IRRIGATIONISTS MEET IN EL PASO.

Roosevelt Says Irrigation is One of Means for National Expansion Which is Most Important.

LETTER FROM DIAZ OF MEXICO

Senator W. A. Clark Delivered Anqual Address -- Committees Appointed.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 15 .- The Twelfth National Irigation congress was called to order today by Senator William A, Clark of Montana, its president. The hall was decorated with the colors of Mexico and the United States. The attendance was fully up to expectations. There is a large amount of work for the convention. The city is everywhere decorated with American flags. Music is furnished by Mexican bands, including one specially tendered by President Diaz.

The morning session was devoted to addresses of welcome and responses thereto, Congressman W. R. Smith of thereto. Congressman W. R. Smith of the Sixteenth Texas district extended a welcome on behalf of the state. Willam B. Phillips spoke for the state university, and Capt. T. J. Bealf for the city. Responses were made by Chford Pinchot of the United States geological survey, W. C. Johnson of Denver, C. A. Carlisle of South Bend, Ird., and I. L. Smith of Hood River, Or, Senator Newlands of Nevada, Gov. Párdes of California and Gov. Morrison of Idaho also delivered addresses at the morning session. delivered addresses at the morning ses-

LETTER FROM ROOSEVELT. The following letter from President

Roosevelt was read: CI wish it were possible for me to accept your kind invitation to attend the National Irrigation congress to be held at El Paso. I need not state to you the deep interest I feel in the cause of national irrigation. Irrigation is, in very fact, one of the means for national expansion which is most important. Wishing you a successful meeting, I am truly.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT." resident Diaz of Mexico also sent a letter regretting his inability to be present. It was as follows:

LETTER FROM DIAZ.

Mexico City, Oct. 21, 1904.- Hon. Wilham Andew Clark, president Twelfth National Irrigation congress, New York, Dear Sir: I have received the courteous and esteemed invitation which you were kind enough to extend to me for the interesting meeting of the National Irrigation congress, which will be held from the 15th to the 15th of next November in the progressive city of El Paso, Tex. As much for the importance of the transcontinental matters which will there be treated of as to reciprocate the kind invitation with which you favor me. I would take sincere pleasure in attending if my official duties would permit; but they are absolutely the only ones which deprive me of that great satisfaction, and I must content myself with being with you, though absent from your meeting. With sincere wishes that the most complete success may crown the intelligent and patriotic work of the illustrious congress over which you preside (and which will undoubtedly influence powerfully the solution of the many problems relating to irrigation and the forest industry), the government thus understanding it, the partment of fomento and some of the governments of the states of this republic will be duly represented in that assembly by their respectively tions. I am, very truly yours, "DIAZ." assembly by their respective delega-

PRESIDENT CLARK'S ADDRESS. This afternoon President Clark dein part as follows:

"Active operations for the construction of dams and canals and other improvements are now going on in Artzona, Nevada and Idaho. For other projects in California, Colorado, Wyoming and Montaha available sites have been selected and adopted, estimates are being made and contracts will be let in the near future. In all these cases sums have been set aside ranging from two and one-quarter mil-lion dollars to three million dollars to carry on the work when the contracts are completed. "In order to prevent private appro-priation of land and water rights by speculators in the localities which seem to be applicable to the provision of the law the department of the interior has withdrawn from entry large areas of land in the several states and terri tories, amounting to 43,500,000 acres, of al amount of land available for irrigation has been variously estimated to be from 50,000,000 to 60,000,000 acres, which, when made productive, will sustain a population of from 20,000,000 to 25,000,000 As the government cannot proceed until the titles are properly vested in it, it is evident that rapid progress in every locality cannot be expected. The work is being prosecuted in 13 states and three territories, and all possible projects are being examined. Some of projects are being examined. Some of them, which upon the surface seem easy and feasible, are found upon care-ful examination to be entirely impracti-cable and their abandonment sives rise o disappointment and adverse oriticism

"The reclamation fund will be reimbursed for every dollar expended in the course of time by the settler for the price of the land to which he acquires title and the cost of the improvements which shal be assessed to him. No rurns can be expected for some years turns can be expected for some years of come, and under the 10-year installment plan the reimbursements will be very slow. After 10 years the receipts will be very large and they may be reinvested in new improvements. In the neantime the aid of the government thould be invoked.

'Sufficient has already been accomplished to arouse a national interest in the importance of this work. Whatever benefits one section of this Republic cannot fall to benefit the whole country, and this scheme is not a sectional one, as the welfare of more than one-half of its entire area is involved, and the indirect contribution to the national prosperity of the other half is incalculable. The east must depend upon the west for its food supplies and likewise for a market for its manufactured pro-ducts. This is the kind of reciprocity that enriches the country—genuine American reciprocity.

There were two letters from President Roosevelt. One said in part: "The best use of the public land is that made by the man who has come to stay. You should make yourselves the guardians of the future and prevent the waste of the great national resources of the country." He said irrigation and all other interests of the country were in-terlaced, as irrigation would make the west prosper, and if the west prospered, it would cause other sections to prosper as a result,

FIRE IN JERSEY CITY.

A Large Amount of Dressed Meats in Cold Storage Burned.

New York, Nov. 15.-A considerable quantity of dressed meats in cold storage was incinerated, much valuable property was destroyed and many blocks along the water front were threatened by a fire that raged for several hours in the United Stockyards in Jersey City early today. Whether any human lives were lost is not yet known, but it was reported that three watchmen employed in the building in which the fire started had not been accounted for. The damage is estimated at $100,000.

The fire started in the cold storage room of the plant and is thought to have been caused by an explosion of ammonia. In spite of all the efforts of the firemen the fire crept steadily along the piers, at last approaching dangerously near the great stock piers where thousands of cattle, sheep and hogs were confined. The Eric Railroad company's big grain elevator, containing thousands of bushels of grain ready for export shipment and the property of the Berwind-White Coal company was seriously threatened, but the flames were fought back before serious damage was done in that direction.

W. A. Sherman manager of the stock-yards, said that the loss might go to $150,000. It is believed that no human lives were lost.

BY PRESIDENT'S ORDERS. J. L. Brownlow Dismissed from Postoffice Department.

Washington, Nov. 15 .- John L. Brownlow of Tennessee, a clerk in the post-office department, who acted as disbursing officed of the department at the St. Louis exposition, was dismissed from the service today by order of the problem the service today by man of the president. Brownlow was charged with impertinence and insubordination, and as he declined to withdraw his offensive language his dismissal followed.

While Postmaster-General Payne was yet alive, he wrote Brownlow, directing that he send to the department a statement of his receipts and disburse-ments. In response Bronwlow forward ed the aggregate sums of his receipts and disbursements. The postmaster-general then ordered him to submit to the department an itemized statement of the moneys he had handled. This Brownlow declined to do, accompany ng his refusal with statements to the osimaster-general which were considered offensive. He evidently feit that he demand of Mr. Payne was a reflec-

The canal comnitte of the diet, composed of the lead ers of the party controlling the diet ias decided to support the measure for a canal connecting Hanover with the Rhine and the canalization of the Weer from Hameln downward, provided Fremen will bear part of the expense. The canal uses about 60 miles of the existing Dortmund Ems canal and will have two outlets into the Rhine, one from the present terminus of the Dort-mund Ems canal to Ruhrort, and the econd down the valley of Lippe t Wesel. The canalization of the Lipp river will also be carried upward Hamm. The total length, exclusive of the Weser, will be 165 miles. The cost ill be about $5,000,000. The the Berlin-Stettin canal and other proects was postponed, The committee's action is regarded as nauring the passage of the measure through the diet in its present form. HAWAH WANTS MONEY.

Would Issue More Bonds for Public Improvements.

San Francisco, Nov. 15.-A. L. C. Atkinson, secretary of the territory of Hawali, arrived here today on the steamer Alameda, for Washington where he will consult with the secre tary of the treasury regarding the status of the coming issue of Hawalian government bonds, amounting to $1,000,000. An issue of $1,000,000 was made last year, and Secy. Shaw allowed the bonds to be used as security for national bank deposits, thus greatly facilitating the territory in floating them ov. Career has received advices indicating that, owing to changed finanullowed the same privileges again and Atkinson is going to make arrange ents for the bonds. The $1,000,000 be used for public improvements.

New York, Nov. 16 .- In pursuit of their desire to assist the poor and uplift the deprayed. Robert Hunter and his wife, the daughter of the multi-millionaire Anson Phelps Stokes, have forsaken their country residences in Noroton, Conn., and their mansion in Madison avenue for a small brick house in Grove street, on the lower West Side. Both have devoted several years to work in the slums and were married two years ago while Mr. Hunter, formerly of Chicago, was in charge of the University settlement.

The decision to settle in Grove street The decision to settle in Grove spreet was made after long study of the conditions in the lowly quarters of the city. Both Mr. Hunter and his wife have intimate knowledge of the East Side and for a long time they were inclined to make their home there. But their investigations led them west of Washington Square and in and around Minetta Lane they found the best demand for the work they had in mind.
