on the Missouri, Kansas, and Texas reached this city to-day. The regular passenger train leaves here for the north. Old settlers say this was the coldest morning ever experienced in Northern Texas, the thermometer standing at 10 degrees below zero.

MEMPHIS.—To-day is the coldest known here for 20 years, the mercury range from 10 to 15 above zero, the day. The river is filled with heavy ice and navigation is entirely precluded.

NEW YORK.—The entire block and west side of Centre street, between Leonard and Worth, was burned this evening. The flames broke out near the boiler in the basement of the building Nos. 81, 83 and 85 Centre street, and spread rapidly to the upper floors, whence they spread to adjoining buildings, 87, 89, 91; also 79 and 77 Centre street, and 120 and 122 Le-ward street. In 81, 83 and 85 the following parties were losers: New York

Journal Company; Dun Barlow & Co., printing office; Anderson, Archer &

Co., book bindery; in 87, J. Gallagher, dealer in brass goods; in 89 and 91 were the law offices of J. B. Bunnell, and a paint shop and the dwelling, and 77 by E. Wilkins, as a liquor store; 130 and 132 Leonard street were occupied

losses were $100,000. The fire was extinguished by 11 o'clock, and the total loss is estimated at $500,000.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—The examination of Benj. J. Jones, Edwin T. Jones and Edward Hall, inspectors of election, who permitted the vote of a man to vote at the late election before the U. S. Commissioner, A. P. Ely, on charge of perjury, was postponed to be concluded to-day. John E. Pound, Deputy U. S. District Attorney, made an argument in behalf of the prosecution, and Miss Anthony appeared as counsel for the inspectors, and made an able argument in their behalf. The decision of the commissioner is not yet announced.

The argument in the case of Susan B.

Anthony was concluded on Tuesday before Commissioner Starr. The decision was postponed until Thursday next.

SEMPRA.—Twelve wooden buildings in the business portion of the city were destroyed by fire this morning and a large hotel, the Empress Hotel, was burned. Loss $30,000. Curley's carriage factory, adjoining, was slightly damaged.

Barnum's losses are variously estimated at from $300,000 to $300,000.

Loss to Lawrence, $200,000, insured.

Curley's loss is $120,000, insured.

Read & Co. various dealers, lost all their fixtures and stock. Remworth, manufacturer of piano strings, lost all his stock, $20,000, insured. The only animals saved. When these were led out by their keepers they were given a large space by the crowd witnessing the fire, although the animals were very docile considering the excitement on all sides. The front of the building was two stories and composed nearly entirely of corrugated iron and wood.

The structure burned however as though it was a tinderbox. The firemen and others were unable to stand within a hundred feet of the burning building.

The heat was so intense that the windows of the Academy of Music were scorched and broken with the heat.

The doors were blistered and the bill boards in front of the Academy were burned on the side towards the Circus, and there were great fears for the safety of the Academy. Nothing could be done to save any of the animals. The Chapel was wholly consumed, only the front walls being left standing. The wind caused the fire to extend across 15th street, destroying the animals in the large carriage manufactory of Stevens & Co., and several private dwellings.

The fire next spread to the mansion of

NEW YORK, 24.—About a quarter past four this morning the policemen arrested five persons connected with the circus directly over where the giraffes were kept, and immediately after the animals and birds began howling and screaming and in a few minutes an alarm was sounded, but the flames spread with such rapidity that almost before the firemen could get to the water any of the animals could be saved. The firemen report that the animals were so frightened during the short time they lasted. Two elephants and a camel were the only
