Wyoming Warehouse Picked Up by Wind and Deposited on R. R. Track.

(Special to the "News.") Centennial, Wyo., Jan. 22.-The big warehouse of the Carbon Timber company is being laboriously moved from a sidetrack of the Larmie, Hahn's Peak & Pacific, where it was deposited by a Wyoming whirlwind several days ago. The warehouse was built beside the track. A miniature cyclone lifted it bodily and deposited it squarely on the track. No other buildings in the town were in the path of the twister and no other damage was done. There was no one in the warehouse when it was lifted and the building was deposited so gently on the track that very little damage to it resulted. warehouse of the Carbon Timber com-

COUNTERFEIT MONEY MEN.

Clever Capture Made in Ogden Postoffice Yesterday.

Ogden, Jan. 24 .- A clever capture of counterfeit money-vendors was effected here yesterday through the watchfulness of the postoffice officials. Alfred fulness of the postoffice officials. Alfred Frank and Charles Kelly are the names given by the two men now under arrest and a third man is being searched for by the police.

According to the story told by the men now under arrest, by sending $2.50 to an eastern firm of curlo dealers, they received in return bills of the Merchants & Planters' bank issue, of various denominations, amounting to $50. These bills were in halves, so that the purchaser could place his own silk threads between them and then dispose of them for the full amount named on the face.

In a letter accompanying a consignment of this bogus currency that arrived at the Ogden postoffice yesterday was the instruction:

"If you have any trouble in disposing of this, advise us and we will exchange it for other goods. In case the bills are to be returned do not fold change it for other goods. In case the bills are to be returned do not fold or crease them."

This is taken to indicate that the "curio" dealers are doing a large business in selling the bogus money. ness in selling the bogus money.

The man who gave his name as Kelly inquired at the general delivery window for mail addressed to James Carter. A letter was found there addressed to "James P. Carter," and the question arose as to whether it was intended for the applicant. Kelly insisted that it was, and offered to permit Assistant Postmaster Rufus A. Garner to open it Garner refused, but insisted that Kelly open it himesif. When this was done, the assistant postmaster saw the done, the assistant postmaster saw the letter contained what appeared to be new bank bills. He demanded an examination and found that it was the bad currency. Kelly was detained until the arrival of the police. Some time later Franke called at the office and treathed as to whether or yet. Certain inquired as to whether or not Carter had called for his mail. He, too, was turned over to the officers. A third man, who accompanied Kelly, when he first appeared at the postoffice, is be-ing sought for, but as yet has not been located.

In addition to notifying the govern-ment officials the case has also been referred to the Chicago police.

AMUSEMENTS.

Herbert Witherspoon, the

Herbert Witherspoon, the basso cantante, was welcomed by a crowded house last evening, in the First Congregational church. That he fully satisfied his audience was evident from the fact, that he held it to the last note of the last number. Even then the singer acknowledged a final recall, everybody resumed their seats to hear him give "Annie Laurie" with such a poetically emotional and touching rendering, that even then the audience would have gladly waited for an answer to a second final recall.

Mr. Witherspoon is an engaging singer. He is more than that, he is a finished artist, for in all the departments of vocal expression he was entirely at home, and in the matter of interpretation of vocal portraiture, he showed himself a master. Mr. Wi'herspoon's voice is eminently singing in its quality; its timber is rich, volume full and round; it is resonant and under admirable control. He is also versatile in adapting his voice to every requirement of the score, both in actual note and spirit; he is entirely without affectation, and his musical intelligence and temperament are beyond question. A noteworthy feature of the performance was the artist's perfect glissando interchange from chest to head tones, the latter ranging well up into the higher register, with not a flaw or suggestion of conscious effort. Mr. Witherspoon is an easy, graceful singer, with excellent intonation. He sang a program of 22 numbers and two encores, without scores, although he did have in his hands the words of several on small slips of paper, and kept his handkerchief tucked in his sleeve—just like a woman. The artist seemed at home equally well, in opera, cratorio, German. French and English, as well as in Irish and character skits. His volce ranges from the low E, which he took in "Annie Letirie," up to G above the staff. The reception he met with lear anight, must have been very gratifying to him. Mrs. Witherspoon proved an excellent accompanist.

She said almost since the day they were married, in 1906, Grow had been a poor provider and that she had not had nearly all she required in the way of clothing and food. She said that recently she has been compelled to rely in part upon her father for her support, and that of her two children. She took in washing, she said, cleaned gloves and sewed for her living. A sewing machine, which she had bought with her savings, she declared, was being held for a $24 board bill. She had asked for alimony and a portion of her husband's mining properties in her complaint, but in court this morning she said that she would waive these demands.

Will Hopkins Pleads Guilty Following The Saloon Arrests.

In Judge Diehl's court this morning. arguments were heard in the case of the City vs Will Hopkins, Joe Riley, George Smith and W. F. Craig, charged with gambling in the Fleur de Lis saloon. The men were placed on trial yesterday afternoon and Policemen Manning and Smith testified that they saw a game going on and that Smith saw a game going on and that Smith asked to get into the game. He was told that it would cost him $2. He testified that up to that time nothing was done that would warrant an arrest.

Manning testified that he understood poker and that he had acted as dealer several times in Salt Lake.

Attorney Soren X. Christensen, for the defense, contended that no prosecution could be had as the officers were accomplices and their uncorroborated testimony could not be considered. The matter was argued at some length this morning and then the motion to dismiss was withdrawn. Phecity asked for a dismissal as to all the defendants except Hopkins who entered a plea of guilty and was fined $25.

A HUGE DEFICIT

Chairman Tawney of House Committe on Appropriations, Makes Announcement.

THE AMOUNT IS $100,000,000.

Calls Attention to the Fact Not for Purpose of Creating Alarm But as a Duty

Washington, Jan. 28,-Chairman Tawbey of the house committee on appropriations today called up the urgent eficiency appropriation bill.

Mr. Tawney said that on the face of the estimates submitted to Congress for the next fiscal year, the country was confronted with a certain deficit of $100,000,000. The estimates, therefore, would have to be materially revised and the figures reduced.

Mr. Tawney declared that he deemed it his duty to call attention to this fact n order that expenditures may be kept within estimated revenues.

within estimated revenues.

"I do not make this statement for the purpose of exciting alarm," he said. Mr. Tawney made it plain that there would be no new appropriations this session for rivers and harbors or public buildings, for, he said, his calculations did not include this.

Mr. Mann of Illinois referred to the promisese of both parties that, if successful at the next election, they would revise the tariff, and inquired of Mr. Tawney if it was not true, always immediately preceding a revision of the tariff, there was a great decline in the custom receipts of the government,

Mr. Tawney replied that such was the case and said there was always a decrease in the revenues as well.

Mr. Mann asked, also, if it were not true if the estimates of the secretary of the treasury were based on former receipts and did not take into consideration the fact that the tariff would probably be revised and that the receipts would fall off, "so that," he added, "unless Congress is economical, if our Democratic friends prevail, they will come into power with a mighty deficit."

will come into power with a mighty delcit."
Mr. Tawney responded that the estimates did not take into consideration the matter referred to by Mr. Mann, nor the effect on the revenues of the government resulting from the recent financial depreciation. The estimates were made prior to the money strin-gency and before the revenues began to fall off.

"Is the gentleman ready to guarantee ravision of the tariff provided the Republicans prevail next November?" asked Mr. Livin, ston of Georgia.

"No," said Mr. Tawney; "and I am not willing to guarantee that there will be a tariff revision if the Democrats prevail in November."

November.

Mr. Tawney's warning was seized up-on by Mr. Underwood of Albama as the ext for a lengthy discussion of the re-cent first cial oppression. Mr. Hadertext for a lengthy discussion of the recent first cial copression. Mr. Underlength first cial copression. Mr. Underlength first causes of the property of duced that depression. The country, he said, was prosperous and there were no exterior causes. It was not an act of God. It was not because of fire, pestilence or famine, crop failure or dearth of money, but because of a lack of confidence. It therefore had been demonstrated, he said, that so far as the Republican party was working for the prosperity of the country it had dissolved partnership with God, "because all that the Almighty has produced in this country has been lavished bountifully upon it, and only the Republican party has failed in its part of the partnership."

The method of making appropriations was criticized by Mr. Keifer of Ohio, who said it was unbusinesslike.
He favored increased fortifications, and said that if, for instance, Pearl harbor and, perhaps, Manila were properly fentified. "Tree would was the telling."

said that it, for instance, rear har-bor and, perhaps, Manila were properly fortified, "we would not be talking so much or hearing so much about a for-eign war, and we would not have had to incur the millions of expense in sending our fleet of 16 battleships around the Horn in order that we may show that we have some spirit left for show that we have some spirit left for war if war should come."

FOUR FIREMEN KILLED IN BALTIMORE FIRE.

Baltimore, Jan. 24 .- Four firemen

Baltimore, Jan. 24.—Four firemen were killed tonight and 15 injured, including Chief George Hor.on, by the falling of the wall of a burning oulding at the southeast corace of Holliday and Saratoga streets.

The bodies of Lieut, Fredrick Harmen, James Barrack, August Schriver and John Sleed, all of No. 3 engine company, were taken from the burning wall. Chief Horton's skull is said to be fractured and he is injured internally. It is feared that he will die. Those killed were badly mangled.

The fire broke out a short time after midnight in the upper part of the building occupied by the firm of J. Regester & Sons, at the southeast corner of Holliday and Saratoga streets.

Regester & Sons, at the southeast corner of Holliday and Saratoga streets. The first alarm was followed by a general one, which called out all the apparatus in the city. Then, because of a high wind from the northwest, the fire spread rapidly and in an incredibly short time the north wall of the building fell into the narrow

A four-story building in the rear, occupied by the E. B. Read & Son company soon caught fire and burned very flercely.

RAPIDLY RETURNING CLEAR-ING HOUSE CERTIFICATES

New York, Jan. 24.—When business closed yesterday all but $11,200,000 of the $97,000,000 in clearing house certificates issued by the Clearing House association during the recent financial flurry, had been retired. Since Monday $7,800,000 of the certificates have been taken up, nearly $2,000,000 a day. It is believed that practically the whole of the amount outstanding will be wiped out by the end of the week and that early next week the clearing house will again be on a strictly cash basis. The fact that money is now flowing into the banks in large quantities is emphasized by the fact that the retirement of the certificates was simultaneous with the return of $10,000,000 of the emergency deposit made by the government during the height of the flurry. The highest rate for call money yesterday was 2½ per cent, most of the loans being made at 2 per cent and some of them at 1½.
