupils or show other cause

Frank McGurrin and "Papa" Smith Mix it Quite Lively.

> Gore Was Plentiful and so Were Harsh Words and Blows - To be Settled in Court.

Frank McGurrin and Charles Smith Jr. were the principals in an impromptu slugging match, which was pulled off in the county clerk's office late yesterday afternoon.

The melee was brought on so quickly that the usual formalities such as articles of agreement, six ounce gloves, a referee, etc., were ignored. The decision will probably be announced in Judge Timmony's court next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. According to eye witnesses the bout was a draw, but then there is much to be considered.

There was plenty of blood, but just who drew first claret will have to remain among the mysteries.

It is said that about 4 o'clock Mr. McGurrin went to the clerk's office accompanied by an old lady from Sandy to learn something about the sale of some of her property for delinquent taxes. Deputy Clerk Seare was unable to give the desired information for the reason that Lou Johnson, who has charge of listing the property was not in. Mr. Smith, or "Papa" Smith, as he is generally known, was called to assist McGurrin in his search for information. After the records had been gone over Mr. Smith put them away. Mr. McGur rin objected to this proceedure, but "Papa" was obdurate. He went into the vault, followed by McGurrin, and the trouble began. Red hot words were as plantiful as relations in April as plentiful as raindrops in April.

Smith said something about "bully ragging" when "biff," landed the law-yer's right on Smith's nose. When "Papa" finished his study in astronomy, he made a pass at McGur-rin and both clinched. They fell to the floor together and were soon enveloped in a cloud of dust. It was allowable to "hit with one hand free" and, seizing a piece of wood Smith batted McGurrin over the eye. When it became possible to get hold of them, the combatants were pulled apart. A warrant, charging McGurrin with assault and battery was issued by Judge Timmony this morning, and Mc-Gurrin was told to appear in court Mon-
