The Herald's Washington special says: It has transpired that the Chinese minister has no authority to promise any modification of the treaty, so that what ever may be done will have to go through the hands of the Chinese Imperial government. This would require many months of delay in ordinary course of correspondence, and it is this knowledge which prompts the advocates of the bill to insist upon legislation as the only speedy way of meeting the question in time for the fall election in California.

FOREIGN.

BERLIN, 12.—The German Reichstag was, to-day, opened by the Emperor William in person. In his speech from the throne he thanked the members for assisting in the suppression of the socialist agitation, and hoped they would continue to support the government as far as was necessary for the cure of the socialist evil. He announced the abolition of article 5 of the treaty of Prague, and referred, with pleasure to the friendly relations with Austria, and the results of the Berlin congress. He declared the relations between Germany and all other powers as satisfactory, and that she would continue her influence in behalf of European peace.

BERLIN, 12.—In his speech, to-day, the Emperor referred to the plague in Russia. He said the latest reports justify the hope that the energetic measures of the Russian government will shortly suppress the epidemic, when traffic on the frontier will be restored on the neighborly feeling which befits friendly countries. Referring to the customs policy of the government the Emperor said: Our commerce has a right to claim that protection which legislation regarding customs taxes can afford and which is afforded, perhaps beyond what is necessary, in the countries with which we trade. My duty is to preserve the German market for articles of home production. We should revert to the well-tried principles which we, in our commercial policy since 1865, have abandoned. To put an end to the uncertainty of the people of North Schleswig, respecting their future destiny, the speech closed with the following sentence: The promotion and development of friendly relations with and among the powers is a task to which should be devoted the great power achieved by the German unity.

MONTREAL, 12.—Peter Mulligan, messenger of the United States postoffice department at Washington, was arrested for bringing into Canada money stolen in a foreign country. Expressing a desire for a summary trial, and pleading guilty, he was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary, the lowest penalty. The sum of $1,540, found with Mulligan, was returned to the agents of the Postmaster-General of the United States.

The Czar refuses to permit Roumania to be subject to quarantine. The Russian soldiers are returning from Turkey.

LONDON, 13.—Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in the House, this afternoon, said it was not desirable to exaggerate or depreciate unduly the severe blow in South Africa. There exists a general admiration for the gallantry of the troops and universal sympathy for the sufferers. The cabinet had resolved to repair and wipe out the disaster. The first batch of reinforcements leave before Thursday next. He recommended the abstinence of an expression of views upon the disaster until further details were received. The papers in the case had already been presented, and others will shortly follow. Then it will be possible to state the intended course to provide for expenses. I am, happily, able to congratulate the House and country upon a more satisfactory state of affairs in other parts of the world. The Russians have already begun to withdraw from Turkey, and there is every reason to hope for the complete evacuation in due time. The Chancellor praised the energy and skill displayed by Layard, the British minister at Constantinople in negotiations.

Northcote, in reply to Mure, liberal, as to whether the reinforcements asked for by Lord Chelmsford were withheld, drew attention to the blue book, which set forth that Lord Chelmsford's demand for infantry reinforcements was the only application, and was complied with. The Rubbottino line of steamers between Italy and Egypt has been discontinued. Importation of Egyptian cotton is prohibited at Palermo. A Greek corn-laden vessel, in attempting to enter the port, was waived off by a cannon shot.

The Daily News' Paris correspondent, who is a good representative of the opinion of the advanced section of the left, says it is rumored that the report of the committee on the acts of the ministry, of 16th of May, will present such a crushing case in favor of impeachment that the ministry will be unable to prevent the Chamber of Deputies from voting it. The majority of the special correspondents of the London papers, however believe that it will be rejected.

cause Liverpool is not registered. The ports so registered are London, Hull, Grimsby, Hartlepool, Newcastle, Plymouth and Sunderland. The committee decided to address a letter to the privy council, calling attention to the disastrous effect of the order on the port of Liverpool and the population of Lancashire and Yorkshire, and expressing the hope that the arrangements now making by the Liverpool dock board may lead the privy council, before the 3rd of March, to define a part of the port of Liverpool where foreign animals may be landed.

Nevertheless, the minister of commerce has ordered a quarantine of two days at French ports on the Mediterranean and in Algeria, including arrivals from the Black Sea and Sea of Azof, even when provided with a clean bill of health.

THE scarcity of Diamonds, Gold and Silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value.

Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kaiser's Celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom or put out a prairie fire with a tear.

Comfort and Relief for the Afflicted.

At last there has been an article found which is a certain cure for all Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing and all Affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, leading to Consumption, which is known as HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR. This remedy is compounded from the favorite recipe of Dr. Hale, a celebrated physician of Europe, who for many years used it with the most complete success in his extensive private practice. The beauty of this medicine is that the patient is not obliged to continue taking it for weeks before receiving any benefit, but on the contrary, the first few doses give relief. One bottle is sufficient to cure any ordinary cough or cold, and from six to twelve bottles cure the worst cases. Sold at all drug stores and at Crittenton's Central Medicine Warehouse, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York City. Prices 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Great saving by purchasing the dollar size.
