

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES

WOODS & MCCORMICK REAPERS.

We, the undersigned, having been present at a trial exhibition of the Woods and McCormick Self-Binding Reaping Machine, were called on to give a testimonial of the quality and abilities of the two machines as to their performance in this exhibition, we witnessed the work of both machines carefully, and took upon the Woods machine as being a little the highest draft, the most simple of construction and the fewer in the discharge of the grain. But in the cutting could see no particular difference, and consider both machines a success, and done their work well in standing grain.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

MISSIONARY MEETING.

All Home Missionaries of this State are particularly requested to meet at the Council House, on Friday evening, the 25th inst., at half-past 7 o'clock.

ANGUS M. CANNON,
DAVID O. CALDER,
JOSEPH E. TAYLOR,
Presidents of the State.

Rehearsal.—The members of the Theatre orchestra and all others who will take part in the concert to-morrow evening, will meet, for final rehearsal, at half-past seven this evening, at the Theatre.

"News" vs. "Herald."—Nine of the employees of the DESERET NEWS establishment having caught the base ball fever, have sent a challenge to the nine favorites of the Herald Office, to play a match for the championship among the type fraternity.

Wedding.—Last evening, Mr. Frank W. Jennings, son of the Hon. Wm. Jennings, and Miss Maggie Kimball, daughter of H. P. Kimball, Esq., were united in the sacred bonds of matrimony. The ceremony and reception took place at the residence of the bride's parents, 18th Ward, Judge Elias Smith officiating, and were attended by a numerous assembly of relatives, friends and acquaintances, who joined in the congratulations, compliments and festivity of the occasion, with a zest which showed the general good will and happiness that prevailed. The young couple have a promising future before them, with everything in their favor, and it is with pleasure that we add our sincere compliments to those already given, and wish the young married pair a prosperous journey through time, and the ultimate happiness which results from living a pure, useful and upright life.

Benefit Entertainment.—To-morrow night, the grand variety concert, in aid of the New Tabernacle building fund, will take place in the Theatre. By reference to the programme, which appears in this evening's issue, it will be seen that the management have spared no effort in the selection of talent and the preparation of a list of entertaining features, to make the occasion one of thorough and unusual attraction.

The names of such old favorites as David McKenna, W. C. Dunbar, Sen., Mark Croxall, and Miss Nellie Colebrook, will be sure to draw well, while those of Miss Olsen, Miss Nebeker, Messrs Owen, Whitney, Foster and others, will insure the success of the amateur portion of the bill. Besides the Theatre orchestra, the Tenth Ward Brass Band, the Union Glee Club, the Fifteenth Ward choir, and Captain Berkeley's martial band, will contribute their valuable services to the success of what cannot but be a complete and most enjoyable affair. We hope the public will turn out in force, and fill the building from pit to dome.

The Birch-Boyd Shooting Affair.—A Leeds correspondent, under date of July 19th, forwards the following particulars of the late shooting affair at that place.

"Mr. Birch was discharged by the Justice of the Peace this afternoon. He was acquitted by a coroner's jury, after which a complaint was entered by the prosecuting attorney of the county, and a full investigation was had before the committing magistrate, and, after a full examination of a large number of witnesses, Mr. Birch was discharged, on the grounds of self-defence. The evidence showed that George Boyd was held under bonds of $1,000 on November, to keep the peace, especially toward Mr. Birch, and that on the day of the shooting Boyd went twice to Mr. Birch, to get up a quarrel, the last time following the latter with a pistol in his hand. Mr. Birch, going into the store, standing at the door in the act of shooting, when a shot was fired from the inside, missing Mr. Boyd. Mr. Birch, a shot into the store missing Mr. Birch. Another shot was fired from the inside, resulting in the death of Mr. Boyd. The ball struck about six inches below the nipple, in the left breast. The evidence further showed that Boyd had threatened Birch's life, and that, two hours before the shooting, he swore he would kill Mr. Birch before sundown. The general sympathy of the people of Leeds and Silver Reef is with Mr. Birch, and even friends of Boyd consider it justifiable homicide."

Extending the Borders.—On the 20th of last March, Elder J. Z. Stewart, of Draper, left here for Pueblo, Colorado, on a special mission to explore for a location upon which the Saints who emigrated from the Southern States last year could locate. On arriving at Pueblo, three of the brethren, Milton Evans, George Wilson and A. G. Bagwell, were appointed to accompany him in his search. They were advised by ex-Governor Hunk of Colorado, to proceed to Conejos County. They acted upon his counsel, there found a good location, and purchased two Mexican claims. They put in some grain, but, being late in the season, could not do much. Three families were removed to the new quarters, a dozen cows were procured for them to milk on shares, and the balance of the people remaining at Pueblo, where work is plentiful, till next spring, agreed to furnish those on the location with necessary support.

The land taken up is located between the Conejos and San Antonio rivers, and is six miles north of the New Mexican border line. It is a fine level country with considerable meadow land, wood in easy proximity and abundance of timber in the mountains, lumber being only $1.50 to $2 a hundred feet. The water is fresh, clear and plentiful. There are fish in the streams and game abounds in the shape of deer, geese, ducks, &c.

Having accomplished his mission Elder Stewart left near the close of June, and proceeded to Illinois, visiting relatives in Adams and Pike counties. He conversed with a great many people upon the principles of the gospel, and had one opportunity of preaching in public. It had been announced that a clergyman would deliver a lecture near a place called New-town, but the people getting a misunderstanding, assembled a week too early, so Elder Stewart was invited to address them. He responded, taking for his subject the "Necessity of the gift of the Holy Ghost." His remarks were most attentively listened to. He returned home about a week ago, accompanied by his cousin, Mrs. J. Eels, and her daughter Rowena, who have come on a brief visit to Utah.

Returned Missionary.—This morning, we received a call from Elder James E. Mallin, who returned from a mission to the States, last evening, to which he was called by the voice of the General Conference in the fall of 1877. He left here on the 18th of November, of that year, and has been laboring in Wisconsin, during his absence, in company with Elder Robert Elwood, and later with Elder C. H. Wheelock, in the city of Fond du Lac.

He did but little public preaching, but visited considerably, and, with the other brethren, published a pamphlet on "Mormon" doctrines, which proved very effective in the dissipating of error, and enlightening the minds of the people regarding the true character of the Latter-day Saints and their religion. Four persons were baptized, and quite a number of others believed the gospel, but lacked the moral courage to embrace its principles, in the face of the world's opposition and contumely.

The Elders met with many signs of courtesy from persons in public and in private life, especially from a gentleman, Jesse Beckley, Esq., at whose house they stayed some time. A paper called the Champion, and from its frank, liberal tone, evidently correctly named, in Fond du Lac, published an extended interview, between its editor and the Elders, in which the following comment occurs: "However we may differ from them (the 'Mormon' missionaries) in our views, we believe that any man, in the advocacy of any cause, if his motives are peaceable and lawful, has a right to a respectful hearing. These gentlemen have every evidence of sincerity in their faith." The same editor cheerfully agreed to publish a series of articles, to be written by the Elders from time to time, on Mormon history and religion. Elder Wheelock, being in delicate health, went back to Council Bluffs to stay during the hot weather, and is now much better, and well cared for by kind friends.

Sanpete Sunday Schools.—We have received a brief report from Mount Pleasant, Sanpete County, regarding the condition of the Sunday schools, throughout the northern part of the county.

Chester has a fine, little Sunday school, superintended by Brother Cowles, in which the Bishop, R. N. Alfred, sets a worthy example by acting as a teacher.

At Freedom, Bishop Draper is superintendent of the Sabbath school, and probably every child in the place, old enough to attend, is enrolled as a pupil.

The Sunday school at Moroni has an average attendance of 150 pupils, and is presided over by J. M. Christensen, ably assisted by Brother Aaron Hardy.

Spring City, with an average attendance of 150 students, and a live superintendent, the person of Brother John R. Johnson, a man of experience and ability, is not a whit behind the other settlements in this respect.

Fairview has a very fine Sabbath school, with an average attendance of 175, the best attendance according to its population, of any visited by our correspondent.

Heavy Storm—Accident.—A Tooele correspondent informs us that that city was visited, on the evening of the 23rd inst., with one of the most copious thunder showers ever witnessed in that section. The flood rushed down Main and Second Streets with great impetuosity, filling the water ditches with sand and gravel, rendering them useless.

On the 25th the water-masters turned out with a force of men to remove the obstructions. A few days since Bishop V. R. Tuttle, of Tooele City, had the misfortune to have part of the middle finger of the left hand accidentally sawed off.

More Money.—The London Bank of Utah has succeeded so well and extended its business so rapidly that the manager, Mr. Anthony Godbe, feels he can put more money where it will do the stockholders much good than he anticipated. He has therefore gone to London, starting this morning on a quick trip, to call up more of the capital subscribed. During his absence the bank will be in charge of Mr. Raymond, who is well qualified for the task, and the business will suffer no loss during the interval. Mr. Godbe is in high spirits at the success of the undertaking, and will doubtless return with a big addition to the available means at the disposal of the London Bank of Utah.

Missionary Labors in Tennessee.

By letter from Elder Edward Stevenson, dated July 16th, at Duck River, Hickman County, in the above State, we learn that, in company with Elder P. P. Pratt, who joined him from the northern States, on the 15th ult., he had just completed a tour of 100 miles; found a new opening for the spread of the gospel in Louisa County, and had held 24 meetings during the past 23 days. These meetings were fairly attended, notwithstanding the farmers were busy harvesting, and a spirit of belief and inquiry was operating upon the minds of many of the people. The weather was very oppressive. The wheat yield in the Counties of Hickman, Louisa, and Maury, had been very light, at one place 100 acres of land producing but 200 bushels; at another, 60 acres, 61 bushels; and another, 80 acres, 144 bushels. Some farms, however, had yielded from 5 to 10 bushels per acre. The corn crop was good, cotton very light. The season had been unusually wet. Elder Hyrum Clark was released from his mission, on the 16th ult., on account of ill health.

The prospects were good for continued success in that vicinity, and the Elders felt encouraged to proceed in the good work of winning souls to Christ.

Correspondence.

The 24th of East Mountain.

The earlier exercises of the day consisted in the discharge of small arms, firing of cannon, and the hoisting the Stars and Stripes. At 10 a. m. the citizens assembled at the Tabernacle, where till noon the exercises consisted of singing, prayer, speeches, music, recitations, toasts and anecdotes, under the leadership of Daniel Lewis, Esq., marshal of the day. Pioneer-Father Wm. Henrie, chaplain; P. G. Sessions, orator; Edward Thomas, musical director. At two p. m. the citizens again assembled in the tabernacle and were regaled with more singing, speeches, recitations and other amusing, instructive and interesting exercises. While they were going on, the Sabbath school children enjoyed themselves in a free dance in the Relief Society Hall till six o'clock, when they retired and the adult portion of the community enjoyed themselves in like manner. The day throughout was observed as a general holiday and all who participated in the exercises enjoyed themselves very much, realizing a time long to be remembered.

Tooele City.

The 31st anniversary of the entrance of the pioneers into these valleys, was celebrated with firing of guns at daybreak; hoisting of the stars and stripes; serenading by the brass band, under the leadership of Professor T. Croft. At 10 a. m. the people assembled in the meeting house which was neatly and tastefully decorated for the occasion. The meeting was called to order by Jno. Gillespie, marshal of the day. Music by the band; prayer by the chaplain, Thos. Atkin, sr.; singing by the choir, under the leadership of L. Bowen. A short but very interesting oration was delivered by Jas. Ure, orator of the day. Remarks on how we celebrate this day, by the Hon. F. M. Lyman, and a short address on the pioneers, by Jno. Rowberry, Esq. The whole was interspersed with songs, music and recitations. The after part of the day was spent in a dance for the children, ball playing, and a variety of outdoor sports. The day proceedings wound up with a grand ball in the evening, every thing passing off pleasantly. S. S.
