W. H. Paine, at one time a prominent figure in the colored population of Sait Lake, died at the county infirmary yesterday at the age of 65. He came here in about 1870 and was for many years industrious in politics.

A semi-vertical system of handwriting is to be experimented with in two of the public schools of this city as against the vertical which has been in vogue for some years past and which has probably resulted in turning out more plain writing pupils than most people imagine. Still there are business men who oppose it. These desire that a change be made.

Prof. P. A. The colored Baptists are to try it again. Two deaths and a resignation have beat them out of three pastors within two years; but still they are not discouraged, and are ready for another attempt. This is mostly due to the unflagging efforts of Rev. Bruce Kinney, the local Baptist missionary superin-tendent. He has been on a sharp lookout for some time, and has finally secured Rev. Charles C. Boothe of Pratt City, Ala., who has been in the ministry for 23 years. For some time he has been a special lecturer on Biblical exegesis at Booker T. Washington's Tuskegee institute, and has held positions under the Baptist Home Mission-ary society. SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the year was that of Miss Grace Jacobs and Lieut. S. A. White, which took place last night at the bride's home. Dr. W. A. Paden performed the ceremony to the strains of "Cavelleria Rusticana," the bridal party standing under a beautiful canopy of smilax caught overhead with a great floral bell. Capt. Harbeson was best man, and number of the intimate friends of the bride assisted at the reception. Lieut. and Mrs. White left at midnight for San Francisco whence they will sail shortly for Manila.

Another pretty wedding of vesterday was that of Miss Maud Lewis and Mr. J. L. Craig, the ceremony being per-formed at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. B. Lewis. Bishop O. F. Whitney officiated and later an elaborate luncheon was served, only the relatives and intimate friends being present. The rooms were effectively decorated, and the affair altogether a charming one. AUDITOR FELT GETTING ANXIOUS

Time to Make Up the Pay Rolls But No Information on the Salary Question.

APPEALS TO CITY ATTORNEY.

Also Calls on Heads of Departments For List of Employes Under Their Particular Direction.

An opinion will soon be handed down by City Attorney Dey upon the question as to whether or not the present city officials will be allowed the benefit of the increased salaries granted by the council last December, before the present administration took control of the municipality. Now that the first month of the new administration is about ended and it is time to make up the payroll of the city officials, City Auditor Felt is anxious to know whether he should make up the payrolls according to the salaries provided in the revised ordinances or whether the salaries shall remain the same as under the old ordinances.

AUDITOR FELT'S LETTER.

He has accordingly written for an opinion from the city attorney on that question. His communication is as

"Will you kindly advise me as to the legal status of the ordinance or ordinance passed by the late city council in December, 1903, relative to the salaries of the city officers, deputies, et al., as applicable to present incumbents of those offices?

"Can this office legally issue warrants to the present city officers, deputies, et al., in accordance with the salaries fixed by ordinance in December last?" SUPREME COURT DECISION.

The supreme court has held that the salaries of state officials can be raised during their term of office without con-flicting with the constitution or the statutes of the state. It has also held that a city council cannot change the salary of an appointive or elective officer during the term for which he is appointed or elected. The facts in onnection with this increase are quite different from those upon which the supreme court has had to pass, hence an opinion from the city attorney on the legality of the increase will be awaited with interest.

AN ECONOMY MOVE.

City Auditor Felt has also sent a partment of the city government, ask-ing them to furnish him with a list of employes, the position held by each, the amount of pay and the authorization for the employment of each person in all the city departments, so that the payrolls may be properly audited before being submitted to the council. ter of the auditor on that subject fol-

"Owing to the shortness of the time between receipt of the pay rolls for the first half of January and the meeting of the city council, and the appar ent absence of data in this office showng authorization for the employment of all the persons shown on said rolls, it is necessary to send the rolls to the council verified only as to rate paid and accuracy of extensions and foot-

"Such a condition is very undesirable and one that ought not to be perpetuated, hence I earnestly request you furnish this office with a list of your employes, showing position held amount of pay and when the council authorized such employment. Shold there be any person employed not expressly authorized by the ouncil, kindly inform me as to the ordinance, resolution or other general authority under which you act in their employment.

"An early reply will be appreciated, and it is desired that the next pay rolls may be properly audited and that without delaying their submittal to the Prisoner Got it from Jail Kitchen and Then Took His Departure.

Yesterday afternoon Officer J. D. Brown saw a man on the street begging. He promptly arrested the individual and took him to the police station. The man gave his name as James Halley. He was booked for vagrancy and ordered locked up. Through some mistake, he was placed in the kitchen of the new jail instead of in a cell. Halley was hungry and as soon as he recovered from his sorrew, he began to look about him. He saw a large pet of beans, a loaf of bread and other delicaies, and he fell to with a vengeance In a few minutes the grub was all gone Halley then looked about him again and o his delight discovered that a door leading to the outer world was un-locked. He opened it quickly and fied. Now they are looking for Mr. Halley.

Charles W. Needham Passes Away as A Result of Street Car Accident.

As a result of injuries received in a street car accident New Year's night, Charles W. Needham passed away at the Holy Cross hospital yesterday. As will no doubt be remembered, Mr. Needham, while alighting from a car at the corner of Fourth North and Fifth West streets, slipped and fell, the wheels of the car passing over his right leg. Two weeks later the limb was amputated, but the patient never ralled from the shock and died as indicated.

The unfortunate man had but one leg at the time of the accident, having lost the other through falling on the tee 15 years ago. We began very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by all Druggists.
