Cough medicines, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is in greater demand than ever. No preparation for Throat and Lung Troubles is so prompt in its effects, so agreeable to the taste, and so widely known, as this. It is the family medicine in thousands of households.

"I have suffered for years from a bronchial trouble that, whenever I take cold or am exposed to inclement weather, shows itself by a very annoying tickling sensation in the throat and by difficulty in breathing. I have tried a great many remedies, but none does so well as Ayer's Cherry Pectoral which always gives prompt relief in returns of my old complaint."—Ernest A. Hepler, Inspector of Public Roads, Parish Terre Bonne, La.

"I consider Ayer's Cherry Pectoral a most important remedy

For Home Use.

I have tested its curative power, in my family, many times during the past thirty years, and have never known it to fail. It will relieve the most serious affections of the throat and lungs, whether in children or adults."—Mrs. E. G. Edgerly, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Twenty years ago I was troubled with a disease of the lungs. Doctors afforded me no relief and considered my case hopeless. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and, before I had finished one bottle, found relief. I continued to take this medicine until a cure was effected. I believe that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life."—Samuel Griggs, Waukegan, Ill.

"Six years ago I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs and soon developed all the alarming symptoms of Consumption. I had a cough, night sweats, bleeding of the lungs, pains in chest and sides, and was so prostrated as to be confined to my bed most of the time. After trying various prescriptions, without benefit, my physician finally determined to give me Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I took it, and the effect was magical. I seemed to rally from the first dose of this medicine, and, after using only three bottles, am as well and sound as ever."—Rodney Johnson, Springfield, Ill.

THE PATENT

Wire Gauze Oven Door

IS THE LATEST IMPROVEMENT ON THE

It Produces Practical Results in Baking and Roasting never before attained in any Cooking Apparatus, and will

Revolutionize the Present Methods of Cooking

ITS THEORY

Is that all Food Bakerd or Cooked, should be cooked in fresh air freely admitted to the oven. This is done by discarding the close oven door heretofore used, and substituting for it a door containing a sheet of Wire Gauze nearly as large as the door itself.

Through this Gauze Door the air freely circulates, facilitating the process of cooking, and producing food that is unequalled in flavor and nutrition, and actually cooked with less consumption of fue than in an oven with a closed door.

It makes an enormous saving in the weight of meat.

It also produces larger Loaves of Bread, requires less attention from the cook, and promotes the health of the family by the SUPERIOR QUALITY OF THE FOOD COOKED IN IT.

OPINION OF AN EXPERT.

MRS. MARY B. WELCH, Teacher Domestic Economy, Iowa State University, says: "My deliberate judgment is that the oven of the Range, as compared with others, is not only more equally heated in every part—front and rear—but as a result of its superior ventilation the food placed therein is better cooked, while retaining a sweeter flavor, and a larger proportion of its best juices. I find, also the consumption of fuel in this Range is much less than any other for same work.

A JAPANESE PRISON.

THE INTERESTING THINGS SEEN BY AN AMERICAN CORRESPONDENT.

With the exception of the Yoshiwara, of which plenty hereafter, the two prisons of Tokio are the most interesting things I have seen in Japan. These are, first, the great prison upon the island of Ishikawa, at the south of the city, and, second, the convict and female prison of Ichigawa, in the center of the city itself. The former is completely isolated, all communication with the main land being by police ferry, and contains 2052 men and boys, all of whom are serving terms of ten years or less. The latter contains 1400 men and 110 woman, among whom are many serving life sentences. There is a convict farm attached, and it is here that capital punishment is inflicted. Otherwise the two prisons resemble each other so closely that it is not necessary to distinguish between them in description.

The entrance is through a massive wooden gateway into a guard-room, adjoining which are the offices of the director and officials. The prison itself consists of a score or more of detached one story buildings, all of wood and some of them merely substantial sheds, under which the rougher labor, like stone breaking, is performed. The dormitories are enormous wooden cages, the front and part of the back formed of bars as thick as one's arm, before which again is a narrow covered passage where the warder on guard walks at night.

THE PUNISHMENT CELL.

On leaving the dormitories we passed a small, isolated square erection, peaked and gabled like a little temple. The door was solemnly unlocked and flung back and I was motioned to enter. It was the punishment cell, another spotless wooden box, well ventilated but perfectly dark, and with walls so thick as to render it practically silent. "How many prisoners have been in it during the last month?" I asked. The director summoned the chief warder and repeated my question to him. "H'tori mo gyzaimasen—none whatever," was the reply. "What other punishments have you?" "None whatever." "No flogging?" When this question was translated the director and the little group of officials all laughed together at the bare idea. I could not help wondering whether there was another prison in the world with no method of punishment for 3000 criminals except one dark cell, and that not used for a month. And the recollection of the filthy and suffocating sty used as a punishment cell in the city prison of San Francisco came upon me like a nausea.

A Japanese prison may be divided into two parts—dormitories and workshops. Of cells or prison buildings, properly speaking, there is nothing whatever. Walking across the yard we entered the workshop, where a couple of hundred prisoners were making machinery and steam boilers. One warder, armed only with a sword, is reckoned for every fifteen men, and here the prisoners were working on contract orders for outside firms, under the supervision of one skilled teacher and one representative of the firm giving the contract. So it was in the fine art department and every other of the score of workshops.

A CURIOUS FACT.

Prisoners employed at the higher classes of labor are credited with one-tenth the sum received for their handiwork. But as the work was so good and the running expenses seemed so light I was much surprised to learn that the prison was not yet self-supporting, only seven-tenths of the total cost being realized from the sale of prisoners' work. Another curious fact is that every adult prisoner is detained for six months after his sentence expires if he is not claimed in the meantime by his friends, and until he is of adult age if he has not reached it and is unclaimed. These prisoners wear blue instead of red, after their sentences have expired.

The women's quarters at Ichigawa is separated from the men's by a high wooden fence and gateway guarded by a sentinel, and consists of two or three dormitories and one large, comfortable workshop, where all the 110 are employed together at labor let out by contract. When I was there they were all hemming silk handkerchiefs, each seated upon the matted floor before a little table, and very neat they all looked and very pretty some of them, with their loose red gowns and simply twisted hair. "Those are forgers," said the officer, pointing to three of them; "I do not like them to be so pretty." One of the women had a young baby beside her, and another of them, as she glanced up at us, showed a face entirely different from the rest, pale, sad and refined, and I saw that her hands were small and very white. Is was Hanai Ume, the most famous geisha of Tokio, famous for her beauty, her samisen playing, her dancing, her pride, and most famous of all for her affaires d'amour.

A Fresno What Is It?

J. B. Olinger, who lives ten miles east of this city, brought to town yesterday a most remarkable animal or reptile. Mr. Olinger discovered the creature immediately after a heavy shower which fell last Thursday afternoon. The animal was found under a shake panel. Mr. Olinger is strongly of the opinion that the reptile came down in the shower, as it is amphibious in its tastes. The reptile resembles somewhat a Gila monster. This resemblance is only in form, however. The Gila monster is of a dirty yellowish color, with dark spots, and is exclusively a land animal.

The Olinger reptile is eight inches long, four of which compose the body and four the tail. So perfectly does the division of the measurement exist between body and tail that there is not the breadth of a hair difference in favor of either part.

The color of the reptile's body is of a chocolate hue covered irregularly with yellow spots, which extend from the head to the tail. The spots on the body are oval in shape, while those on the tail are larger and elongated in form. The animal has four legs, each leg terminating with five bright, yellow toes. From the jaws long nails protrude, showing that the animal has never been subjected to the manicure. The belly of the animal is a bright yellow, while its head resembles that of a catfish. It has two small, bright, but treacherous eyes.

The reptile likes to be partly submerged in water, and is at present confined in a keg in the Expositor office. Many local naturalists have inspected the animal, but cannot define to what class of the natural kingdom it belongs or what its habits are.—Fresno Expositor.

WOULD STAY WITH A SHIP.—"Have we provisions enough in this boat to last us until we can reach land, captain?" anxiously inquired one of the shipwrecked passengers as the life boat pulled away from the sinking wreck.

"We have everything that was on board," replied the captain, "except a dozen or two Limburger cheeses."

"Vas tere a tozen Limburger cheeses on dot ship, captain?" demanded another passenger.

"Yes."

"Und you don't got any on dis boat?"

"No! What do we want of—"

"Captain, put me back again, righd avay! I'll shtay mit de ship."

A QUEER MARRIAGE FEE.—"When I was living in Middletown, Kentucky," said Dr. Morrison, "I was called upon to marry a young couple, which I did. After the ceremony, the groom said nothing about a fee. A few days later I met him on the street, and, calling me off to one side, he asked me if I would be willing to take my fee in something besides money. I told him that would be all right, and he left me, promising that I should not be forgotten. The next day he kept his word. He sent me a load of wheat straw, a stack of hay, and a jug of molasses."—Atlanta Journal.

Little Dick had been listening to the recitation in geography of an older brother. "I know what an island is," sa'd he to mamma.

"Well, what is it?" asked mamma.

"It's a little piece of land all fenced round with water," proudly answered Dick.

WIVES AND DAUGHTERS.

You have often seen them with pale faces, poor appetite, head and back ache, symptoms common to the sex. Fathers and mothers, lose no time in securing Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y.

My Thoughtful Wife induced me to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, (made at Rondout, N. Y., you know,) and after two weeks' trial I was completely cured of malarial poison, associated with impure blood and derangement of the whole system. I had previously tried other preparations without any benefit. Thanks are due my wife and Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.—Thos. G. Spence, 104 12th St., South Brooklyn, N. Y.

A Fortunate and Grateful Woman.

Mrs. J. H. Giles, of Everett, Pa., says:—I suffered for many years from Kidney and Gravel troubles. The pains from the gravel were simply awful. Besides I had other complaints common to my sex. No physicians or medicines at home did me any good. I finally visited my former home in Rondout, N. Y., and began using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made in that place. A few words tell the result. I am a happy and perfectly well women once more. Thanks to Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

Dr. David Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y.

Some time since I was troubled with blotches coming out on my breast of a scrofulous character, and my general system seemed to be out of order. I was induced to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. I did not begrudge the dollar, for the first bottle drove the eruption away, and I feel better every way. I consider it a splendid blood medicine, and I hope my testimony may induce others to use it.—Henry S. Eldridge, Rochester, N. Y. NOTICE OF REDEMPTION

Of Salt Lake City Bonds of 1880.

To whom it may concern:

IN PURSUANCE OF LAW AND BY virtue of authority vested in me by a resolution of the City Council of Salt Lake City, adopted October 30th, A. D. 1888, I, Francis Armstrong, Mayor of Salt Lake City, do hereby notify and inform all persons owning or holding any of the coupon bonds of Salt Lake City Corporation, bearing date of June 1st, 1880, Series B, numbered from 51 to 400 inclusive, of the denomination of $500 each, and drawing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, that each and all of said bonds have been called and required for redemption by the City Council of Salt Lake City, and that the principal thereof will be paid in full on or after the 1st day of December, A. D. 1888, upon presentation of said bonds at the Deseret National Bank, Salt Lake City, Utah Territory, and notice is hereby given to all persons interested that all interest upon said bonds will cease and determine and the coupons attached thereto (except coupon number 17, for interest for six months ending December 1st, 1888) will become void and of no value from and after said date.

Witness my hand and the corporate seal of said city this 30th day of October, A. D. 1888.

FRANCIS ARMSTRONG, Mayor.

Attest:

HEBER M. WELLS, [SEAL] City Recorder.
