

OUR OWN STATE.

The branch office of the Deseret News is at No. 466 Twenty-fourth street, where advertisements and subscriptions will be received. The News is delivered to carriers in Ogden every morning on the same terms as in Salt Lake City.

OGDEN NEWS.

OGDEN, UTAH, - MARCH 29, 1901.

DEATH OF M. J. LARSEN.

Submits to Pneumonia After a Brief Illness—Was 59 Years Old.

Poker Damage Suit Nearly Closed—Hearing Continued—Wright-Higgs Nuptials.

Martin J. Larsen, a well known resident of the Third ward, died Wednesday evening at 9:30 o'clock of pneumonia, at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. L. C. Williamson, 2048 Washington avenue. The deceased had been ill only a short time and death came very unexpectedly. He was 59 years of age at the time of his death; was a native of Sweden. The funeral service was held at the residence of his daughter at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. L. C. Williamson. Interment took place in the city cemetery.

DAMAGE SUIT NEARLY CLOSED.

The taking of testimony in the case of Mrs. Julia A. Perkins vs. the R. G. W. Ry. company et al was completed last evening in the Second district court, and today the arguments of the attorneys for the various railway companies and the plaintiff was being heard, and will no doubt be completed by the time of the jury this evening. The hearing has occupied a full week.

On the matter of the estate of J. F. Jones, deceased, a petition was filed praying for the appointment of A. S. Gordon as administrator.

EASTON CASE CONTINUED.

George Easton, the man accused of assaulting the Kogman child, was arraigned before Justice Joseph Hall. When Easton was asked what he pleads, he was unable to furnish, and was therefore turned over to the officers to hold for hearing.

WRIGHT-HIGGS NUPTIALS.

A marriage license was granted to Reese T. Higgs, 34, and Miss Jessie Wright, 20, both of Ogden.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

A. H. Curtis, of this city, has gone to Mississippi to make his home. Two more Southern Pacific 100 class engines have been received by the company in Ogden.

H. W. Sheridan, trainmaster for the Union Pacific at Green River, who has been in Ogden for several days, has returned home.

The fire department was called out yesterday afternoon to the residence of E. T. Woolley, which was thought to be on fire, but the blaze proved to be only a bonfire.

Readmaster McEates, of the Oregon Short Line, with headquarters at Salt Lake, was in Ogden yesterday on business.

There will be a meeting of the Public Library association this evening at the city hall for the purpose of considering the matter of the Carnegie gift.

Joseph Geoghegan, of Salt Lake, was in Ogden today attending to business.

John Reed, of Salt Lake, is visiting in Ogden, the guest of Mrs. A. J. Olson.

Sheriff Layne took J. H. Reddy to the State prison yesterday to which place he is sentenced to a six months' term.

W. W. Watts, Esq., was a Salt Lake visitor yesterday.

Joseph King, of Layton, is in Ogden signing up contracts with farmers for culmbers for the picking work.

Mrs. M. A. Kurtz, of Boise, Idaho, is visiting with friends in Ogden.

Another meeting of the Barbers' Union is called for next Wednesday evening.

Amiel, Supt. Parker, of Evanston, who has been in Ogden attending the Parker damage case, has returned.

George W. Hymanback, of Chicago, is in Ogden on business.

When you are bilious, use DeWitt's Little Pills to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe.

When children have earache, extract at once with BALLARD'S EYE, EAR, NOSE, AND THROAT REMEDY, and place it in the ear. It will stop the pain quickly. Price, 25 and 50 cents. Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

PROVO.

Preparations for Beet Planting—Death of Mrs. Mary B. Taylor.

Special Correspondence.

From Utah Co., March 29.—The Utah Beet company, of Provo, yesterday sent out beet seed to the farmers who will plant beets this season. It is expected that beet planting will commence in the latter part of April, although the weather is not yet settled. There will be a beet planting contest in this district for planting, operated by the following persons: Willard and Eugene Johnson, and Norman and Herman Knudsen.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY B. TAYLOR.

Mrs. Mary Browning Taylor died at her home in the Second ward, Thursday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock after a brief illness. She was 64 years of age, and was a native of England. She was married to William J. Taylor, who died on the 22nd of February, 1898, and she has since been in Provo. She has seven children five of whom survive.

Mrs. Taylor was a gentle, sympathetic and refined woman, devoted to her family and friends, and a most faithful Latter-day Saint. She was actively connected with the church, filling the position of treasurer many years, and was for several years a teacher in the Sunday school. She was all with heart, endeavoring herself. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock on Saturday at the residence of her son, Mr. Taylor, with seven children five of whom survive.

When you are bilious, use DeWitt's Little Pills to cleanse the liver and bowels. They never gripe.

When children have earache, extract at once with BALLARD'S EYE, EAR, NOSE, AND THROAT REMEDY, and place it in the ear. It will stop the pain quickly. Price, 25 and 50 cents. Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

gregationalists, Methodists and Baptists, commencing Sunday night, will be held in the Congregational church. Rev. Anna Smith, of Colorado, will address the meeting.

Mrs. Urquhart Lee's instructions in parliamentary proceedings and her lecturing on progressivism in the Brigham Young academy, are meeting with enthusiastic approval from those who attend.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ELIZA DEAL.

The funeral of Mrs. Eliza Deal, of Springville, was held in the meeting house of that city today. The venerable lady was in her eighty-sixth year at the time of her death. She was one of the first settlers of Springville and leaves a large family, her sons being among the leading business men of the county.

The Methodists will hold their third quarterly conference at this city Saturday evening and Sunday forenoon.

Ira Decker and Eugene Cluff, two young men of this city, left last night for Alberta, Canada, with the intention of locating there if the country suits them.

Prof. Wilson, of Lonaconing, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles he is cured. It has cured me entirely. I can say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.

F. C. SCHRAMM.

Are you sick? If so, investigate the merits of HERBINE. It is a concentrated medicine, containing the most gratifying results. It digests what you eat, and the lips and cheeks lose their pallor, the eye becomes bright and the step elastic. Price, 50 cents. Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

LOGAN.

Old Folks of Fourth Ward Entertained—Social to Prest. Fjeldsted.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., March 29.—Inquiry at the home of John A. McAllister of this city confirms the report that the gentlemen who have been offered the management of the Saltair Beach resort during the coming season, has accepted the appointment, but does not contemplate removing his family from their Logan home. Mr. McAllister is at present on a trip to Rexburg, Idaho.

OLD FOLKS ENTERTAINED.

The old folks of the Fourth ward were entertained in fine style by the ward committee yesterday. The affair took place at the meeting house, where dinner was served, a program rendered and a general good time enjoyed.

FIREMEN'S SOCIAL.

The Logan firemen enjoyed themselves in a capacity at a social given at the home of Chief Robbins last evening. The fire laddies with their wives and sweethearts formed the party, and refreshments, dancing and social converse served to pass a very pleasant evening.

FUNERAL OF LOUIS MEYER.

The funeral over the remains of Louis Meyer, who died at his home in Ogden from paralysis, was held in the Sixth ward cemetery yesterday. The speakers were Elders Nielsen, Ferdinand Jacobson and Orson Smith. Meyer was a former resident of this city and was well known hereabout. A peculiar request of Mr. Meyer previous to his death and which was complied with, was that he be buried in a black suit and a purple coffin.

FAREWELL SOCIAL.

President C. D. Fjeldsted, who leaves tomorrow for Scandinavia, is being honored this evening by a social party in Logan tabernacle. President Fjeldsted will take charge of the construction of Latter-day Saint churches in the larger cities of Scandinavia. This makes his fifth mission to his native land.

Mrs. Lisle Woolley, of Salt Lake, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Anna Knox, of this city.

A Pioneer Story of Freightmen in the Early Days of Utah, Narrated in the Saturday News.

The stomach controls the situation. Those who are hearty and strong are those who can eat and digest plenty of food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. If you suffer from indigestion, heartburn, belching or any other stomach trouble, this preparation can't help but do you good. The most sensitive stomach can take it.

F. C. SCHRAMM.

MANTI.

Business in the District Court Before Judge Johnson.

Special Correspondence.

Manti, Sanpete Co., March 29.—In the matter of Eliza Ludington vs. Rio Grande Western Railway company, Judge Johnson this morning rendered his decision denying the motion for a new trial. The motion was argued before his honor last week. A judgment was had in favor of the railway company. In January for the value of two horses killed by the company in the summer of 1900.

The defense in the great water case expects to rest by the end of this week. The numerous tributaries of the Sanpete river under controversy are being rapidly covered, the testimony being drawn out to show the time of making out the ditches, their volume and the amount and character of land under each. The case will not be finished till some time next week.

LEHI.

BEEF GROWING SITUATION.

Bright Outlook in Sanpete and Sevier—Arrival of Seed from Germany.

Special Correspondence.

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

Lehi, Utah Co., March 29.—Mr. A. D. Rhodes, the Utah Sugar company's representative for Sanpete and Sevier counties, just arrived home last evening with the prospect for a good beet crop is very bright in these two counties for the coming season. The acreage planted last year did not exceed the acreage planted here and the most progressive farmers of the respective settlements and they are very much enthused over the question. Again, the water outlook especially in the southern part of Sevier never looked more promising, and the

If the boy is under 16 and over 10 years, he can wear a two- or three piece suit, single or double breast, golf or regular, plain or Norfolk, blue, black or fancy. If made by us the garments will have a red Crescent on the collar and you must ask for Crescent Clothes. They will be in the latest New York style. Ask your dealer. Care McAlister & Co. Broadway, N.Y.

In Salt Lake City Only
J. P. Gardner, 136 and 138 Main Street.

land having practically been summer-fallowed last year the farmers anticipate enormous crops for the season of 1901. There are also localities in these two counties of some of the choicest lands in the valley which is being planted to beets for the first time and Mr. Rhodes is of the opinion that Sanpete valley will yet become a great beet growing country.

Mr. Rhodes has a lot of the citizens assembled at the State Home lot and tore away all the old hay sheds and corrals and moved them to a new location. It is designed to clean up around the premises and sow the lot to lawn grass in the near future.

ELECTRIC LIGHT TALK.

S. A. Benson of the Electrical Supply company of Salt Lake, was in town today agitating the putting in of a plant to light the residences of Morgan and Richville.