A testimonial sociable and dance will be given next Monday night, in the L, D. S. gymnasium to Robert L. Anderson, who leaves this month on a mission to Great Britain, Invitations for the event are being sent to Mr. An-derson's many friends.

Fish Commissioner John Sharp is shipping 40,000 young brook trout to Beaver county, where the fish and game warden will distribute them among the different streams. Mr. Sharp will ship Saturday, 40,600 young brook trout to the hatchery at Sampete for distribution among the streams of that part of the state.

The remains of Marsena Cannon, the late patrol wagon driver, were burled yesterday afternoon from the Chris-tian Science church in Mt. Olivet. The patrol wagon was driven in the funeral procession, profusely draped in black and white; and the pallbearers avera Sergt, John Roberts and Patrolmen Emil Johnson, Abe Randolph, Joe Bar-low, Thomas Miner and Joe Burt.

There will be civil service examinations held in this city Nov. 11 for the position of seed clerk in the department of agriculture with salary at $840 to $1,000; also for position of watch officer with the coast and geodetic survey, also on Dec. 9, 19, for the position of mechanical draftsman, bureau of en graving and printing, at a salary of

J. A. Ray, proprietor of the Morris House at Manitou, is a guest at the Kenyon hotel. Mr. Ray passed through the city 32 years ago from Hantbal, Mo., with a train of 65 wagons, registering at the Valley House, which was then the swell hotel of the town, while the outfits camped on "Jordan's stormy banks." Mr. Ray had heard alarming stories about the "Mormons." but says "We did see a good many Mormons in the settlements, and bought veretables the settlements, and bought vegetables of them. They seemed to be kind, in-offensive people, but our fears were not altogether quieted, as we had been so persistently warned and told of the Mountain Meadow and other massa-ores meet of which people have seen so cres, most of which probably never oc-curred. Coming along the Weber river I met one old fellow, who anxiously in-quired if the war between the states was over. I told him it was, and asked him if this was not a part of the Unit-ed States. He said, 'No, sir, this is the land of Zion,' and told me I was going

Assistant General Traffic Manager S. H. Babcack of the Rio Grande lines re-turned this morning from Chicago where he has been in consultation on raffic matters.

The beet traffic is now causing a shortage of cars. The Short Line is using some of its hopper bottom cars for the transportation of roots to the Logan factory.

The train from the north was 10 hours late yesterday owing to some coal cars leaving the track near Butte and a chapter of minor accidents en route to Salt Lake.

The Rio Grande hauled 27 carloads of sheep out of Heber yesterday. They were loaded by Ab Smith and James and Alfred Murdock and consigned to Kansas City over the Rio Grande and the Rock Island.

R. H. Ingram, superintendent of the Los Angeles division of the Southern-Pacific, accompanied by Superintendent Alger, J. H. Wallace and other South-ern Pacific officials, is working his way towards Ogden on the regular track inspection.

Do Good-It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that, "Good deeds are better than real esthate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a belping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appra-clate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community w.c. might truthfully say. "My good frierd, cheer up. A few dozes of Chamberlain's Cough Lienerdy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger whatever from pneumonia when you use that midtine. It always cures, I know it for it has helpest me out many a time." Sold by all druggists. Fold by all diuggists.

----THE SCOFIELD TRAGEDY.

Anthony Ginesky the Barkceper is Discharged-Other Phases of Affair.

The preliminary hearing of Anthony Ginesky, the Scofield barkeeper who was charged with complicity in the tragedy at Scofield on Sunday night, came to a close last evening and resulted in the discharged of the accused man, Following the verdict County Atty. Hanford filed complaints with the justice of the peace against Marshai Hun-ter and three other members of the posse named Heber Booth, James Wil-liams and Hebery Daniels, charging them with the murder of Bartinick. The men wars at other activity of the the men were at once arrested by Sheriff

Wilcox. During the preliminary hearing of the Ginesky case Atty, Braffet, who defend-ed, decidedly scored the marshal and his deputies, and claimed that the re-sponsibility for the tragedy was due to the lack of discretion shown by the to the lack of discretion shown by the officers who attempted to enter a pri-vate house and make arrests in the dead of night upon a musdemeanor charge without a warrant. # SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The D. A. R. society met yesterday at the residence of Mrs George A. Lowe, and a delightful program was given. Mrs. Breeden was chairman and the early history of the south was the topic of the afternoon. Mrs. Day of Ogden gave a sketch of the history of her family in Virginia and Kentucky, and Mrs. Hurst read two charming origin-al stories that have been published in eastern magazines. Miss Williamson sang, and after the program a pleasant sang, and after the program a pleasant social half hour was passed, light refreshments being served.

The L. D. S. University students will begin next week and hold matinees from 4 till 8 o'clock on Friday after-noons, the plan being to have informal programs of music, recitations and ad-dresses, to begin with, in Barratt hall, and dancing afterward in the sym-nasium hall. The plan promises to be both pleasant and popular. both pleasant and popular.

Miss Florence b. Parry who has been visiting in Denver for the past six weeks returned yesterday very much improved in health.

Mrs. Kate Ainsworth and Mrs. Thos A. Lee of American Fork, were married on Weinesday at the residence of Mr. John Foster, 661 west Third South street, Bishop William McMillan of the Twenty-eighth ward performed the ceremony. . . . .

Miss Edith Whitmore, daughter of State Senator Whitmore of Nephi and Mr. William Sparks, son of Edward Sparks the well knows druggist of Nephi, were marri d at the latter place last week. Both the young people are extremely popular and have hosts of friends who will extend good wishes,

Only a Very Few Fuhlished.

It is not possible for the prorietors to publish more than a very few of the to publish more than a very few of the numerous letters received in praise of Chamberlain's Colic. Cholera and Diarr, hoea Remedy and telling of its remark-able cures. They come from people in every walk in life and from every state in the Union. The following from Mr. T. W. Greathouse, of Prattsburg, Ga., speaks for itself: "I would have been dead now but for the use of Cham-herlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me of chronic diarr-hoea after seven years of suffering. I can never say too much in praise of that remedy." For sale by all druggists.
