

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

Friday, January 21, 1898.

AFFAIRS OF THE UNION PACIFIC.

Reported Resignation of General Manager Dickinson—The Ogden Gateway.

A report that is widely credited at this time is being attributed to the effect that Mr. Dickinson has resigned as the general manager of the Union Pacific. The report, however, has been denied by the general manager, who has been reported to have recently in fact, been re-elected to his position as general manager of the Union Pacific.

THE OGDEN GATEWAY.

As a result of the recent railroad changes the Ogden gateway has been opened to the Union Pacific, but not closed to the Colorado route. A great deal of business will now come east over the Union Pacific that has been going over the Colorado route.

Utah Press Association.

The Utah Press association's annual meeting occurred yesterday. A few of the members only, however, met at the office of the association, in the Albee block, it having been previously understood that an adjournment would be taken. President James has set the date of meeting for Saturday, February 20th.

National Guard Notes.

Captain Crane of the Twenty-fourth United States Infantry will deliver an address this evening before the Officers' association of the National Guard. The meeting will be held in the city and county building and the subject will be "The National Guard."

The election of Harry A. Press as artillery, which was to have been held on Friday evening last and which was postponed by the Colorado route, has been held on Friday evening, the 20th.

The signal corps ball evening elected First Lieutenant Ralph Sharkey to succeed Capt. P. Decker. The ball was held at the city and county building.

Adjutant General J. C. Cannon, accompanied by several other officers of the Guard, will leave for Salt Lake on Saturday for the purpose of inspecting Company F that evening.

There is no loss when you insure with the Utah Title Insurance and Trust company.

Give me telephone 271, the Citizens' Trust Building, Salt Lake City.

UTAH COAL.

Castle Gate lump, $1.00; Castle Gate cut, $1.10; and Winter Quarters lump, $1.15. Having opened a yard on State Street and High Street, we will now deliver coal to any part of the city at the above prices.

Office 160 South Main, No. 23. T. H. ELLERBERG, R. F. THOMAN.

Big Grande Last Evening.

It must have been gratifying indeed to the promoters of the entertainment given at the Big Grande last evening, to note the spirit of appreciation for home talent that seemed manifest in the gathering of so large an audience.

Large Officers' Dinner.

The Association of Officers held its regular monthly meeting in the joint city and county building last night. County Commissioner Hall presided.

Work and affairs for every cent. Beat the landlord out the rent. Having all the cash in your pocket, never worry, never fret.

Stocks and Investments. Utah bank and commercial stocks and other high grade investment securities bought and sold.

SCHOOL BOARD MATTERS.

Board of Education Respects Aids; Resent Treasurer—Other Business.

The board of education held its regular weekly meeting last night. Among the business transacted was the election of a treasurer for the coming year.

The committee on finance, to which was referred the communication of the Utah Pacific & Co., offering the board $20,000 of Salt Lake City school bonds.

Application for writing insurance on the buildings owned by the board had been made to the Commercial Union Fire & Marine Insurance Co.
