EXTRA SESSION.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 11.—Immediately after the reading of the journal, Edmunds, rising to a question of the highest privilege, moved the oath of office be administered to Nelson W. Aldrich, senator elect from Rhode Island.

There being no objection, the motion was agreed to and Aldrich sworn in.

Edmunds then made a similar motion in the cases of the senators elect from New York.

McPherson interposed, and stated that he desired to present a petition, pending that motion. He held in his hand a communication from certain members of the New York legislature, alleging certain reasons why Lapham and Miller should not be entitled to seats. In regard to these allegations he knew nothing. He did not present the petition with any desire to delay the action upon administering the oath. He offered the petition and would refer it at the proper time to the appropriate committee.

Edmunds said that as the petition refered to the propriety, in swearing in the new Senators from New York, he would not object to its reception at the present time.

The petition was received and laid upon the table, and the oath of office administered to the Senators from New York.

A committee consisting of Pendleton and Anthony was appointed by the presiding officer to wait upon the President and inform him that the Senate was ready to receive any communication he might be pleased to send them. Recess for half an hour.

After recess Edmunds offered a resolution, declaring the standing committees of the Senate as they were constituted at the close of the last session, and authorizing the President pro tem to fill any vacancies which may exist therein.

Harris asked that the resolution lie over one day under the rule so ordered.

The committee appointed to wait on the President, reported that they had performed the duty and that the President had stated he would communicate in writing with the Senate to-morrow.

Mysterious Movements of the Senate.

WASHINGTON, 11.—There is as much mystery hanging over the senatorial situation to-night, as at any time since last Tuesday. The session of the senate to-day was short and harmonious. The new senators were admitted viva voce vote, only three or four democratic dissenting. The democratic senators met twice to-day in caucus, before and after the session of the Senate. Their caucus this afternoon was barren of decided results. The question of appointment of committees and the election of secretary was discussed in an informal manner, but no decided action was taken on either question. It is understood a number favor making an effort to elect a secretary at an early day, in hopes of widening the breach which they think now exists in the republican ranks as to the propriety of supporting George C. Gorham who received the caucus nomination last spring. Whether this step will be taken or not will probably be decided when the democratic caucus meets again to-morrow morning. It is believed to-night there will be a reconstruction of the cabinet this week. Attorney-General MacVeagh is anxious to be relieved and Secretary Windom has asked for the early acceptance of his resignation so that he may not be embarrassed as a candidate for the Senate before the Minnesota Legislature. In view of the fact that this will necessitate a change in part of the cabinet, it is thought that President Arthur is preparing his cabinet as a whole, and will send it in this week. Ex-Governor Morgan, of New York, is again mentioned as likely to succeed Secretary Windom, and Benjamin H. Brewster, who, it is quite certain, has been recommended by Attorney General MacVeagh, is still believed to be the coming Attorney General. A delegation is here from Wisconsin urging ex-Senator Howe for a cabinet place, but President Arthur has as yet said nothing to commit himself to the selection of Howe. Nothing definite, however, can be learned in advance of the intentions of President Arthur in reconstructing or forming a new cabinet. It is a subject of common remark here that President Arthur keeps his own counsel better than any of his predecessors for years, so much so that a surprise is expected any day.

Conjecture.

The democrats talked more or less in caucus this morning about the Secretaryship of the Senate, but will not enter upon election unless confident of their ability to elect. Senator Saunders said this morning that the republicans would not bother with the election of a Secretary this session, as they want to adjourn as soon as possible. It is said the republicans had been willing to concede the Secretaryship to the democrats, but claimed the President pro tem. That the democrats had taken the President, and to be as consistent as possible the republicans having accorded them the Secretary, would let them elect their man. President Arthur has notified republican senators that he would make no nominations except to fill vacancies of minor importance. He said that he did not think the Senate session would last ten days. If so he will not under the tenure of office act he required to make nominations this session. It will take until regular session to consider all but small places. The impression among republican Senators is that a new Cabinet will be made up completely. If Windom retires, even Western democrats admit that the Treasury portfolio will go to New York. Logan says there is no truth in the report that he will nominate Davis, of Illinois, for President of the Senate to displace Bayard. Logan intimated that he might vote for Davis. It is pretty certain that no attempt will ever be made to question the right of Senator Miller of New York to his seat on the protest of New York democrats, presented by McPherson to-day. The democratic Senators are generally satisfied that Miller's election was regular and fair, and no flaw. The protest will be carried next winter to the committee on elections, and will there remain probably. The uncertainty of how Davis, of Illinois, will vote makes the democrats hesitate about the election of a secretary. If sure of his vote they would, no doubt, press a faction fight now.

Cabinet Meeting.

At 12 o'clock a meeting of the Cabinet was held at the residence of Senator Jones, all the members attending, and at 1 o'clock it was still in session. It is generally believed that at least two Cabinet changes will be announced when the Senate convenes to-morrow, the retiring members being Windom and MacVeagh.

It is known that the President has on his desk over 100 nominations.

The Cabinet remained in session about an hour and a quarter. The meeting was unimportant and devoted principally to the political situation.

Retiring Members.

Secretary Windom states that no intimation has been given him as to who his successor will be, and Attorney-General MacVeagh says his retirement will not in any way embarrass the President. He regarded his tenure of office at an end when President Garfield died.

The Star Case.

In court this morning, Totten, for the defense in the Star route case, presented a motion to rescind the order made some days ago, authorizing that information be filed. He also presented a motion asking for an order on the district attorney to bring the records and files of the Post Office Department relating to this particular route to some place where it can be seen. The motion to rescind the order allowing information to be filed, is a long, technical document. The causes set out in it are that no notice of such information was given to the defendants; that the court was without jurisdiction; that matters charged in the information appear to have taken place about three years before the application for leave to file, and no excuse or explanation of delay is given or attempted; that affidavits in support of the information are insufficient; that proceeding by information is not authorized by law and is contrary to the practice of the court; that information does not charge any offense against any law of the United States; that matters alleged were impossible of execution by defendants; that information was not filed by any officer of the United States authorized for such purpose. Because of the existence of the regulations of the Postoffice Department authorizing the Postmaster General to ordermay increase or extension of service and allow a pro rata increase of pay, such rule having been made before defendant, Brady, became Second Assistant Postmaster General, and the allowance of McDonough being made in conformity with it. Increase of service had been petitioned for and urged upon the defendant by an officer of the United States in Arizona and New Mexico, and by governors and ex-governors of those Territories and citizens of those Territories, which petitions, etc., are on file. The pay for increased service amounts to $24,195; also made contractors in the months of June and July after defendants Brady and French had left the Department.

Mahone.

Congressman Jorgenson, who has been a prominent leader of straight-out republicans of Virginia, has decided to issue a circular urging all the Virginia republicans to support Mahone and his readjuster ticket. Jorgenson says that Mahone's action yesterday in voting for Anthony as president of the Senate, shows him to be as good a republican as anybody.

Howgate.

A new action was commenced to-day against Henry W. Howgate, late of the signal service, for the recovery of $25,000, and an order was obtained to attach certain shares of Western Union stock held by Howgate, and also a further order to serve papers on him in Washington.

Visitors.

Senators Cameron, Saunders, Logan, Platt, Cameron, of Wisconsin, Van Wyck, Sherman and three or four members of Congress called on President Arthur this morning.

The President.

The President has accepted an invitation to attend the Yorktown Centennial ceremonies. He will go early next week.

That Conflagration.

NEW YORK, 11.—The loss by the burning warehouse and car stable is now estimated at $200,000 to $250,000. About 200 horses perished. The following additional loss by the warehouse fire is reported: H. J. Taylor, diamonds and jewelry, insured, $10,000; Gen. Robert Anderson, furniture and paintings, $15,000; E. G. Hall, trunk with valuables and furniture, $15,000; Mrs. L. M. Carrier, furniture and valuables, insured, $20,000. Two valuable oil paintings belonging to Wm. A. Kattele's estate was burned. A number of persons who had goods on storage, exceeded $15,000, and hardly a tithe of the property will ever be received back. A large number of small private safes containing highly prized jewelry were all lost. Eleven cars were running to-day on the Fourth Avenue road instead of 100, the usual number.

A Wail from Wall Street.

NEW YORK, 11.—The Commercial Bulletin says: Wall Street is disappointed at the Treasury relief measure, which is to prepay $5,000,000 of the $14,000,000 remaining bonds called for redemption December 24th, which prepayment is to begin next Monday at Washington. It takes three months to get bonds to Washington, and they have to be assigned to the Secretary of the Treasury when sent, and before it is known whether they will be accepted. If they are accepted on Monday, the money gets out about the middle of next week; if not accepted, the bonds are returned and the owner has been deprived of their uses as collateral for a good part of the week, so that altogether this easy order was not considered much of a relief to Wall Street speculators. This was followed by a general liquidation to sell stocks to-day, which caused a net decline of 1 to 2 per cent. in the more active stocks.

American Whiskey.

James R. Keene of coffee fame delighted even the misery of Pat Ingalls. His winnings are said to be upwards of $500,000, and operators of sporting proclivities have won all the way from $1,000 to $20,000. Keene himself says Foxhall was backed to win $250,000. A great deal of American money was on him. Walton, of the St. James Hotel in this city, sends a message from England, or what purports to be such, stating that he won $40,000. Keene says of the horse, "I think Foxhall the best three-year-old in the world." It was thought he would run the Ozonwitch, but there was so much fuss made about Mistake and another, and he had to give several horses a year, which amounts to 14 pounds. Latterly I began to have doubts, but Foxhall has justified the faith we all had in him, and as an American I am proud of the victory.

The Fund.

The Post contains a notice of the closing of the Garfield fund on the 17th.

The Evening Mail says the fund now amounts to $338,284.03. The United States Trust Company holds $25,000 in United States 4 per cent. bonds and the invested balance of the American people. Not a cent has been taken from the fund for expenses incurred in raising it. On the 1st of this month a check for the quarterly interest on the United States bonds held in trust, was sent to Mrs. Garfield by the United States Trust Company. A check for nearly $10,000 has also been sent to the President's mother, covering gifts made specially for her benefit.

German Delegates to Yorktown.

The committee having in charge the reception of the German delegates to Yorktown, invited the Police Commissioners to be present at the review of Thursday evening, at the Plaza, Union Square. It is expected there will be at least 15,000 people in line, composed of the United German societies of this city and military organizations. The singing societies will form in front of the grand stand and serenade the guests.

The N. Y. Democracy.

ALBANY, 11. — Tweedleham is packed with delegates and others in attendance at the democratic convention. Much cheering occurred when Senator Kernan arrived, and the band began to play. General Sickles and Hubert O. Thompson were all loudly cheered. The Tammany and Irving Hall delegation will probably leave for New York this afternoon. General Falker came up from the body of the hall at 1.20 and was enthusiastically received. He at once called the convention to order, merely thanking them for the reception and on the amicable feeling which characterized all the preliminary proceedings. (Laughter.)

D. B. Hill was chosen temporary chairman without opposition, and addressed the convention, briefly expressing the hope that all differences be harmoniously settled and peace prevail.

Referring to national affairs, Senator Hill said neither the civil war nor the hand of the assassin had been able to destroy the people's faith in the stability of the government. Sectional animosities have ceased, and all the efforts of our political opponents for purposes most partisan will not avail to kindle the dead embers of sectional bitterness. It is our duty to enter a solemn protest against the wholesale corruption by which the presidency was virtually purchased away from us. It was no fault of the gallant soldier who led our ticket, that he was not awarded the victory which he richly deserved through the efforts of the Dorseys and Bradys and the ring which they led. The will of the people was nullified by the unscrupulous use of funds stolen from the General Treasury and levied upon Federal officials and great monopolies and moneyed corporations as the price of special privileges and franchise granted them by republican legislation.

The call of the roll then proceeded. The credentials of all contesting delegations were referred to the committee. Various committees were appointed and the convention took recess.

'Tis Love that Makes the Robbers Rob.

LITTLE ROCK, 11.—Delaney, one of the Iron Mountain train robbers, tells the following story of the robbery: We are all poor boys and live at San Augustine; have good relatives there and hope they will never hear of our disgrace. All of us were in love and the girls loved us. We had no money and did not see how we could support them if we married; we were determined to get married, and so laid our plans to get money. We had read about the James boys in the papers and books and saw how easy it was to rob trains and get away, and decided to rob a train. We left home three weeks ago yesterday, coming direct to Arkansas. After robbing the train, we did not think we would be pursued. We were going back home with the money and marry our girls and settle down. We had no accomplices. We planned the whole thing ourselves. We only got $4,000 or $5,000 in cash from the Express Company, the balance being bank checks. All of it, excepting a few dollars, was stolen by the men who captured us.

U. C. Moore, one of the men who captured Monroe and Delaney, says the report of the captors robbing them is untrue. He says the money was divided for safety, and that they have already delivered to the Express Company $7,250.

Dying Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, 11.—A Wilcox dispatch says: Nothing is yet heard from the troops operating against Chirachua. They are thought to be near the southern end of the Chirachua Mountains. Gen. McKenzie has returned to Thomas. Nothing new at the agency, except the arrest of one hostile who was at the Biblical fight. Reports from Thomas, Grant, Bowie and vicinity say the Indian excitement is dying out. Ranchers, stock men and miners are pursuing their different vocations.

Spanish Feud.

A Victoria dispatch says: Advices from Nicola are to the effect that about the last of September, rain and snow came on unexpectedly. The early grain was all got in, but the late grain suffered severely, and some of it will be lost. In Shellmacheen and Okanagon the wheat is nearly all ruined, but most of the oats and barley were got in. The rain, snow and frost extended from the boundary line as far as Clinton. This loss falls heavily on the farmers of the interior who had prepared for a heavy demand from the railway. It is impossible at present to estimate the number of tons of wheat destroyed but in some farms it amounts to the entire crop. The wheat and flour consumed on the railroad works must now be brought from Oregon and California.

Coal Senate Bonds.

DALLAS, Texas, 11.—The banks to-day received telegrams from Wall Street parties informing them that they want all the Confederate bonds they can secure. They will pay $2.50 per thousand dollars for said securities. The announcement surprised everybody, as the move is not understood. It is surmised hat this sudden apparent value of what has been considered worthless and dead collateral, is a scheme of collusion on the part of European and New York capitalists to jointly purchase the bonds and in future endeavor to get the State or General Government to pay them.

Ohio.

CLEVELAND, 11.—The election is progressing quietly. Very light vote so far.

Columbus, 11.—Forty-four townships show a net democratic gain of 35, and a total temperance vote of 247. At this rate the temperance vote will be about 1,000. Comparisons in these returns are based on the election of October, 1880, for Secretary of State.

A Methodist Heretic.

CHICAGO, 11.—In the trial by the Methodist Conference at Sycamore, Ill., of Dr. H. W. Thomas, of Chicago, on charge of heresy, a verdict was rendered sustaining the principal charges and expelling him from the ministry and the church. Dr. Thomas has given indication of his intention of taking a prompt appeal to the Judicial Conference which meets in December. The conference now in session at Sycamore has consequently appointed Rev. Drs. Hatfield, Guernley and Parkhurst to represent that body in the new trial.

Hairbreadth Escape.

WHEELING, W. V., Oct 11.—A very singular and daring robbery occurred here this morning. Mrs. Alex. Otterson was awakened about 5 o'clock, by a noise in her bedroom and discovered a masked man in the act of going through the bureau drawers. In moving in bed, Mrs. Otterson attracted the attention of the robber, who compelled her, at the muzzle of a pistol, to rise and setting her in a chair, cut off her hair, which was of exceedingly luxurious growth. There was no further molestation and the robber departed, making good his escape.

Failed for a Million

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 11.—Butcher & Sons, wholesale provision dealers 146 North Front street, have suspended payment; liabilities, $1,000,000. The firm has been engaged in large speculations, and it is understood had a long outstanding account in the Chicago market. Until their books can be examined and a full investigation of accounts made, no definate estimation can be made. The report of the failure created a decided sensation.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, 11.—Market steady and firm, full prices continue to be obtained. There is a steady demand for manufacturers. We quote sales of Ohio and Pennsylvania at 43 @ 45 for X and XX, the latter was obtained only for very superior lots. Michigan and Wisconsin fleeces 40 @ 42 for X, and in poor demand. Unwashed fleeces continue in request at 18 @ 19 for carpet, 24 @ 32½ for prime, 26 @ 35 for medium, the latter prices for selected lots. Fine delaine is very scarce and commands full prices, ranging from 47 @ 49 per pound. No. 1 combing also wanted, at 48 @ 50 for desirable lots. Unwashed combing ranges from 30 @ 33 as to quality. California spring wool has been in fair request; fall wools neglected. Pulled wools are selling at 30 @ 35 for low supers, 35 @ 45 for good and choice, and 45 @ 50 for fancy supers. Foreign wool has been quite unchanged, and the stock held firm.
