DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

VOL. VI. SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH TERRITORY, TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 14, 1873. NO. 275.

THE SLANDERER.

From heaven's four winds collect in one
All things most hateful 'neath the sun,
All things that blast, and sting, and kill,
All things that do, or emblem ill,
The frost that nips the opening bloom,
The blight that seals the flow'ret's doom,
The famine's hungry, spectre form,
The spotted plague and sweeping storm,
The quicksand's deep, engulphing snare,
The sunken rock that baffles care,
The adder's foul and fatal sting,
The panther's sudden, deadly spring,
The robber's grasp, and rifling hand,
The cloak'ed assassin's ruthless brand.
These fearful things collect in one,
And yet you'll find them all outdone—
Not by a flood's wide-sweeping tide,
Or fields where death and carnage ride:
Not by the lightning's scathing flash,
Or by the earthquake's whelming crash,
But by the slanderer's pest like breath,
That smites your name with worse than death;
That, charged with poison straight from hell,
Fouls all things, than plagues more fell;
That often dims young Genius' eyes,
That severs Friendship's fondest ties;
And often too has darkly spread
A cloud around fair Virtue's head.
Go then and search the world all round,
And naught so deadly can be found,
As that vile, creeping, hateful thing,
Whose heart is false—his tongue a sting.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

In Washington — Neither Dead nor Sick.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 13.—Ex-President Johnson has arrived here. The German Minister has received a dispatch from Berlin stating that Madame Bismarck is neither dead, as stated in published dispatches, nor even sick.

Meeting of The Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court met to-day, and immediately adjourned, that the justices might pay their annual visit to the President.

Bank Statistics—Death of Henry Clay's Private Secretary.

The comptroller of the currency, to day, issued circulars calling upon all the national banks for a report of their condition at the close of business on Friday, 12th of September, '73. The bank superintendent of the State of New York, has already called for a report of the condition of all the State banks in that State for the same day, so that complete statistics of all the banks, state and national, in the city and State of New York, can be completed from these returns when received. The comptroller has also solicited, this day, in order that he may be able to furnish complete statistics, the condition of the national banks of the whole country just previous to the beginning of the panic.

Colonel W. H. Russel, aged 69, died here to-day. He was Henry Clay's private secretary during his canvass for the presidency.

The examination of the Polaris survivors was continued by Secretary Robeson to-day, but the injunction of secrecy has not been removed.

Conway to be Prosecuted—Chance for Deserters.

Martin F. Conway, who was arrested on Saturday last for shooting ex-Senator Pomeroy, will have a preliminary hearing at the police court to-morrow morning. Pomeroy denies the statement that he will decline to prosecute Conway, and says a complaint will be entered by the officer who made the arrest. All who witnessed the shooting have been summoned, together with the ex-senator, who will also give testimony.

The Attorney General has decided that one-half the compensation chargeable for government dispatches over the telegraph line of the Western Union Telegraph Company along the Kansas Pacific Railroad, may be retained by the government and applied to the payment of the bonds issued by the United States to aid in the construction of the road.

The President has caused an order to be issued from the War Department, giving full pardon to all deserters who may return to duty on or before the 1st of January next, and who will serve faithfully during the remainder of their term of enlistment.

Fearful Loss of Life and Property.

A report of the movements and damage done by the great storm, Aug. 24th, has been prepared by the signal officer, from which it appears that 1,032 vessels, of which 425 were small fishing schooners, are known to have been destroyed on the 24th and 25th of August, in the neighborhood of the Gulf of St. Lawrence and the Atlantic shores of Nova Scotia, Cape Breton and Newfoundland. Over ninety vessels were destroyed by the same storm before reaching Nova Scotia, making a total of 1,122 vessels destroyed within a few days; 223 lives are definitely reported lost, and the most moderate estimate of the numerous cases in which whole crews are stated to have been lost swells the number to nearly 500; while, if to this be added the loss of life on land during the earlier history of the cyclone, the total amounts to at least 600 lives. The records also show about 900 buildings totally destroyed or injured.

Respect to Chief-Justice Chase.

After the adjournment of the Supreme Court to-day, to enable the judges to pay their annual visit to the President, a meeting was held to take measures concerning the death of Chief Justice Chase. There were present in the chamber Attorney-General Williams, Reverdy Johnson, General Butler, Senator Bayard, Messrs. Carlyle, Casey, Phillips, Otto, Pike, Ashton, Dodge, Durant, Bradley, Pascal, Merrick and many other distinguished members of the bar. On motion of Carlisle, Reverdy Johnson presided, and D. W. Middleton, Clerk of the court, acted as secretary. Mr. Johnson, in the course of his address on taking the chair, said the death of an eminent judge in even a State court was always a great calamity, but the death of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States was a still greater calamity, because of the greater extent of jurisdiction, and the greater importance of the questions to be decided. He felt sure he could assert with perfect truth that more pure, able and upright justice than those which adorned his court were not to be found in any country in the world, and, as the late Chief Justice, he was, in all respects, equal to his predecessors. When the appointment was made, although he had a high appreciation of his talents and ability as a legislator and officer of the Government, and was satisfied that he was truly a great man, he had his doubts concerning his capacity for a distinguished judicial position, but in this he was mistaken, for his decisions, involving many delicate and important questions growing out of our late civil strife, from the very first commanded the approval of the profession and of the country. He would bear to even conjecture who was to succeed in the Chief-Justiceship, believed, however, and he felt perfectly satisfied, from his judgment of the appointing and confirming power, that whoever shall be successor will be found equal to the task. In conclusion, Johnson said some consolation was to be found in the fact that, as a father, the late Chief Justice was tender; as a friend, steadfast; as a man, he stood high in the confidence of his countrymen, and he died as he had lived, a Christian.

Philip Phillips said he was satisfied that the members of the bar had listened with profound respect to the remarks of the chairman, and as there was no doubt that they found a response in every listener, he thought it unnecessary to offer any remarks, but would move the appointment of a committee to report such action as was necessary to be taken. A committee was accordingly appointed.

After an interval of a few minutes, Merrick reported a series of resolutions eulogistic of the character of the deceased, and tendering to his family the sincere sympathy of the meeting in their loss; and further that the Attorney General of the United States be requested to move in the Supreme Court that the resolutions be entered in the minutes, and as a further mark of respect that the members of the bar wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days. The resolutions were agreed to and the meeting adjourned.

Assassination.

CHICAGO, 13.—Patrick Lawless was stabbed and killed at midnight last night, in the southern part of the city, by James Walsh, who broke into a house and attacked the owner, one Wood. The murderer was arrested.

Will Resume.

It is announced that the Union National Bank of this city, which suspended during the recent panic and went into voluntary liquidation, has, at the solicitation of other banks here, and by permission of the treasury department, concluded to re-open to-morrow, and to continue business. The capital of the bank was large and unimpaired, and it is regarded as desirable by business men to keep it in the city. The result is hailed with general favor and saves a million of banking capital to the city.

Benefit for Shreveport and Memphis.

At the grand benefit in aid of the Memphis and Shreveport sufferers, at the Exposition to-night, the proceeds amounted to between $15,000 and $20,000.

Served him Right.

NASHVILLE, 13.—To-day James Hogan, a boy of 19, shot and killed A. M. Richard, proprietor of the Academy of Music, who had seduced his sister and refused to marry her. Hogan surrendered himself to the police.

Death to the Adulterers.

ST. LOUIS, 13.—Near Carrollton, Mo., last Friday night, Robt. Austin, a wealthy young farmer, who suspected the fidelity of his wife, announced his departure for St. Louis, but he returned to his closet in his bedroom, armed with a double-barrelled gun. Shortly after his wife retired, Elijah Haley, a young man, came in and prepared to retire, when Austin sprang out and fired one barrel at him, but instead of him it struck the wife, inflicting a fatal wound. He then shot Haley dead with the other barrel. Mrs. Austin died on Saturday. Austin surrendered to the authorities.

A Noble Deed.

CINCINNATI, 13.—The common council has appropriated fifteen thousand dollars for the relief of Shreveport.

Currency Payment Resumed.

All the banks and bankers of the Clearing House Association resumed full currency payment to-day.

Dead.

BALTIMORE, 13.—F. Parker Scott, Judge of the city court and presiding judge of the supreme beech of Baltimore, died to-day, aged 70.

Terrible Hurricane.

NEW ORLEANS, 13.—All the incoming vessels report encountering a terrible hurricane on the 5th and 6th.

The Clearing House association has established a two per cent. premium rate, to be collected for exchange for the present, upon bills and notes, which are made payable with exchange on New York.

The Evangelicals Visiting.

PHILADELPHIA, 13.—The delegates of the Evangelical Alliance were welcomed to the city at Independence Hall, this p.m. by Judge Pierce. Rev. Henry Ward Beecher made an eloquent address of welcome in the name of the whole country, reviewing the country's progress under Christian influence. Rev. C. Dallas Marsten, vicar of London, pasteur Fischeur, of Paris, Rev. Lowry E. Berkley, of England, Rev. Dr. Fouchet, of Italy, and the Rev. Narayan Sheshadra, of Bombay, made short addresses. The Dean of Canterbury closed the services in the hall with prayer, after which the delegates proceeded to the banquet of welcome, at the Continental hotel, tendered by the Philadelphia branch of the Alliance.
