

SOCIETY

SOCIAL CHAT

Christmas festivities have played the important part in social festivities this week, a large number of dinners being given mostly of a family order though many included guests. Among the latter events was the large dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Druehl covers being laid for about a dozen guests. The decorations were done in festoons of holly, evergreen and ferns, with red shaded lights, and a Christmas tree and dancing followed the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bransford also entertained at a Christmas dinner, covers being laid for eight guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb entertained a half dozen guests at Christmas dinner and afterward the party attended the theater.

A pleasant affair took place at the Ladies' Literary club house on Tuesday night when Clarence Bamberger and Harold Lamb were hosts at a "toy" dance, the decorations all being in toys and a Christmas tree being the central feature, with genuine toy gifts for the guests, and all details being carried out ingeniously to further the design. Mrs. Bamberger and Mrs. J. T. Harris were chaperones and all of the guests dressed as dolls or in representation of toys.

About 35 children were entertained at a party by Mrs. R. C. Woodruff on Christmas eve, a Christmas dinner served and followed by a Christmas tree which contained gifts for the little ones. The rooms were bright with holly, wreaths and festoons, and a pleasant time spent.

Leut. and Mrs. A. B. Shonke entertained informally at dinner at the post on Monday night, their guests numbering about a half dozen.

One of the large events to take students promenade to take place at the university on Feb. 7, elaborate preparations being in progress. The hall will be profusely decorated in college, class and fraternity colors, with unique arrangements and social features will enliven the affair.

Gov. and Mrs. Cutler will keep open house next Tuesday afternoon.

The Salt Lake Electric Light company gave two theater parties this week for their various employes.

Ernest Gaylord entertained at a box party on Tuesday.

The University club gives its annual reunion affair next Monday night at the club house.

Miss Elizabeth Allen will give a skating party next Monday evening, followed by a supper at the Allen home, 329 First street.

The United Commercial Travelers give their annual ball tonight at the Eagles' hall.

Mrs. La Forgee held an informal reception in her parlors Christmas night from 7:30 p. m. to 9:30, at the Mantion.

Miss Edgardo Wedgewood, Miss Fort Martin and Miss Ruth Corum will entertain the senior class of the High school next Monday evening at the Wedgewood home on Second street.

Miss Hazel Calder entertained informally at her home on Tuesday night.

Miss Estelle Langford will give a watch party New Year's eve at her home, 701 Second street.

Miss Florence Fuddenhall will entertain at a New Year's party Tuesday evening.

A delightful event of the week was the cotillion given on Thursday night by Miss Anna and Miss Genevieve McCormick at Unity hall, about 50 being present. The hall was decorated in the holiday colors the way and there electric globes being hung with wreaths while the chandelier had ribbons, and Christmas emblems being all about. The favors were pretty and unique and assisting in the affair were Mrs. Arthur Bird, Mrs. J. E. Caine, Mrs. Mont Perry, and Mrs. Randolph Thompson of Helena, Mr. J. E. Caine led the german with the two hostesses, consecutively.

On Thursday Mrs. E. S. Wright and Mrs. George Read received informally at the home of Mrs. Wright, the rooms being prettily decorated in reds and greens and a number of friends being present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rod were guests of honor at a dinner given last night by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Borund.

At the university last night the Alpha Phi Fraternity gave a large dancing party, the hall being bright with holly and Christmas colors, and a large number participating in the festivities.

Yesterday the Daughters of Utah Pioneers gave a housewarming in their newly arranged quarters at the Lion House, pioneer relics being all about and a pioneer tea served consisting of doughnuts, dried apple pies, "composition" tea, and other old-fashioned viands, which were brought as "pic-nic" by the members.

Mrs. Martha Boyce King gave a song recital last night, introducing her pupil, Miss Hallie G. Foster, in an entertaining program of songs.

On Thursday Miss Helen Evans entertained a few friends at "Yvonne," the Christmas idea prevailing in tulle and other decorations and a pleasant afternoon spent.

Miss Mary Olive Gray will give two "Merry" recitals next week, a junior pupils' recital on Thursday at 2:30 o'clock, and a senior pupils' recital on Friday at 8 in the evening. Recitals will be given by the members.

On Wednesday night the Misses Fowler, Kimball, Van Cott and Gales were hostesses at a dancing party at the Fowler home, about 50 guests being present. Christmas greens and reds adorned the rooms, mantels, handbellers and walls having a profusion of the evergreen, holly and mistletoe, while strings of red bells ramed the doorways and windows, an orchestra stationed in the lower hall, and a screen of greens, furnished music for the dancing, and punch was served during the evening by Mrs. June Sadler, Donnell, Miss Adie Zane and Miss Jasmine Young.

Last night the "Firm High Five Club" gave a card party at Downing's, all hand-painted china being awarded the winners as prizes.

The annual junior assembly with

Wallace Bredemeyer and Harold Fitch in charge gave their annual dance at the Ladies' Literary club last night, the officers and ladies of Fort Douglas being guests of honor. The interior was brilliantly decorated in the prevailing Christmas emblems, and chaperoning the affair were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fitch, Mr. and Mrs. E. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mont Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Jay T. Harris and Mrs. Bredemeyer.

Miss Marguerite Jessup gave an informal afternoon affair today, a number of intimate friends being present.

The Gamma Phi Sorority of the University of Utah has issued invitations for an informal dancing party, to be given next Friday night in the Museum building. The patrons and patronesses include President and Mrs. Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Byron F. Cummings, Prof. and Mrs. Fred Reynolds, Prof. and Mrs. Young and Capt. and Mrs. Wells.

Mrs. E. P. Mulhall and Miss Mulhall of Idaho Falls were guests of honor at a box party at the Salt Lake Theater this week.

Miss Hanauer entertained informally on Thursday in honor of Mrs. Joseph Young of Denver, the rooms being prettily decorated, and a number of mutual friends being present.

Miss Estelle Clinton entertained her bridge club on Thursday night.

Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Pfoutz entertained a number of young people at their home on Thursday night in honor of their son Yale who is spending the holidays with them. Dancing was the feature of the evening and about 30 guests were present.

A number of parties are arranged for the Schumann-Heink concert on Monday night, and among the hosts will be Mr. and Mrs. L. Hanchett.

AN ADDITION TO DIPLOMATIC SOCIETY.

The probable appointment of James Bryce, chief secretary for Ireland, to succeed Sir Henry Mortimer Durand as British ambassador to Washington, will bring to the capital one of the most charming hostesses in all England in the person of Mrs. Bryce. A handsome woman, she has been long renowned for her delightful charm of manner and her position in Washington in the topmost strata of the diplomatic corps will be one in which her many gracious qualities will have ample opportunity for unassuming exploitation.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pearson will entertain at a buffet supper tomorrow night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Young of Denver.

Mrs. J. L. Franklyn gave a bridge tea yesterday in honor of Mrs. G. L. Nye about eight tables being played. The rooms were prettily decorated, the parlor in red and green, and the dining room in yellow, narcissus being the flowers and candles with yellow shades, adding the table adornment. Prizes in the way of fancy hat pins were awarded the winners at each table. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Park and Miss Weber.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Evans celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary last night in an informal card party at their home, 20 guests being present, and enjoying the game of "300." The Christmas decorations prevailed and the place cards were hand painted in the same colors.

COMING AND GOING

Miss Rose Evans who is attending the Bennett school on the Hudson is spending the holidays with her grandfather in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Moffatt are spending the holidays with Mrs. Moffatt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rulon S. Wells.

Mrs. G. T. Odell and family and Mr. Joseph H. Richards and family are spending the winter season at Long Beach, California, where they are living at 717 West Ocean avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Odell are spending the holiday season at the Waldorf Astoria, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Mills of Richmond, Ind., are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Evans.

Mrs. E. L. Miles left this week for her former home in Virginia.

Judge and Mrs. A. B. Sawyer and Miss Gussie Sawyer are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grover Brown in San Francisco.

S. C. Sherrill, accompanied by his daughter Sibyl, left on Tuesday evening for Tennessee and Florida, where they will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kenworthy and family will leave shortly for their future home in Pueblo.

Mrs. I. C. and Miss Rosemary Glaze left Wednesday for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ramsey of Fayetteville, Ark., are visiting Mrs. Ramsey's sister, Mrs. L. M. Smith.

Miss Louise Betts left yesterday for Denver, where she will spend the holidays with friends.

Mrs. Wayne Hemphill will resume her Tuesdays at home for the winter at 123 J street.

Miss Cecelia Sharp has gone to Rexburg, Ida., to visit her mother, Mrs. Sharp, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bransford will spend the next two or three months in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Snell have gone to Caldwell, Ida., to spend the holidays there.

Mrs. T. L. Mitchell left this week for Los Angeles.

Miss Emma Lucy Gates left Thursday for Chicago, where she is to sing before Manager Newman. She goes from there to New York, where she will spend the winter with Miss Maud May Eabcock, and later they will sail early in April for a six months' stay abroad.

Miss Pearl Savage leaves this week for Washington, D. C., where she will spend several weeks, and then will go to Chicago, where she will study vocal music under the tuition of Madame Ancella M. Fox at the Chicago Musical college.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cohn and Miss Sylvia Cohn have returned from their European trip. Miss Edna Cohn remains in New York for a while longer.

Mrs. E. F. Root, who has spent some two months in the east, returned to the city Christmas eve.

Mrs. Jacob Moritz has gone to New York for a stay of two months.

Miss Betsy Taylor of Idaho Falls is visiting Miss Virginia Shannon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fitch and their daughter, Miss Maude Fitch, are home from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Halbert S. Kerr will leave Jan. 3 for Peru, where they will make their home.

Miss Virginia Beatty has gone to Evanston, Wyo., to visit Mrs. E. E. Chapman.

Mrs. E. W. Glidden of Mercer is visiting for the holidays with Mrs. Melva Rawlins, 185 K street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ravenal McBeth, who have been in the east for some time, are expected back today and will be at home at Whitehall.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Russell of Minneapolis are visiting in the city.

Mrs. Lyndon H. Wheeler is in Idaho spending a few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bunick.

Mrs. Stanley M. Brown has gone to Seattle, where she will visit with her

WEDDING BELLS

Among the announcements of the week was that of the approaching marriage of Miss Rosemary Glaze to Mr. Wright of Los Angeles, the date of the wedding being some time early in the spring. Miss Glaze left this week with her mother, Mrs. I. C. Glaze, for Los Angeles to remain for some time.

A pretty home wedding of the week was that of Miss Henrietta Stein and Joseph A. Blumberg which took place on Thursday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Lowenstein on Third street. Rabbi Freund and Rev. Bilsky officiating in the ceremony with only the near relatives and friends present. The maid of honor was Miss Ella Lowenstein, and the bridesmaids, Misses Jean Glaser and Sophia Beckman, while Mrs. R. S. Stein, the bride's mother, was matron of honor. The bride gown was of ruffled silk over taffeta, and the bouquet held the roses. The bridesmaids wore white and the maid of honor pale blue. The little sister of the groom was flower girl, and the ribbon bearer, Shoshanna Lowenstein, and Herman Shrivitsky. Mr. Ben Stein was best man and the ushers Mr. Sam Stein and Max Otterheimer. The rooms were handsomely decorated, and an elaborate wedding supper was served, after which the bridal pair left for a short trip. They will be at home on their return at No. 7 Hawkes court.

The marriage of Miss Mary Pattison and Myron Blackett took place on Christmas night at the bride's home. Father Kearns performing the ceremony, Miss Florence Pattison attending the bride and John Pattison acting as best man. The rooms were prettily decorated in holly and chrysanthemums and a wedding supper was served from a table made picturesque with flowers and greenery. The bride's gown was of white silk mull beautifully trimmed in white lace and the bridesmaids wore white dotted swiss. Mr. and Mrs. Blackett were away for an eastern trip, after which they will return here to reside.

Another wedding of the week was that of Miss Elizabeth Orth and Rudolph Kuchler of Ogden, the ceremony being performed in the parlors of the Wilson by Judge Armstrong in the presence of a few intimate friends and the young people leaving immediately for Ogden, where they will reside. The bride is a niece of John Dooly of this city, and has been for some years supervisor of the primary schools in Ogden. The groom is a well known business man and is a representative in the Utah legislature.

At St. Paul's on Wednesday Miss Anila Hoagland of Idaho and Charles Cecil of this city were married. The ceremony being performed at noon by Rev. C. E. Perkins.

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday, Dec. 27, 1906, at the home of Mrs. M. J. Lambert, Park City, when Miss Pearl Lambert was married to Mark E. Bezzant of American Fork. The guests were the immediate relatives. After the marriage the young couple took the train for American Fork where they expect to make their home. A pleasant reception awaited them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant of American Fork where a few friends joined them in the wedding supper and the best man of American Fork serenaded them. The bride is the daughter of the Deseret News traveling man, R. G. Lambert.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE LIVES

OGDEN.

Ogden.—The leading social event of the week was the marriage Wednesday of Miss Elizabeth Orth and Rudolph Kuchler, prominent young people of Ogden, at the Wilson hotel, Salt Lake City, District Judge Armstrong performing the ceremony in the presence of but a few friends and relatives. After the ceremony they returned to Ogden and went east to spend their honeymoon. The bride is one of the most popular and talented young ladies of Ogden, possessing a charming personality. For several years she was Primary supervisor of the Ogden public schools. Mr. Kuchler is a member of the Utah state legislature, and a progressive and influential young business man. Many friends extend their best wishes.

Martin Cullen, wife and granddaughter have gone to the coast to spend the winter.

Miss Mabel Goates of Lehi is visiting in Ogden for a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Caldwell.

Miss Tillie Peterson is spending the holidays at Logan with friends.

Royal Eccles returned home this week to spend a couple of weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Eccles.

Among the brilliant social events of

NOVELTY A LA MILITAIRE.

Tight-fitting military coats in dark blue, gray or tan cloth are smart style. Those of woolen persuasion are especially pretty if the wearer possesses a good figure. They should never be worn with other than perfectly plain skirts. The model illustrated, shows a box-plaited skirt edged with fancy black braid matching that which is used to finish the front and bottom of the coat. Dark-blue velvet collars and cuffs are designed to give a pretty finish to this severely styled costume, made in this instance of dark-blue serge.

The holidays was the marriage at noon Christmas day of Miss Florence Anderson to Mr. Frank Hendershot, in the presence only of the relatives of the contracting parties and a few friends. Mrs. F. J. Hendershot. He is a deputy in the office of the county clerk. Mr. and Mrs. Hendershot will make their home at 363 Twenty-third street.

Miss Fricella and Anna Frisby entertained the Pallas club members Friday night at the home of Mayor Frisby. The gathering was an enjoyable and charming social event, the evening passing delightfully with music, song and games and the discussion of dainty refreshments.

Miss Fern Monk entertained Miss Zella Deal of Springfield, Christmas day.

Mrs. H. S. Pyne and daughter entertained at a Christmas dinner and family reunion Christmas day. A large number of members of the Pyne and Arrowsmith families were present and enjoyed a most happy social gathering.

Miss Ruth Matley visited relatives in Spanish Fork this week.

One of the most pleasing gatherings

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Larkin entertained a large number of relatives and friends at their home Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gray and daughter spent Christmas day in Ogden, leaving Wednesday for their home in Chicago.

A pretty home wedding took place Tuesday evening at the home of Aaron Bybee at Riverdale, when Miss Agnes Bowman was pronounced the wife of Lee Bybee by Elder Samuel G. Dye. A reception was tendered the young people, which was attended by about 75 couples. The bride is the charming daughter of Mrs. Emma Bowman and the groom a son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Bybee.

Miss Josephine Nelson and Joseph Oliver, two popular young people of Ogden, were married Monday evening by Judge J. A. Howell. A reception was tendered them in the Boyle block.

Delbert B. Hughes and wife of Salt Lake City spent Christmas in Ogden with relatives.

A large number of dancing parties were given this week.

PROVO.

Provo.—Mrs. Amelia Nelson and family spent Christmas with Mrs. Nelson's sister, Mrs. C. M. Osterman, at Sandy.

Mrs. C. A. Glogler was the hostess at a family dinner Christmas; covers were laid for 11.

Misses Stella and Eva Young entertained a number of their friends Sunday evening at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar B. Young.

Mrs. Mary E. Ashworth entertained at dinner Christmas day. Covers were laid for 20.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Beasley are here from Moab, visiting Mr. Beasley's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Nibley have gone to Salt Lake to remain for several weeks, visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Merrill Nibley of La Grande, Oregon, is visiting relatives in Provo this week.

Miss Addie Super of Salt Lake is visiting Provo friends.

Miss Pauline Pierpont entertained a number of her young friends at a skating party at Eldred's Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock. The evening was spent at Miss Pierpont's home with music, song and games. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Edith Spencer spent Christmas with relatives in Salt Lake.

Miss Allie Emoot is visiting Salt Lake friends.

Miss Esther Reese is visiting friends in Taylorsville and Garland.

Mrs. E. T. Harding entertained Monday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Harding, corner of Center and Seventh West streets. A large number of guests passed a delightful social evening with games, readings, music and song. Delicious refreshments were served.

County Recorder and Mrs. E. T. Jones were in Spanish Fork this week attending the Greer reunion on the 27th and 28th.

The Fourth ward Sunday school superintendent entertained the officers and teachers in the ward house Wednesday evening. A most enjoyable social evening passed with an excellent musical and literary program, and the enjoyment of refreshments.

The members of the Pallas club were entertained Thursday evening by Miss Bertha Barney. The guests spent a delightful social evening; a fine impromptu musical and literary program was rendered, games were enjoyed and a sumptuous collation served.

Miss Alice Boyle of Eureka and Mr. Thomas W. Davis of this city, were of the week was the McEwan family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. McEwan. The dining room with tully. A large number of children and grandchildren were present, and made the event one that will long be remembered by all that were present. An elaborate dinner was served.

Miss Allie Smoot is enjoying a three weeks' vacation with relatives and friends in Salt Lake City and Ogden.

Miss Mina Houston spent the holidays with her relatives in America Fork.

Mr. and Mrs. William Roynance delightfully entertained a number of their friends at their home Wednesday evening. An elaborate dinner was served, and a pleasant social evening enjoyed with cards, music and recitations. About 20 guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Holton spent Christmas at Lehi, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Smith.

Mrs. John Strong was the hostess at a family dinner Christmas day at her home in the First ward. About 20 children and grandchildren enjoyed a sumptuous dinner and social afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAdam entertained at a Christmas dinner, covers were laid for 10.

Miss Cora Ward, who is employed as teacher at Mt. Pleasant, is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ward, in this city.

Mr. W. C. Close of Forrest Reserve has gone to Washington, D. C., to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Theriot entertained at dinner Friday afternoon in honor of Mr. James Henrie, Jr., father of Mrs. Theriot. Covers were laid for 10.

Miss Estelle McClellan and Mr. Edward Bowen of Draper were married Christmas day at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Sara Stoddard of Payson. Mr. and Mrs. Paulson of Murray.

Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Heindelman entertained at a family dinner Friday evening. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Mary Cliff was the hostess at a dinner party Thursday.

Royal indeed was the Christmas entertainment given by B. L. Nunn at Olmstead to the employees and their partners of the Telluride Power company. Perfect in every detail were the arrangements. The reception room was prettily decorated with ferns, holly and evergreens, the dining room was elaborately decorated with red and white, and American beauty roses were abundantly used. One hundred and two sat down to the banquet, which was served in 12 courses. The day was passed in dancing, music and feasting. The Mozart orchestra and Garden City quartet were in attendance.

Probably the most elaborate home social given in this city for some time was the one given Christmas day by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yates, in honor of Miss Arvilla Clark, just returned from Germany. The rooms were artistically and elaborately decorated. Streamers of white and red satin ribbon extended from the corners of the rooms to the center of each where large red bells with electrical effect cast a most delicate glow throughout the room. A small Christmas tree formed

Prepared—Not Manufactured.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate is prepared, not manufactured. There's a difference. It is made by Nature and prepared by Ghirardelli. The Ghirardelli process simply renders available all the natural goodness of the cocoa bean. That's why it is so pure, delicious, satisfying and health giving, and that's why everybody likes it so well.

Ask your grocer for it. Be sure that you get it.

Ghirardelli's Ground Chocolate

If I Could Talk To You

I know that I could convince you that Kosmo is unequalled for ladies' use, and that it is delightful for men to use after shaving, but I can only talk to you through my announcements, and a woman is handicapped when she can't use her tongue. As I can't talk to you personally, I will do the next best thing—let Kosmo talk for me, and if you will

Ask Your Druggist For a Free Sample

I am positive that even a sample box will convince you that Kosmo is the most effective skin stimulant you have ever used, and that it is delightful.

A Large Jar Only Costs 50c, but if you want to try Kosmo before you buy it, your druggist will give you a trial box absolutely free. Is that a fair offer?

Mrs. Gervaise Graham, Chicago.

AN ACCEPTED FUR MODE.

The most favored design of collar and muff this season is here illustrated, made of well-matched, very dark mink skins. The stole effect of the collar shows the dark lines of the fur to excellent advantage and is made to fall to the knees. Long, brown tails decorate the ends of the stole and form a pretty finish for the barrel-shaped muff, that is minus the usual adornment of mink heads, considered by many one of the most fascinating of fur trimmings.